I Just Keep Talking Nell Irvin Painter,2024-04-23 A NEW YORK TIMES NOTABLE BOOK From the New York Times bestselling author of The History of White People and Old in Art School a finalist for the NBCC Award comes a comprehensive new collection of essays spanning art politics and the legacy of racism that shapes American history as we know it Throughout her prolific writing career Nell Painter has published works on such luminaries as Sojourner Truth Ralph Waldo Emerson and Malcolm X Her unique vantage on American history pushes the boundaries of personal narrative and academic authorship Led by an unbridled curiosity for her subjects Painter asks readers to reconsider ideas of race politics and identity I Just Keep Talking assembles her writing for the first time into a single volume displaying the breadth and depth of Painter s decades long historical inquiry and the evolution of Black political thought and includes a dazzling introduction and coda being published for the first time in this collection From her mining of figures like Carrie Buck and Martin Delaney for their resonance today to a deep dive into the history of exclusion through the work of Toni Morrison to a discussion of the American political landscape after the 2016 election Painter nimbly portrays the trials of a country frequently at war with itself Along with Painter s writing this collection offers her original artwork threaded throughout the book as counterpoint and emphasis Her visual art shows a deft mind turning toward the tragedy and humor of her subjects pulling from newspapers personal records and original sketches Painter s artwork testifies to the dialectic of tremendous change and stasis that continues to shape American history These essays resist easy answers in favor of complexity the inescapable sense of our country s potential thwarted by its failures This collection will surely solidify Painter s place among the finest critics and writers of the last half century

West Indian Pentecostals Janice A. McLean-Farrell,2016-02-11 This is a significant in depth study that explores the cultural context of the religious experience of West Indian immigrant communities Whereas most studies to date have focussed on how immigrants settle in their new home contexts Janice A McLean Farrell argues for a more comprehensive perspective that takes into account the importance of religion and the role of both home and the host contexts in shaping immigrant lives in the Diaspora West Indian Pentecostals Living Their Faith in New York and London explores how these three elements religion the home and host contexts influence the ethnic religious identification processes of generations of West Indian immigrants Using case studies from the cities of New York and London the book offers a critical cross national comparison into the complex and indirect ways the historical socio economic and political realities in diaspora contribute to both the identification processes and the missional practices of immigrants Its focus on Pentecostalism also provides a unique opportunity to test existing theories and concepts on the interface of religion and immigration and makes important contributions to the study of Pentecostalism

Teaching for Racial Equity Tonya B. Perry, Steven Zemelman, Katy Smith, 2023-10-10 Recipient of the 2022 Excellence in Equity Award It is not enough to be against racism in education teachers must be actively antiracist Yet how do we start reflecting on our own beliefs and lives so we can truly teach for racial literacy In the award winning Teaching for Racial Equity Becoming Interrupters authors Tonya Perry Steven Zemelman and Katy Smith engage in honest conversations between educators of color and their white colleagues Authentic inspiring and sometimes uncomfortable teachers share stories of personal histories and experiences that shaped them as people and educators In this book you will find Strategies to understand different backgrounds through a racial lens and ways to address potentially difficult conversations with fellow educators In depth overview of Yolanda Sealey Ruiz s Archaeology of Self™ and how it can be personally and professionally adopted Lists of resources for teaching about and actively interrupting racism in education and tools that document systemic inequalities in the classroom Ways to facilitate student led conversations which examine race and inequitable conditions found nationwide By examining inequalities found at a systemic level teachers can start to remove some of their internal biases and allow students to show who they truly are In turn this can help create a school curriculum that makes space for BIPOC voices that inspire and invite students to share Teaching for Racial Equity Becoming Interrupters provides a resource for teachers and educators to critically reflect and begin work to interrupt racism at all levels

Fractured Modernity Thomas Welskopp, Alan Lessoff, 2016-07-11 The ten essays in this volume deal with the debates and conflicts about modernity in a period of American history when the tensions and strains caused by seemingly unrestrained change and the reactions to it were particularly severe and tangible Partly concentrating on the margins or dark underworlds of modernity such as racism and violence partly focusing on the allegedly unlimited space to negotiate and create social order from scratch the contributions to this volume show that and discuss why modernity was an issue in contemporary United States which seemed to have been even more hotly contested than in Europe at the same time albeit sometimes in terms of Americanism rather than modernism In this book European scholars of the United States apply variations on the transnational discourse on modernity to unexpected dimensions of U S history making this volume a fascinating example of the present day enterprise of internationalizing American studies The Gilded Age & Progressive Era Elisabeth Israels Perry, Karen Manners Smith, 2006-10-30 More than 250 entries provide information on a wide range of topics related to the Gilded Age and Progressive Era covering the economic political and cultural changes and expansions that took place from 1877 to 1920 Freedom Facts and Firsts Jessie Carney Smith, Linda T Wynn, 2009-01-01 Spanning nearly 400 years from the early abolitionists to the present Freedom Facts and Firsts 400 Years of the African American Civil Rights Experience profiles more than 400 people places and events that have shaped the history of the black struggle for freedom Covering such mainstay figures as Martin Luther King Jr Malcolm X and Rosa Parks as well as delving into how lesser known figures contributed to and shaped the history of civil rights Freedom Facts and Firsts chronicles the breadth and passion of an entire people s quest for freedom Among the inspiring stories found in this comprehensive resource are How the Housewives League of Detroit started a nationwide movement to support black businesses helping many to survive the Great Depression What effect the sports journalist Samuel Harold Lacy had on Jackie Robinson s historic entrance into the major leagues How the 9th and 10th Cavalry and the 24th and 25th Infantry became known as the Buffalo Soldiers a term of respect and endearment How Whoopi Goldberg survived poverty drug addiction single parenthood and a welfare income and used her personal history to take a satirical look at social issues How world champion bicyclist Marshall Major Taylor was the first American born black champion in any sport How in 1890 John Mercer Langston became the first black U S congressman elected from his native state of Virginia This inspiring resource offers an encouraging look at the historic struggles and triumphs of black men and women in politics arts music journalism law social work and sports the authors chart a full and inspiring history of African American activism The African Diaspora Patrick Manning, 2010-03-05 Patrick Manning follows the multiple routes that brought Africans and people of African descent into contact with one another and with Europe Asia and the Americas In joining these stories he shows how the waters of the Atlantic Ocean the Mediterranean Sea and the Indian Ocean fueled dynamic interactions among black communities and cultures and how these patterns resembled those of a number of connected diasporas concurrently taking shape across the globe Manning begins in 1400 and traces the connections that enabled Africans to mutually identify and hold together as a global community He tracks discourses on race changes in economic circumstance the evolving character of family life and the growth of popular culture He underscores the profound influence that the African diaspora had on world history and demonstrates the inextricable link between black migration and the rise of modernity Inclusive and far reaching The African Diaspora proves that the advent of modernity cannot be fully understood without taking the African peoples and the African continent into account Fire Under My Feet Ofosuwa M.
