Democracys Edge Choosing To Save Our Country By Bringing Democracy To Life:

Democracy's Edge Frances Moore Lappe, 2005-10-28 Three out of five Americans both Republicans and Democrats feel our country is headed in the wrong direction America is at the edge a critical place at which we can either renew and revitalize or give in and lose that most precious American ideal democracy and along with it the freedom fairness and opportunities it assures Democracy s Edge is a rousing battle cry that we can and must act now From Jefferson to Eisenhower presidents from both parties have warned us of the danger of letting a closed narrow group of business and government officials concentrate power over our lives Yet today a small and unrepresentative group of people is making vital decisions for all of us But this crisis is only a symptom Lapp argues It s a symptom of thin democracy something done to us or for us not by or with us Such democracy is always at risk of being stolen by private interests or extremist groups left and right But there is a solution The answer says Lapp is Living Democracy a powerful yet often invisible citizens revolution surging in communities across America It s not random disjointed activism but the emergence of a new historical stage of democracy in which Americans realize that democracy isn t something we have but something we do Either we live it or lose it says Lapp

The New Village Green Stephen Morris, the Editors of Green Living, 2007-09-01 The village green is the focal point of any community a gathering place where the best ideas take root and the brightest voices are heard The New Village Green gathers some of the best ideas and brightest voices of the green community some famous and familiar others fresh and unknown Each tells an absorbing story and collectively they comprise a powerful chorus that profiles the current state of the environment This remarkable book gathers wisdom and insight from a compelling and thought provoking virtual community Each contributor brings a unique perspective that mingles reverence for the environment with provocative thoughts for the future Topics range from spirituality to solar panels and just like a real village green are juxtaposed with opinions from the new village people including Writers Bill McKibben and Michael Pollan Scientists James Lovelock and Donella Meadows Spiritual leaders Gandhi and Buddha Practical homespun topics are given equal time Good reasons to embrace alternative currencies Tips for growing great garlic Meant to be devoured in one sitting or sipped a little at a time this book springboards the green movement into the future by acknowledging its roots in the past Rachel Carson Paul Ehrlich and Helen and Scott Nearing are as relevant today as the Slow Food Movement and Peak Oil This book will touch the heart of anyone who lives with conscience and hope strategies in the context of real world issues and challenges

The Secret History of the American Empire John

Perkins, 2007-06-05 From the author of the New York Times bestseller Confessions of an Economic Hit Man comes an exposé of international corruption Perkins suggests how Americans can work to create a more peaceful and stable world for future generations

Daring Democracy

Frances Moore Lappé, Adam Eichen, 2017-09-26 An optimistic book for Americans who are asking in the wake of Trump's victory What do we do now The answer We need to organize and fight to protect and expand our democracy Americans are distraught as tightly held economic and political power drowns out their voices and values Legendary Diet for a Small Planet author Frances Moore Lappé and organizer scholar Adam Eichen offer a fresh surprising response to this core crisis This intergenerational duo opens with an essential truth It's not the magnitude of a challenge that crushes the human spirit It's feeling powerless in this case fearing that to stand up for democracy is futile It's not Lappé and Eichen argue With riveting stories and little known evidence they demystify how we got here exposing the well orchestrated effort that has robbed Americans of their rightful power But at the heart of this unique book are solutions Even in this divisive time Americans are uniting across causes and ideologies to create a canopy of hope the authors call the Democracy Movement In this invigorating movement of movements millions of Americans are leaving despair behind as they push for and achieve historic change The movement and democracy itself are vital to us as citizens and fulfill human needs for power meaning and connection essential to our thriving In this timely and necessary book Lappé and Eichen offer proof that courage is contagious in the daring fight for democracy

Purpose Beyond 2012 Wj Reichertz, 2012-05-22 Like many Americans Ricky Vogt was searching for a career and purpose during the fallout from America's 2008 economic implosion At the same time the nation was searching to resolve energy environmental and economic problems within a dysfunctional political system This story explains how Vogt joined his fellow Americans as they fought amongst themselves in search of a better vision He questions how community resolves the tension between intolerance and personal liberty between the selfishness of trickle down economics and the ideals of spirituality and our founding documents promoting the common good The book depicts Vogt's evolving search for better solutions and a new way forward

Six Women Who Shaped What

Americans Eat Michelle Mart, 2025-07-15 Six Women Who Shaped What Americans Eat tells the story of how food choice in modern America has been influenced by culture industrial abundance and health narratives Mart reflects on the careers of six women to illustrate the varied and overlapping influences on food choice Each of these women had a substantial impact on American cuisine attitudes toward food and what people chose to eat They highlighted the politics of food the pleasure of food the connection between food and health and the environmental harm of poor food choices Part one of the book discusses the bounties of the modern American food system and covers Hazel Stiebeling Poppy Cannon and Julia Child Stiebeling was a chemist and government nutritionist beginning in the 1930s and shaped dietary guidelines and school lunches that affected generations of Americans Cannon a best selling cookbook author and newspaper columnist gained fame in the 1950s by preaching the wonders of processed food Child another cookbook author and television personality starting in the 1960s celebrated French cuisine and made it accessible to American cooks and palates Part two examines the hidden costs of abundance and covers Frances Moore Lapp Marion Nestle and Alice Waters Lapp was an author and activist concerned with the environmental impact of food in the late 20th century and who is credited with bringing vegetarianism into the mainstream Nestle was an academic nutritionist government consultant and author who decried the undue influence of food corporations Waters a celebrity chef restaurateur and food activist became a symbol of alternative food movements in the 21st century Provided by publisher Global Transformation Wade Hudson,2007-07 In 2000 Wade Hudson took a break from community organizing to consider with colleagues how the progressive movement might be more effective This book summarizes his conclusions From the Preface My hope is to encourage progressive individuals and organizations to Agree on a comprehensive worldview rooted in a commitment to protect the environment and serve all humanity Steadily reform our institutions our culture and ourselves to serve that purpose Cultivate home based communities that nurture the whole person Form alliances with people in other countries working in the same direction This strategy I believe could help transform the global social system that is leading us into one disaster after another Diet for a Small Planet (Revised and Updated) Frances Moore Lappé,2021-09-21 Discover a way of eating that revolutionized the meaning of our food choices and sold more than 3 million copies now in a 50th anniversary edition with a timely introduction plus new and updated plant centered recipes Frances Moore Lapp is one of the few people who can credibly be said to have changed the way we eat and one of an even smaller group to have done it for the better The New York Times In 1971 Diet for a Small Planet broke new ground revealing how our everyday acts are a form of power to create health for ourselves and our planet This extraordinary book first exposed the needless waste built into a meat centered diet Now in a special edition for its 50th anniversary world renowned food expert Frances Moore Lapp goes even deeper showing us how plant centered eating can help restore our damaged ecology address the climate crisis and move us toward real democracy Sharing her personal journey and how this revolutionary book shaped her own life Lapp offers a fascinating philosophy on changing yourself and the world that can start with changing the way we eat This new edition features eighty five updated plant centered recipes including more than a dozen new delights from celebrity chefs including Mark Bittman Padma Lakshmi Alice Waters Jos Andr s Bryant Terry Mollie Katzen and Sean Sherman Getting a Grip Frances Moore Lappe,2010-10-08 Designated by The New York Times Book Review as a must read in 2008 for the next U S president Lapps unique take and laser like logic invite readers to try on a new invigorating way of seeing the world With her characteristic boldness she takes on a set of disempowering ideas driving economic and ecological crises challenging readers to rethink the meaning of power democracy and hope itself In her punchy no holds barred style Lapp weaves together fresh insights startling facts and stirring vignettes of regular people pursuing ingenuous solutions My books intent Lapp writes is to enable us to see what is happening all around us but is still invisible to most of us people in all walks of life penetrating the spiral of despair and reversing it with new ideas innovation and courage This updated and revised edition responds to Obama s presidency and the global financial collapse concluding with reflection questions that are perfect for book groups The Routledge Companion to Environmental Ethics Benjamin Hale,Andrew Light,Lydia Lawhon,2022-07-29 Written for a wide range of readers in environmental science philosophy and policy oriented programs The Routledge Companion to Environmental Ethics is a landmark comprehensive reference work in this interdisciplinary field Not merely a review of theoretical approaches to the ethics of the environment the Companion focuses on specific environmental problems and other concrete issues Its 65 chapters all appearing in print here for the first time have been organized into the following eleven parts I Animals II Land III Water IV Climate V Energy and Extraction VI Cities VII Agriculture VIII Environmental Transformation IX Policy Frameworks and Response Measures X Regulatory Tools XI Advocacy and Activism The volume not only explains the nuances of important core philosophical positions but also cuts new pathways for the integration of important ethical and policy issues into environmental philosophy It will be of immense help to undergraduate students and other readers coming up to the field for the first time but also serve as a valuable resource for more advanced students as well as researchers who need a trusted resource that also offers fresh policy centered approaches AI for People, Democratizing AI Marta Ziosi,Giovanni Sartor,João Miguel Cunha,Angelo Trotta,Philipp Wicke,2024-10-02 This book constitutes the refereed post conference proceedings of the Second EAI International Conference on AI for People Democratizing AI CAIP 2023 held in Bologna Italy during November 24 26 2023 The 11 regular papers were carefully reviewed and selected from 27 submissions The papers are organized in thematic sessions on ethical AI and innovation democratization of AI and governance AI in society and legal aspects and data privacy and technology ethics Women Who Changed the World Candice Goucher,2022-01-24 This indispensable reference work provides readers with the tools to reimagine world history through the lens of women s lived experiences Learning how women changed the world will change the ways the world looks at the past Women Who Changed the World Their Lives Challenges and Accomplishments through History features 200 biographies of notable women and offers readers an opportunity to explore the global past from a gendered perspective The women featured in this four volume set cover the full sweep of history from our ancestral forbearer Lucy to today s tennis phenoms Venus and Serena Williams Every walk of life is represented in these pages from powerful monarchs and politicians to talented artists and writers from inquisitive scientists to outspoken activists Each biography follows a standardized format recounting the woman s life and accomplishments discussing the challenges she faced within her particular time and place in history and exploring the lasting legacy she left A chronological listing of biographies makes it easy for readers to zero in on particular time periods while a further reading list at the end of each essay serves as a gateway to further exploration and study High interest sidebars accompany many of the biographies offering more nuanced glimpses into the lives of these fascinating women Most Good, Least Harm Zoe

Weil,2009-01-06 With a world steeped in materialism environmental destruction and injustice what can one individual possibly do to change it While the present obstacles we face may seem overwhelming author and humane educator Zoe Weil shows us that change doesn't have to start with an army It starts with you Through her straightforward approaches to living a MOCO or most good life she reveals that the true path to inner peace doesn't require a retreat from the world Rather she gives the reader powerful and practicable tools to face these global issues and improve both our planet and our personal lives Weil explores direct ways to become involved with the community make better choices as consumers and develop positive messages to live by showing readers that their simple decisions really can change the world Inspiring and remarkably inclusive of the interconnected challenges we face today Most Good Least Harm is the next step beyond green a radical new way to empower the individual and motivate positive change

Life Rules Ellen LaConte,2012-09-01 Corporate capitalism has ravaged the planet the way HIV ravages the human body triggering a Critical Mass of cascading environmental economic social and political crises Economic and climate instability collapsing ecosystems peak fossil fuels and devastating resource wars if Earth were a patient her condition would be critical Life Rules offers a comprehensive analysis of our present circumstances combined with a holistic treatment protocol for restoring health to vulnerable human and natural communities Predicting that Life will last but if we don't make some fundamental changes life as we know it and a lot of us won't Life Rules identifies natural laws that have allowed non human communities to thrive and prosper for several billion years including Local self reliance Mutual interdependence Reliance on non fossil sources of energy Resource conservation sharing and recycling Co operation and co intelligence Radically democratic self organization and governance This sobering yet essentially optimistic manifesto is required reading for anyone concerned about our ability to live well and also within Earth's means A powerful tool for community transition and cultural transformation Life Rules offers a solution to our global challenges that is at once authentically hopeful deeply inspiring and profoundly liberating

Undoing the Silence Louise Dunlap,2007-11 Undoing the Silence offers guidance to help both citizens and professionals influence democratic process through letters articles reports and public testimony Louise Dunlap PhD began her career as an activist writing instructor during the Free Speech Movement of the 1960s She learned that listening and gaining a feel for audience are just as important to social transformation as the outspoken words of student leaders atop police cars Free speech is a first step but real communication matches speech with listening and understanding That is when thinking shifts and change happens Dunlap felt compelled to go where the silences were deepest because her work aimed not just at teaching but also at healing both individual voices and an ailing collective voice Her tales of those adventures and what she knows about the culture of silence how gender race education class and family work to quiet dissent are interwoven with practical methods for people to put their most challenging ideas into words Louise Dunlap gives writing workshops around the country for universities and social justice environmental and peace organizations that help reluctant writers get past their internal censors to find their powerful voice Her insight strengthens strategic thinking and her You can do it approach makes social action writing achievable for everyone Democracy and Higher Education Scott J. Peters, Theodore R. Alter, Neil

Schwartzbach, 2010-09-01 How are we to understand the nature and value of higher education's public purposes mission and work in a democratic society How do and how should academic professionals contribute to and participate in civic life in their practices as scholars scientists and educators Democracy and Higher Education addresses these questions by combining an examination of several normative traditions of civic engagement in American higher education with the presentation and interpretation of a dozen oral history profiles of contemporary practitioners In his analysis of these profiles Scott Peters reveals and interprets a democratic minded civic professionalism that includes and interweaves expert social critic responsive service and proactive leadership roles Democracy and Higher Education contributes to a new line of research on the critically important task of strengthening and defending higher education's positive roles in and for a democratic society

EcoMind Frances Moore Lappe, 2013-04-23 In EcoMind Frances Moore Lapp a giant of the environmental movement confronts accepted wisdom of environmentalism Drawing on the latest research from anthropology to neuroscience and her own field experience she argues that the biggest challenge to human survival isn't our fossil fuel dependency melting glaciers or other calamities Rather it's our faulty way of thinking about these environmental crises that robs us of power Lapp dismantles seven common thought traps from limits to growth to the failings of democracy that belie what we now know about nature including our own and offers contrasting thought leaps that reveal our hidden power Like her Diet for a Small Planet classic EcoMind is challenging controversial and empowering Learning Citizenship by Practicing Democracy

Elizabeth Pinnington, Daniel Schugurensky, 2009-12-14 For many years the fields of citizenship education and participatory democracy have often operated independently from each other During the last decade the Transformative Learning Centre of the University of Toronto has nurtured multiple spaces for an interdisciplinary dialogue among scholars practitioners and students from these two fields One of those spaces was the Second International Conference on Citizenship Learning and Participatory Democracy where close to 300 participants from all over the world shared ideas in more than 150 sessions including discussions round tables workshops and keynote addresses This volume brings together a selected collection from the many papers submitted to the conference Learning Citizenship by Practicing Democracy International Initiatives and Perspectives includes an introductory essay 18 chapters and a postscript and is organized in three sections I Learning democracy in educational institutions II Learning democracy in communities III Learning democracy in participatory budgeting The articles in this book represent a variety of perspectives as the authors come from different geographical and disciplinary locations but they all share a commitment to improvements in theory research and practice in the worldwide movement for deepening democracy and for an emancipatory citizenship education Longing for Justice Jennifer S.

Simpson, 2014-11-05 A timely and persuasive argument for Higher Education's obligations to our democratic society Longing for Justice combines personal narrative with critical analysis to make the case for educational practices that connect to questions of democracy justice and the common good Jennifer S Simpson begins with three questions First what is the nature of the social contract that universities have with public life Second how might this social contract shape undergraduate education And third how do specific approaches to knowledge and undergraduate education inform how students understand society In a bold challenge to conventional wisdom about Higher Education Simpson argues that today s neoliberal educational norms foreground abstract concepts and leave the complications of real life especially the intricacies of power unexamined Analysing modern teaching techniques including service learning and civic engagement Simpson concludes that for Higher Education to serve democracy it must strengthen students abilities to critically analyse social issues recognize and challenge social inequities and pursue justice
