History Final Review Sheet Places/Events -July 1, 1916 – Battle of the Somme
oBritish launched offensive against Somme River oAlso known as the Somme Offensive, took place during the First World War between 1 July and 14 November 1916 in the Somme department of France, on both banks of the river of the same name. The battle consisted of an offensive by the British and French armies against the German Army, which, since invading France in August 1914, had occupied large areas of that country.

The Battle of the Somme was one of the largest battles of the First World War; by the time fighting had petered out in late autumn 1916 the forces involved had suffered more than 1 million casualties, making it one of the bloodiest military operations ever recorded. oThe plan for the Somme offensive evolved out of Allied strategic discussions at Chantilly, Oise in December 1915. Chaired by General Joseph Joffre, the commander-in-chief of the French Army, Allied representatives agreed on a concerted offensive against the Central Powers in 1916 by the French, British, Italian and Russian armies.

The Somme offensive was to be the Anglo-French contribution to this general offensive, and was intended to create a rupture in the German line, which could then be exploited with a decisive blow. With the German attack on Verdun on the River Meuse in February 1916, the Allies were forced to adapt their plans. The British Army took the lead on the Somme, though the French contribution remained significant. oThe opening day of the battle on 1 July 1916 saw the British Army suffer the worst one-day combat losses in its history, with nearly 60,000 casualties. Feb 1916 – Battle of Verdun oOne of the major battles during the First World War on the Western Front. The German High Command had failed to achieve its two objectives: 1) to capture the city of Verdun and 2) to inflict a much higher casualty count on its French adversary. By the end of the battle (December 1916) the French Second Army had rolled back the German forces around Verdun, but not quite to their initial positions of February 1916. It was the longest and one of the most devastating battles in the First World War and the history of warfare.

Verdun was primarily an artillery battle. In both France and Germany, Verdun has come to represent the horrors of war, like the Battle of the Somme in the British consciousness. The renowned British military historian Major General Julian Thompson has referred to Verdun as "France's Stalingrad".
-July 28, 1914 – heir to Hapsburg throne – Franz Ferdinand assassinated oOn 28 June 1914, Archduke Franz Ferdinand of Austria, heir to the Austro-Hungarian throne, and his wife, Sophie, Duchess of Hohenberg, were shot dead in Sarajevo, by Gavrilo Princip.

The political objective of the assassination was to break off Austria-Hungary's south-Slav provinces so they could be combined into a Greater Serbia or a Yugoslavia. The assassins' motive

Themes in Modern European History 1780-1830

Pamela Pilbeam, 2012-08-21 Themes in Modern European History 1780-1830 is an authoritative and lively exploration of a period dominated by events which have shaped modern Europe. In a series of articles, six leading academics present some controversial conclusions: the east-west contrast in Europe today has more to do with responses to the French Revolution of 1789 than the Russian Revolution of 1917; the conservative Europe of 1814 was the product of the Romantic imagination, not a Restoration of the old regime. Spanning political, social, economic, and demographic facets of revolutions, this is an indispensable textbook for all students of the nineteenth century and for all those interested in understanding the nature of Europe today.

Themes in Modern European History, 1890-1945 Paul Hayes, 1992. Fixes the important developments of the period not only in the political framework of the time but also in their social and cultural context. These essays throw new light on the European situation between 1890 and the Second World War. Themes in European History treats in thematic fashion a period of great change and upheaval in Europe. A collection of twelve essays by five leading historians, this textbook highlights important developments and changes that occurred, sets these changes in their social and cultural context as well as in the political framework, concentrates on the most important powers in Europe, and completes each essay with suggestions for further reading to guide your students into continuing their research. Whereas other textbooks of this period focus on the political events, Themes in Modern European History uses a comparative history of institutions and societies with emphasis on the cultural changes as well. Students are provided with the whole picture of events and are made aware of the wider consequences of the changes taking place, enabling them to understand all aspects of the dramatic transformation of Europe from 1890-1945.

Themes in Modern European History, 1890-1945 Nicholas Atkin, Michael Biddiss, 2008-11-26. Adopting a thematic approach to a period of great change and upheaval in Europe, these essays throw new light on developments in society, the economy, politics, and culture, fixing them not only in the political framework of the time but also in their social and cultural contexts.

The Oxford Handbook of Early Modern European History, 1350-1750 Hamish Scott, 2015-07-23. This Handbook re-examines the concept of early modern history in a European and global context. The term 'early modern' has been familiar, especially in Anglophone scholarship, for four decades and is securely established in teaching, research, and scholarly publishing. More recently, however, the unity implied in the notion has fragmented, while the usefulness and even the validity of the term and the historical periodisation which it incorporates have been questioned. The Oxford Handbook of Early Modern European History, 1350-1750 provides an account of the development of the subject during the past half-century but primarily offers an integrated and comprehensive survey of present knowledge together with some suggestions as to how the field is developing. It aims both to interrogate the notion of early modernity itself and to survey early modern Europe as an established field of study. The overriding aim will be to establish that early modern is not simply a chronological label but possesses a substantive integrity Volume I examines Peoples and Place assessing structural factors such as climate printing and the revolution in information social and economic developments and religion including chapters on Orthodoxy Judaism and Islam Themes in Modern European History Since 1945 Rosemary Wakeman,2003-06-26 Twelve chapters consider the key political cultural and economic changes of post 1945 Europe A Sourcebook of Early Modern European History Ute Lotz-Heumann,2019-01-23 A Sourcebook of Early Modern European History not only provides instructors with primary sources of a manageable length and translated into English it also offers students a concise explanation of their context and meaning By covering different areas of early modern life through the lens of contemporaries experiences this book serves as an introduction to the early modern European world in a way that a narrative history of the period cannot It is divided into six subject areas each comprising between twelve and fourteen explicated sources I The fabric of communities Social interaction and social control II Social spaces Experiencing and negotiating encounters III Propriety legitimacy fidelity Gender marriage and the family IV Expressions of faith Official and popular religion V Realms intertwined Religion and politics and VI Defining the religious other Identities and conflicts Spanning the period from c 1450 to c 1750 and including primary sources from across early modern Europe from Spain to Transylvania Italy to Iceland and the European colonies this book provides an excellent sense of the diversity and complexity of human experience during this time whilst drawing attention to key themes and events of the period It is ideal for students of early modern history and of early modern Europe in particular Readings in Modern European History James Harvey Robinson,Charles Austin Beard,1908 A Syllabus of Modern European History, 1500-1920 Herbert Darling Foster, Frank Maloy Anderson, Arthur Herbert Basye,1919 The Oxford Handbook of Early Modern European History, 1350-1750 Hamish M.
