Hanegraaff,1998-01-01 This volume introduces what has sometimes been called the third component of western culture It traces the historical development of those religious traditions which have rejected a world view based on the primacy of pure rationality or doctrinal faith emphasizing instead the importance of inner enlightenment or gnosis a revelatory experience which was typically believed to entail an encounter with one s true self as well as with the ground of being God The contributors to this book demonstrate this perspective as fundamental to a variety of interconnected traditions In Antiquity one finds the gnostics and hermetics in the Middle Ages several Christian sects The medieval Cathars can to a certain extent be considered part of the same tradition Starting with the Italian humanist Renaissance hermetic philosophy became of central importance to a new religious synthesis that can be referred to as Western Esotericism The development of this tradition is described from Renaissance hermeticists and practitioners of spiritual alchemy to the emergence of Rosicrucianism and Christian theosophy in the seventeenth century and from post enlightenment aspects of Romanticism and occultism to the present day New Age movement The New Big Book of Christian Mysticism Carl McColman,2023-08-29 This revised and expanded edition offers a big possibility the hope of achieving real experiential union with God The Christian of the future will be a mystic or will not exist This word of warning from theologian Karl Rahner was uttered half a century ago and today Christianity is indeed in crisis Is mysticism necessary for the survival of Christianity What exactly is Christian mysticism How can it be relevant in our crisis ridden world Questions like these inspire The New Big Book of Christian Mysticism a newly updated edition from beloved spiritual teacher and bestselling author Carl McColman The New Big Book of Christian Mysticism serves as both introduction and practical instruction for a living contemplative practice today In addition to the overview of mysticism spiritual and prayer practices in mysticism the various types of mysticism in Christian tradition and influential mystics through the millennia this second edition offers an embodied understanding of the mystic life with a more diverse range of voices and perspectives from Howard Thurman to Pauli Murray It also includes new chapters and themes that address embodied mysticism contemplation and social justice and the ongoing relevance of Jesus's message of radical equality and inclusivity. This bigger book introduces both Christians and non-Christians to the contemplative tradition within Christianity, a tradition that has often been marginalized or cloistered to the church's detriment. As a practice-oriented book, this is an invitation to embrace the mystical element within Christianity, a practice that can equip faithful persons with a joyful sense of divine intimacy, not just for personal benefit but as a foundation to a life of service and activism in the interest of justice. McColman's overview of mysticism shows how it has been practiced and lived through the centuries and will prove inspirational for today's seekers regardless of their faith tradition. At its heart, Christian mysticism is an ancient practice that incorporates meditation, contemplation, worship, philosophy, the quest for enlightenment, the thirst for a better world, and the experience of divine presence.

The Routledge Handbook of Archaeology and the Media in the 21st Century presents diverse international perspectives on what it means to be an archaeologist and to conduct archaeological research in the age of digital and mobile media. This volume analyses the present-day use of new and old media by professional and academic archaeology for leisure, academic study, and/or public engagement and attempts to provide a broad survey of the use of media in a wider global archaeological context. It features work on traditional paper media, radio, podcasting, film, television, contemporary art, photography, video games, mobile technology, 3D image capture, digitization, and social media. Themes explored include archaeology and traditional media, archaeology in a digital age, archaeology in a post-truth era, and the future of archaeology. The Routledge Handbook of Archaeology and the Media in the 21st Century updates the interdisciplinary field of media studies in archaeology and will appeal to students and researchers in multiple fields, including contemporary public, digital, and media archaeology, and heritage studies and management. Television and film producers, writers, and presenters of cultural heritage will also benefit from the many entanglements shared here between archaeology and the contemporary media landscape.

Mystic in the New World: Marie de l'Incarnation (1599-1672) Anya Mali,2021-11-01 As one of the first female missionaries to the New World and the author of a classic mystical autobiography Marie de l Incarnation has long been seen as an exemplary type reflecting the mood and aims of the Catholic Reformation In contrast to studies which portray her against the backdrop of religious trends in Catholic Reformation France this book argues that the New France wilderness was the crucial context for the formation of her spiritual identity Marie de l Incarnation brought her traditional notions to bear on her encounter with the Amerindians but was soon compelled to adjust her views on the natives and the nature of religious experience A close textual analysis of her writings makes it clear that her mysticism was informed by the images of her tradition but also gave new meaning to old concepts Beyond its relevance for those interested in this mystic the book addresses the broader issue of shifting attitudes and boundaries in early modern religious life and demonstrates the need for more variegated typologies of mystical experience in studies on spiritual literature The New Schaff-Herzog Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge Albert Hauck,Samuel Macauley Jackson,Charles Colebrook Sherman,George William Gilmore,1908
