Teaching Children's Literature Christine Leland, Mitzi Lewison, Jerome Charles Harste, 2013 Offers a fresh perspective on how to implement children's literature across the curriculum in ways that are both effective and purposeful It invites multiple ways of engaging with literature that extend beyond the genre and elements approach and also addresses potential problems or issues that teachers may confront

Arts Education and Literacies Amy Petersen Jensen, Roni Jo Draper, 2015-06-26 In a struggling global economy education is focused on core subjects such as language arts and mathematics and the development of technological and career readiness skills Arts education has not been a central focus of education reform movements in the United States and none of the current education standards frameworks deeply address the processes texts and literacies that are inherent to arts disciplines This lack of clarity poses a problem for state and district leaders who might be inclined to advocate for the arts in schools and classrooms across the country but cannot find adequate detail in their guiding frameworks This volume acknowledges the challenges that arts educators face and posits that authentic arts instruction and learning can benefit a young person's development both inside and outside of the classroom It presents ways that arts teachers and literacy specialists can work together to help others understand the potential that arts learning has to enhance students' 21st century learning skills

Moment to Monument Ladina Bezzola Lambert, Andrea Ochsner, 2015-07-15 Why do certain works of art make it into the canon while others just enjoy a brief moment of recognition if at all How do moments produce monuments and why are monuments erased from our cultural memory in only a moment Taking into account these cultural processes of creating storing remembering and forgetting that are omnipresent and have an immense influence on how we perceive artefacts and cultural events the articles in this collection analyze the phenomenon of cultural production transmission and reception from various angles drawing on approaches from both literary and cultural studies With its transdisciplinary approach this book uniquely responds to an everyday cultural phenomenon that so far has not received such wide ranging attention
