Creating Short Fiction The Classic Guide To Writing Short Fiction:

Creating Short Fiction Damon Knight, 1997-03-15 Distilled from decades of teaching and practice Creating Short Fiction offers no nonsense advice on structure pacing dialogue getting ideas and much more Creating Short Fiction Damon Knight, 2017 The classic guide to writing short fiction Revised Expanded 3rd ed What Knight doesn't know about writing the short story cannot be put into expository prose anyway Algis Budrys Damon Knight is one of the preeminent teachers of writing in this country Creating Short Fiction should be considered essential for all beginning writers not to mention a few others who've forgotten the invaluable information it contains Lucius Shepard Distilled from decades of teaching and practice Creating Short Fiction offers no nonsense advice on structure pacing dialogue getting ideas and much more It includes examples and exercises that have proved their extraordinary effectiveness in classrooms and workshops everywhere Creating Short Fiction is a timeless classic that brims with priceless advice for anyone interested in writing short stories Damon Knight a SFWA Grand Master founder of SFWA author of dozens of well-regarded books and long-time writing teacher founded the Milford Writers Workshop that was the basis for the renowned writers workshops such as Clarion and Critters To those who hunger to be writers I commend this book without reservation Harlan Ellison From Big Idea to Book Jessie L. Kwak, 2022-04-12 Want to write a book Half the battle is finding a practice that works for you Successful author and creativity expert Jessie Kwak is here to help you do just that and have fun doing it In her view every part of the process is important idea generation development research planning drafting revising and publication and are all covered here in friendly accessible detail As in her previous book From Chaos to Creativity Kwak helps you set up a system that makes the most of your creative ideas and helps them find their best form and their audience Fiction and nonfiction writers alike can use this book as a muse a checklist and a resource for getting your ideas out of your head and into the world With a foreword by Charlie Gilkey author of Start Finishing How to Be a Writer Barbara Baig, 2010-08-30 Athletes practice Musicians practice As a writer you need to do the same Whether you have dreams of writing a novel or a memoir or a collection of poems or you simply want to improve your everyday writing this innovative book will show you how to build your skills by way of practice Through playful and purposeful exercises you'll develop your natural aptitude for communication strengthening your ability to come up with things to say and your ability to get those things into the minds and the hearts of readers You'll learn to Train and develop your writer's powers creativity memory observation imagination curiosity and the subconscious Understand the true nature of the relationship between you and your readers Find your writer's voice Get required writing projects done so you have more time for the writing you want to do And much more Empowering and down to earth How to Be a Writer gives you the tools you need and tells you what and how to practice so that you can become the writer you want to be The Geographies of African American Short Fiction Kenton Rambsy, 2022-03-25 Perhaps the brevity of short fiction accounts for the relatively scant attention devoted to it by scholars who have historically concentrated on longer prose narratives The Geographies of African American Short Fiction seeks to fill this gap by analyzing the ways African American short story writers plotted a diverse range of characters across multiple locations small towns a famous metropolis city sidewalks a rural wooded area apartment buildings a pond a general store a prison and more In the process these writers highlighted the extents to which places and spaces shaped or situated racial representations Presenting African American short story writers as cultural cartographers author Kenton Ramsby documents the variety of geographical references within their short stories to show how these authors make cultural spaces integral to their artwork and inscribe their stories with layered and resonant social histories The history of these short stories also documents the circulation of compositions across dozens of literary collections for nearly a century Anthology editors solidified the significance of a core group of short story authors including James Baldwin Toni Cade Bambara Charles Chesnutt Ralph Ellison Zora Neale Hurston and Richard Wright Using quantitative information and an extensive literary dataset The Geographies of African American Short Fiction explores how editorial practices shaped the canon of African American short fiction

The Camp Colman Hogan, Marta Marin-Dòmine, 2007 The camp is nothing if not diverse in kind scope and particularity in sociological and juridical configuration in texture iconography and political import Adjectives of camp specificity embrace a spectrum from extermination and concentration to detention migration deportation and refugee camps And while the geographic range covered by contributors is hardly global it is broad Chile Rwanda Canada the US Central Europe Morocco Algeria South Africa France and Spain And yet is to so characterize the camp to run the risk of diffusing what in origin is a concentration into a paratactical series of oidentity particularisms While The Camp does not seek to antithetically promulgate a universalist vision it does aim to explore the imbrication of the particular and the universal to analyze the structure of a camp or camps and to call attention the role of the listener in the construction of the testimony For by naming what cannot be said is not every narrative of internment and exclusion a potential site of agency articulating the inner splitting of language that Giorgio Agamben defines as the locus of testimony oeto bear witness is to place oneself in one TM s own language in the position of those who have lost it to establish oneself in a living language as if it were dead or in a dead language as if it were living
