Biotechnology and the Law Hugh B. Wellons, 2007 The book is written to help lawyers faced with the challenge of identifying the legal issues and processes that must be faced by their clients in building marketing and protecting a biotech business The contributors are experts in this specialized area and provide thorough yet accessible overviews of biotech subspecialties with an eye to practical application A biotech legal practice involves specialized subject matter and regulatory schemes that generally are not part of the business lawyer's repertoire and which can present many hazards for the uninitiated. Because of the expansion in biotech practice beyond the traditional organizations and their representatives, this guide was written to help lawyers find their way through the biotech maze. Occupational Health and Workplace Monitoring at Chemical Agent Disposal Facilities National Research Council, Division on Engineering and Physical Sciences, Board on Army Science and Technology, Committee on Review and Evaluation of the Army Chemical Stockpile Disposal Program, 2001-01-01. In keeping with a congressional mandate, Public Law 104-484 and the Chemical Weapons Convention, the United States is currently destroying its chemical weapons stockpile. The Army must ensure that the chemical demilitarization workforce is protected from the risks of exposure to hazardous chemicals during disposal operations and during and after facility closure. Good industrial practices developed in the chemical and nuclear energy industries and other operations that involve the processing of hazardous materials include workplace monitoring of hazardous species and a systematic occupational health program for monitoring workers' activities and health. In this report, the National Research Council Committee on Review and Evaluation of the Army Chemical Stockpile

Disposal Program examines the methods and systems used at JACADS and TOCDF the two operational facilities to monitor the concentrations of airborne and condensed phase chemical agents agent breakdown products and other substances of concern The committee also reviews the occupational health programs at these sites including their industrial hygiene and occupational medicine components Finally it evaluates the nature quality and utility of records of workplace chemical monitoring and occupational health programs
