Preparing Adult English Learners to Read for College and the Workplace Kirsten Schaetzel, Joy Kreeft Peyton, Rebeca Fernández, 2024-07 How to prepare adult English learners for reading success The Essay At the Limits Mario Aquilina, 2021-04-08 In the hands of such writers as Rebecca Solnit Claudia Rankine David Shields Zadie Smith and many others the essay has re-emerged as a powerful literary form for tackling a fractious 21st century culture The Essay at the Limits brings together leading scholars to explore the theory the poetics and the future of the form The book links the formal innovations and new voices that have emerged in the 21st century essay to the history and theory of the essay In so doing it surveys the essay from its origins to its relation to contemporary cultural forms from the novel to poetry film to music and from political articles to intimate lyrical expressions The book examines work by writers such as Theodor W Adorno Kwame Anthony Appiah Francis Bacon James Baldwin Roland Barthes Maurice Blanchot Ta Nehisi Coates Annie Dillard Brian Dillon Jean Genet William Hazlitt Samuel Johnson Karl Ove Knausgaard Ben Lerner Audre Lorde Oscar Wilde Michel de Montaigne Zadie Smith Rebecca Solnit Wallace Stevens Eliot Weinberger and Virginia Woolf Enchanted Hunters: The Power of Stories in Childhood Maria Tatar, 2009-04-20 Highly illuminating for parents vital for students and book lovers alike Enchanted Hunters transforms our understanding of why children should read Ever wondered why little children love listening to stories why older ones get lost in certain books In this enthralling work Maria Tatar challenges many of our assumptions about childhood reading Much as our culture pays lip service to the importance of literature we rarely examine the creative and cognitive benefits of reading from infancy through adolescence By exploring how beauty and horror operated in C S Lewis's Chronicles of Narnia Philip Pullman's His Dark Materials J K Rowling's Harry Potter novels and many other narratives Tatar provides a delightful work for parents teachers and general readers not just examining how and what children read but also showing through vivid examples how literature transports and transforms children with its intoxicating captivating and occasionally terrifying energy In the tradition of Bruno Bettelheim's landmark The Uses of Enchantment Tatar's book is not only a compelling journey into the world of childhood but a trip back for adult readers as well Emerson's English Traits and the Natural History of Metaphor David LaRocca,2013-09-26 Metaphors are ubiquitous and yet for that very reason go largely unseen We are all variously susceptible to a blindness or blurry vision of metaphors yet even when they are seen clearly we are left to situate the ambiguities connotations and contradictions they regularly present logically aesthetically and morally David LaRocca's book serves as a set of reminders of certain features of the natural history of our language especially the tropes that permeate and define it As part of his investigation LaRocca turns to Ralph Waldo Emerson's only book on a single topic English Traits 1856 which teems with genealogical and generative metaphors blood birth plants parents family names and race In the first book length study of English Traits in over half a century LaRocca considers the presence of metaphors in Emerson's fertile text a unique work in his expansive corpus and one that is regularly overlooked As metaphors are encountered in Emerson's book and drawn from a long history of usage in work by others a reader may realize or remember what is inherent and encoded in our language but rarely seen how metaphors circulate in speech and through texts to become the lifeblood of thought *A Boy, a Mouse, and a Spider--The Story of E.
