Creating Positive Passings End Of Life Doula Level 1 Caregiver Training:

The Good Death Suzanne B. O'Brien, 2025-03-18 Practical wisdom and holistic planning to ease life's most difficult transition from an acclaimed hospice nurse, death doula, and end of life educator. Many of us have to show up for someone we love at the end of life. Knowing how to do that changes everything. With over twenty years of experience as a hospice nurse, palliative care professional, and founder of the DoulaGivers Institute, Suzanne B. O'Brien RN has trained more than 350,000 people in what can be done to help the dying person, caregiver, and other loved ones so they may move through each stage with as much comfort and ease as possible. In The Good Death, O'Brien provides a comprehensive plan and the empowering knowledge to make a beautiful, sacred, and profound experience for everyone involved. Through practical advice, emotional support, and expert insights, O'Brien gently holds your hand through every aspect of the process, including: Learning how fear of death makes end of life harder and how we can begin to quell it; Care instructions to ensure your loved one's comfort; Support system strategies to avoid burnout as a caregiver. To further empower you in facilitating a good death, the second half of the book is presented in workbook style. The Peace of Mind Planner features prompts to initiate important conversations with your loved one about their physical, mental, emotional, financial, and spiritual preferences, and space to record this important information. The planner allows you to be fully present in these last precious moments and come away with a thorough plan for your loved one's end of life wishes. With empathy and a careful approach, The Good Death is not only a comprehensive, compassionate, and in-depth resource; it is a beacon of hope and support. Finding Peace at the End of Life Henry Fersko-Weiss, 2020-08-01 Beautiful, poignant, pitch-perfect, and accessible: a road map for clinicians, patients, family members, and caregivers. BJ Miller MD, author of A Beginner's Guide to the End, Practical Advice for Living Life and Facing Death. This groundbreaking book encourages us to face our fears and engage in an open, honest dialog about death. Here, longtime death doula Henry Fersko-Weiss helps the dying discover meaning in their lives, express that meaning in powerful and beautiful legacies, and plan for their final days with dignity. The doula approach to death emphasizes thoughtful planning for how the last days should look, sound, and feel, and encourages the use of touch, guided imagery, and ritual during the dying process. It also calls for around the clock vigil care, which provides emotional and spiritual support for both the dying person and their loved ones. Caring for the Dying Henry Fersko-Weiss, 2017-01-01 A gentle guide for families and caregivers. Jacket. The Good Death Suzanne B. O'Brien, RN, 2025-03-18 The founder and CEO of DoulaGivers Institute provides insight into what constitutes a good death and how we can help our loved ones through this monumental transition with empathy, patience, and peace of mind. For most of us, there is no harder life experience than caring for a loved one who is dying. Suzanne O'Brien realized this earlier than most, during her time working as a nurse in hospice care, often offered as a comforting alternative to a sterile hospital environment. But Suzanne saw the real financial and staffing limitations that came with hospice and realizing this option didn't provide all the answers, wanted to take it a step further, providing her patients and their families with the tools to approach the death of a loved one with grace dignity knowledge and compassion In 2012 Suzanne founded the Doulagivers Institute which has since trained hundreds of thousands of doulas around the world The Good Death will distill down the information of this course and all that Suzanne has learned during her decades in healthcare to provide the reader with a step by step guide to preparing for the future death of a loved one and helping them through the actual passing when the time comes This book will equip the reader with everything they need to know to prepare for a financial physical mental emotional and spiritual good death both for them and for their loved one Accompanying the Dying Deanna Cochran,2019 Accompanying the Dying describes the human skill and art of companioning someone through dying There is a wide gap in this knowing of how to accompany the dying which is why this book is timely and needed at this juncture of the death positive movement The book is meant to empower us as a society to understand how to die well in this modern age Deanna describes the newly emerging role of the end of life doula which is a nonmedical role that provides practical emotional and spiritual support to the dying and their family This role is a powerful solution to the looming crisis in health care as our baby boomers and their elders age and die in the oncoming years The book is overflowing with wisdom that only someone with years of experience can impart offers historical context and present day initiatives and describes how end of life doulas and health care advocates can change the face of dying wherever they choose to serve No doubt Accompanying the Dying takes its place among the great works of humanity bringing us to the next level of awareness in companioning our family friends and communities with skillful loving care Death Nesting Anne-Marie Keppel,2023-08-15 A practical and compassionate guide to physically emotionally and spiritually caring for the dying 2024 Coalition of Visionary Resources Gold Award Shares practices for emotional soothing breathing techniques to reduce anxiety and pain ways to reduce stress during the active dying process and techniques to physically care for the dying including methods to assist bedridden individuals Explores ceremony and energetic boundary guidelines Reiki and ancestral support techniques and herbal care for nourishing and healing on a spirit level Presents self care methods for moving with grief ideas for things to do when there is nothing to do mindfulness practices for contemplating your own mortality as well as guidance for talking with children about death and dying Winner of a 2020 Independent Publisher IPPY award Just as we might prepare a nest for one about to give birth so can we lovingly prepare a nest for one who is dying In this practical and compassionate guide death doula educator Anne Marie Keppel incorporates ancient and modern techniques mindfulness practices and herbal support to show how anyone can care for the dying whether at home in hospice or even in the ICU She demystifies the dying process by explaining what the body goes through during end of life and presents practices for emotional soothing and other ways to reduce stress and anxiety during the active dying process The author provides techniques to physically care for the dying including methods to assist bedridden individuals She shares ceremony and energetic boundary guidelines Reiki and ancestral support techniques and herbal care for nourishing and healing on a spirit
