Massachusetts Staff, The Military Memoirs of General John Pope Peter Cozzens,Robert I. Girardi,2000-11-09 Union general John Pope was among the most controversial and misunderstood figures to hold major command during the Civil War Before being called east in June 1862 to lead the Army of Virginia against General Robert E Lee he compiled an enviable record in Missouri and as commander of the Army of the Mississippi After his ignominious defeat at the Second Battle of Bull Run he was sent to the frontier Over the next twenty four years Pope held important department commands on the western plains and was recognized as one of the army s leading authorities on Indian affairs but he never again commanded troops in battle In 1886 Pope was engaged by the National Tribune a weekly newspaper published in Washington D C to write a series of articles on his wartime experiences Over the next five years in twenty nine installments he wrote about the war as he had lived it Collected here for the first time Pope's war reminiscences join a select roster of memoirs written by Civil War army commanders Pope presents a detailed review of the campaigns in which he participated and offers vivid character sketches of such illustrious figures as Abraham Lincoln and Secretary of War Edwin M Stanton Clearly written and balanced in tone his memoirs are a dramatic and important addition to the literature on the Civil War Originally published in 1998 A UNC Press Enduring Edition UNC Press Enduring Editions use the latest in digital technology to make available again books from our distinguished backlist that were previously out of print These editions are published unaltered from the original and are presented in affordable paperback formats bringing readers both historical and cultural value
