Seven Steps to Train Your Mind Gomo Tulku, 2015-03-17 Learn the ropes of cultivating a resilient and warm heart even in the face of great difficulty from one of the most beloved of the last generation of lamas trained in pre-invasion Tibet. The aphorisms of the Seven Point Mind Training present a powerful and counter-intuitive call to Buddhist practice: view reality as dreamlike, contemplate the kindness of your enemies, give up expectations of reward, change yourself but remain as you are. When he fled Tibet, Gomo Tulku carried in his heart this widely studied Tibetan text which he turned to time and again when faced with difficulties in life. Having relied on this practice to transform his own hardships, he shares here an inspired commentary to help us get through ours. Mirroring the simplicity of the original Seven Steps to Train Your Mind, succinctly provides a practical description of how to train the mind and develop the mental qualities of peace, joy, and wisdom that will carry one through any circumstance.

life one grounded in ethics love and insight borne of meditation The teachings of the Kadam masters have spiritually nourished the Tibetan people for nearly a millennium The Kadampa tradition began in the eleventh century with the arrival in Tibet of the Indian Bengali teacher Atisa who heralded a large scale revival of Buddhism there with a return to the basics Although these Tibetan teachings emerged nearly a thousand years ago within a specific historical cultural context like many of the world s great spiritual teachings the teachings of the Kadam masters embody wisdom that resonates beyond the boundaries of time culture and language To modern day Tibetan Buddhists this volume will offer in an accessible format some of the most loved teachings of the Tibetan tradition For practitioners of other religious traditions the texts collected in this special Atisa's Stages of the Path to Awakening James B. Apple, 2025-06-10 This book contains a lost Stages of the Path Lamrim work composed by the originator of the genre Atisa one of the greatest Indian Buddhist masters to ever set foot in Tibet Nearly a millennium ago the great Indian Buddhist master Atisa Dipamkarasrij ana ca 982 1054 wrote a guidebook for realizing all the stages to awakening at the repeated request of his closest Tibetan disciple Atisa is famously the author of the Lamp for the Path to Awakening Bodhipathapradipa a short work in verse but this longer prose work has been virtually unknown even in Tibet until now Atisa s Stages of the Path Awakening Bodhipathakrama translated here synthesizes all aspects of Buddhist practice from the very beginning of the path reflecting on the fortunate opportunity of human rebirth up through to attaining omniscient buddhahood by nondual meditation The Indian master s faithful disciple Dromt npa kept these teachings secret and they were only transmitted to select disciples in a closely guarded transmission but the lineage died out centuries ago after Dromt npa s Kadam school was eclipsed by history Now this significant work of Buddhist path literature has become available owing to recently recovered manuscripts of the Kadampas This book offers a study and complete translation from the Tibetan of this monument of guidance on the Buddhist path accompanied by the commentaries and ritual texts that were transmitted alongside Atisa s text Apple s substantial introduction includes a structural comparison with Atisa s famous work charts the transmission lineage for the present work before it died out and explores various hypotheses for why their fates diverged Recovered from the contingencies of history this book brings to life one of the most holistic and integrated approaches to the highest realizations of the Indian Buddhist path ever transmitted in Tibet In Praise of Great Compassion Dalai Lama, Thubten Chodron, 2020-08-11 Discover the Dalai Lama s definitive teaching on compassion in this fifth volume of the Dalai Lama s definitive Library of Wisdom and Compassion series In Praise of Great Compassion the fifth volume of the Library of Wisdom and Compassion continues the Dalai Lama s teachings on the path to awakening While previous volumes focused on our present situation and taking responsibility for creating the causes of happiness this volume concerns opening our hearts and generating the intention to make our lives meaningful by benefiting others We are embedded in a universe with other living beings all of whom have been kind to us in one way or another More than any other time in human history we depend on one another to stay alive and flourish When we look closely it becomes apparent that we have been the recipient of great kindness Wanting to repay others kindness we cultivate a positive attitude by contemplating the four immeasurables of love compassion empathic joy and equanimity and the altruistic intention of bodhicitta We learn to challenge the self centered attitude that leads to misery and replace it with a more realistic perspective enabling us to remain emotionally balanced in good and bad times In this way all circumstances become favorable to the path to awakening

The Book of Kadam ,2014-05-01 The Kadam school of Tibetan Buddhism emerged in the eleventh century from the teachings of the Indian master Atiśa and his principal Tibetan student Dromtonpa Although it no longer exists as an independent school Kadam's teachings were incorporated into the four major schools of Tibetan Buddhism and are still prized today for their unique practical application of the bodhisattva's altruistic ideal in everyday life One of the most cherished teachings stemming from Atiśa and Dromtonpa is the collection of esoteric oral transmissions enshrined in The Book of Kadam This volume includes the core texts of the Book of Kadam notably the twenty three chapter dialogue between Atiśa and Dromtonpa that is woven around Atiśa's Bodhisattva's Jewel Garland as well as complementary texts that illuminate the history and practices of the Kadam tradition Mind Training Thupten Jinpa, 2014-05-01 Compiled in the fifteenth century Mind Training The Great Collection is the earliest anthology of a special genre of Tibetan literature known as mind training or lojong in Tibetan. The principal focus of these texts is the systematic cultivation of such altruistic thoughts and emotions as compassion, love, forbearance, and perseverance. The mind training teachings are highly revered by the Tibetan people for their pragmatism and down-to-earth advice on coping with the various challenges and hardships that unavoidably characterize everyday human existence. The volume contains forty-four individual texts, including the most important works of the mind training cycle, such as Serlingpa's well-known Leveling Out All Preconceptions, Atisha's Bodhisattva's Jewel Garland, Langri Thangpa's Eight Verses on Training the Mind, and Chekawa's Seven Point Mind Training, together with the earliest commentaries on these seminal texts. An accurate and lyrical translation of these texts, many of which are in metered verse, marks an important contribution to the world's literary heritage, enriching its spiritual resources. Teachings from the 52nd Kopan Meditation Course: Lamrim Teachings from Kopan 2019 Lama Zopa Rinpoche, 2024-11-21 At the fifty-second Kopan course, the one-month intensive lamrim course given each year at Kopan Monastery, Kathmandu, Lama Zopa Rinpoche uses the wonderful verse A star, a defective view, a butter lamp flame to explore in great depth and with great clarity how the cause of all our problems stems from misreading reality. This was just before COVID-19 hit, and the world went into lockdown for two years, which Rinpoche used to give daily thought transformation teachings from Kopan with the aid of an ever-increasing number of soft toys. Here, however, his main emphasis is on emptiness. Using the wonderful verse A star, a defective view, a butter lamp flame, over several days he explores how the cause of all our problems stems from misreading reality. Rinpoche, a master at teaching emptiness, does so here in great depth and with great clarity. The Kopan courses began in April 1971 with a ten-day program attended by about a dozen people. From these early beginnings, the Kopan courses evolved to become an annual event with over two hundred attendees from all over the world. Kopan Monastery is the heart of the FPMT, the international organization founded by Lama Yeshe and Lama Zopa Rinpoche to preserve and spread Mahayana Buddhism worldwide. The Kopan meditation courses were life-changing for countless students, and this is where many students met the Lamas, received teachings, and became Buddhist. Stages of the Path and the Oral Transmission, 2022-12-20 A major contribution to the literature on Buddhist practice according to the Geluk school of Tibetan Buddhism from its foremost interpreter. Although it was the last major school to emerge in the Tibetan Buddhist tradition, the Geluk school has left an indelible mark on Buddhist thought and practice. The intellectual and spiritual brilliance of its founder, the great Tsongkhapa (1357-1419), has inspired generations of scholars and tantric yogis to place him at the heart of their daily meditative practice. The Geluk tradition's close ties to the Dalai Lamas have also afforded it an outsized influence in all aspects of Tibetan life for centuries. At its peak, its combined monasteries boasted a population in the tens of thousands, and its sway encompassed the religious landscape of Mongolia and much of Central Asia. This widespread religious activity fostered a rich literary tradition.

and fifteen seminal works are featured here representing four genres of that tradition They include works on the stages of the path or lamrim the genre for which the Geluk is most renowned works on guru yoga centered around the core Geluk ritual Offering to the Guru Lama Ch pa teachings from the unique oral transmission of Geluk mahamudra meditation on the nature of mind and instructions on the three essential points what to practice in life at death and in the bardo Your guide to these riches Thupten Jinpa maps out their historical context and spiritual significance in his extensive introduction From Here to Enlightenment Dalai Lama XIV Bstan-'dzin-rgya-mtsho,2012 At Lehigh University the Dalai Lama gave an historic six day teaching clearly unfolding the entire Buddhist path to enlightenment and distilling all of its essential points Based on Tsongkhapa's classic text Great Treatise on the Stages of the Path to Enlightenment it is the only time that the Dalai Lama has ever given such a long teaching exclusively based on one text to Westerners From Here to Enlightenment masterfully and faithfully captures this momentous event Taking the Result as the Path Cyrus Stearns,2014-05-01 The tradition known as the Path with the Result or Lamdre is the most important tantric system of meditation practice and theory in the Sakya school of Tibetan Buddhism This volume contains an unprecedented compilation of eleven vital works from different periods in the history of the Path with the Result in India and Tibet including the Vajra Lines of the great Indian adept Virupa ca seventh eighth centuries the basic text of the tradition The collection also includes six writings by Jamyang Khyentse Wangchuk 1524-68 and an instruction manual composed by the Fifth Dalai Lama 1617-62 None of the works in this book have ever been published before in any European language and most of these writings traditionally have been considered secret The present translation an important new volume of the Library of Tibetan Classics has been made with the personal approval and encouragement of His Holiness Sakya Trizin head of the Sakya tradition Students of the Lamdre will rejoice at the availability and lucidity of this major translation of key Sakya texts
