Dreams of a Refugee Mostafa Salameh, 2016-03-10 Dreams of a Refugee is the extraordinary story of Mostafa Salameh born in Kuwait to Palestinian refugees After a childhood in the camps and a series of low paid jobs Mostafa was given a rare opportunity to travel to London working in hospitality at the Jordanian Embassy From there he moved to Edinburgh where he took up a life of parties and nightclubbing Religion played no part in his thinking All this was to change One night Mostafa awoke having dreamt that he was standing at the top of the world reciting the adhan the Muslim call to prayer He took this as a sign that he needed to accomplish something previously unimaginable for a person in his position to climb Everest Despite having no prior mountaineering experience Mostafa sought help from friends and sponsors and having failed twice finally summited Everest on Jordanian Independence Day May 25th 2008 He went on to become the first Jordanian to climb all Seven Summits and reach the North Pole In early 2016 he skied to the South Pole via a new route completing the elite Explorer's Grand Slam and joining a club of only thirteen adventurers ever to have achieved this feat Yet exploring is only part of the story Now a devout Muslim Mostafa is committed to spreading the message of tolerant Islam working with refugees and young people to help them further their goals Through climbing he has raised hundreds of thousands of pounds for charity His future projects include leading an all female attempt on Everest as well as numerous charitable climbs and leadership programmes Mostafa is also a regular public speaker both in the UK Middle East and further afield This new paperback edition of Dreams of a Refugee includes a foreword by His Majesty King Abdullah II of Jordan as well as photographs of Mostafa's climbs and his charitable work Entertaining inspiring and often surprising Mostafa is honest about both the positive aspects of his life and its past excesses and discusses his discovery of Muslim faith His message ultimately is a simple one Each of us has an Everest inside us which we each can summit if only we dare to dream

Alaska Adventure Guide Melissa DeVaughn, 2011-01-15 The author has worked to answer all your questions about travel and recreation in a state so remote This guide attempts to target your interests and save you time money and effort so that nothing is wasted during your trip Because Alaska is so big and your options so varied the guide is organized so you can zero in on the activity or activities that appeal to you most Thirteen chapters focus solely on adventure travel each devoted to a single activity The five regional chapters that follow focus primarily on the basics in a given area of the state getting around shopping lodging dining and entertainment Once you've chosen the adventure of your dreams you can go to the appropriate regional chapter to get the scoop on the best places in the vicinity to stay eat buy gear rent a car and learn about local culture and history Outdoor travelers also are likely independent travelers A multitude of companies offer exciting sounding jaunts to scenic places all over the state but many of these outfits work only with tour providers such as cruise ship operators to obtain large numbers of clients per trip thus excluding people who wish to travel on their own In this guide all our listings are available to independent travelers as well as those in tour groups The objective is not to provide the most information about destinations or attractions but rather the most useful information The guide is opinionated and for good reason Any destination or outfitter listed here has made the cut by proving itself a wonderful place to visit or a reliable company with which to do business If for example you want to learn more about sea kayaking in Alaska you will not be supplied with every operation in the business and believe us there are many of them competing for your dollars What you will get is a select assortment of those we consider best and why After all isn't the point of a guidebook to help you make the most informed choices

Twins to the Tops Eric Gilbertson, Matthew Gilbertson, 2018-07-31 Ten pickets later we found ourselves on the roof of North America Yeeeahhhh I roared at the top of my lungs I yelled so loud that I actually knocked the wind out of myself for five minutes At that moment we were the highest people standing on solid ground in the continent excerpt from Denali report The quest to reach the most expansive vista of each country and explore the most remote parts of the world motivated the Gilbertson twins to be the first to climb the highest mountain in all twenty three North American countries From the windswept glaciers of Alaska and the Yukon to the tropical jungles of Central America to the razor grass covered volcanoes of the Caribbean Matthew and Eric share the stories and experiences that paved their way through their trip reports and itineraries They were born and raised in Appalachian Kentucky and later educated at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology where they joined its famous Outing Club In this book they share how they achieved their quest for the summits with both budget consciousness and strategic efficiency in just nine trips This book is for those who share a thirst for travel the outdoors and the mountains It chronicles a subset of the Gilbertson twins overall goal to climb the 195 world country high points Stay tuned for more books in the Twins to the Tops series coming soon For more information visit our website <http://www.countryhighpoints.com> Advance praise for Twins to the Tops The Gilbertsons strike again A great resource for mountaineering in North America Dan Walker former president MIT Outing Club Twins to the Tops is an inspiring read and an effort worthy of a world record David Rush 50 time Guinness World Record breaker Those boys never stop walking I reckon these old Kentucky hills was a good place to start Tony Smith Appalachian author of These Old Hills The Great Quest Matthew Gilbertson, Eric Gilbertson, 2013-07-22 Eric and Matthew were born in Berea KY in 1986 and started hiking with their Dad in the nearby hills and hollers of Kentucky as soon as they could walk They started college in the fall of 2004 at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology MIT in Cambridge Mass and discovered the MIT Outing Club They both graduated in 2008 and in 2010 with Bachelors and Masters degrees Since fall 2010 they have been at MIT working on mechanical engineering PhDs and squeezing in state highpoints In February 2012 they finished the final state highpoint
