Genesis 1-11 A Continental Commentary:

Genesis 1-11 Claus Westermann, 1994 As a work of scholarship it is difficult to greet this commentary with anything but enthusiasm It is certainly the most exhaustive and the very best treatment of these chapters available to us today One can have little but praise for the breadth of Westermann's scholarship and for the thoroughness the clarity and the fairness with which his discussion is presented This is a commentary of outstanding usefulness which may be commended without reservation to all serious students of the Old Testament It will stand as the definitive commentary on Genesis for years to come John Bright in Interpretation Westermann's commentary has the merit of taking a definite stand in the hermeneutical debate In the tradition of Gunkel it takes full advantage of the methods of form criticism and of the phenomenological study of religion Again and again Westermann opens up dimensions of meaning which are not only relevant for theology but for human existence in the modern world Bernhard W Anderson Journal of Biblical Literature Genesis 1-11 Claus

Westermann, 1984 The New Mormon Challenge Francis Beckwith, Carl Mosser, Paul Owen, 2002 Written by an international team of respected Christian scholars this freshly researched rebuttal of Mormon doctrine will aid those sharing the gospel with Mormons and those investigating Mormonism on their own Biblical Genealogies: A Form-Critical Analysis, with a Special Focus on Women Hedda Klip, 2022-01-17 This book is the first comprehensive study completely dedicated to all biblical genealogies It provides a form critical analysis of these genealogies and defines basic patterns and deviations Helpful charts guide you towards the distinctive characteristics of these patterns The last chapter of the book summarises all genealogical information on women in their different roles as daughters sisters and wives The book includes a short comparison to the presence of women in the genealogies in the Liber Antiquitatum Biblicarum Taking Rational

Trouble Over the Mysteries Nicola Hoggard Creegan, Andrew Shepherd, 2013-07-29 How can one believe in an age of doubt How can we name the mystery of God in human words Does nature speak of the glory of God Does science undermine faith Is the problem of evil unanswerable In this volume scientists theologians philosophers as well as a historian and social scientist take seriously the challenge of knowing and speaking about God in an age of doubt and challenge All New Zealand writers the authors reflect a variety of styles inputs and assumptions from down under Some look to answer new atheists directly others point out links between belief and unbelief in any age There are essays that show us new ways of reading old texts Scientists reflect on nature its signs and its obscurity We are confronted also with the mixed picture of belief and unbelief that the last few hundred years reveals to us Most of these essays have come out of seminars and conferences put on by TANSA Theology and the Natural Sciences in Aotearoa a forum for discussion and interpretation amongst scientists and theologians in New Zealand Biblical Grandparenting (Grandparenting Matters) Dr. Josh Mulvihill, 2018-12-04 Many powerful voices are influencing our grandchildren from those at home and in their schools to those in the world of entertainment and media What can you as a grandparent do to speak wisdom and godliness into their lives Biblical

Jesus Christ Gesila Nneka Uzukwu,2015-11-19 This detailed exegetical study of Gal 3 28c in the light of 3 14 29 and 4 21 31 shows not only how integral this verse is to chapters 3 and 4 of the letter but also that it is the key to understanding Paul s theological argument of promise in Galatians Paul s use of the story of Abraham in 3 14 29 and of Sarah in 4 21 31 in light of God s promise to the patriarch and the matriarch in Genesis 17 have implications displays the joint role of Abraham and Sarah in bringing about the promise and underscores the unity of the believers in Christ In light of this Uzukwu examines important aspects of the history of the interpretation of Gal 3 28c Uzukwu sheds light on the link between Gal 3 28 and the three expressions of gratitude found in Greek writings Links are also revealed to the three blessings of gratitude that appear at the beginning of the Jewish cycle of morning prayers Gen 1 27c in the Septuagint and the alleged pre Pauline baptismal formula She goes further to demonstrate how 3 28c is related to the unity of Galatians 3 4 focusing on the theme of the promise as the text discusses the effect of the Christ event in bringing about the fulfillment of that promise From Land to

Lands, from Eden to the Renewed Earth Munther Isaac,2015-10-14 The land is an important theme in the Bible It is a theme through which the whole biblical history found in the Old and New Testaments can be studied and analyzed Looking at the land in the Bible from its beginnings in the garden of Eden this publication approaches the theme from three distinct perspectives holiness the covenant and the kingdom Through careful analysis the author recognises that the land has been universalized in Christ as anticipated in the Old Testament and as a result promotes a missional theology of the land that underlines the social and territorial dimensions of redemption The Bible and Feminism Yvonne Sherwood,Anna Fisk,2017

This collection provides readers with a concise high level introduction to the field of feminist and gender biblical criticism It consists of 36 chapters which tackle a wide range of new theoretical and methodological movements Emerging as

Body as Property Sandra Jacobs,2014-04-24 The Body As Property indicates that physical disfigurement functioned in biblical law to verify legal property acquisition when changes in the status of dependents were formalized It is based on the reality the cuneiform script in particular was developed in Sumer and Mesopotamia for the purpose of record keeping to provide legal proof of ownership where the inscription of a tablet evidenced the sale or transfer of property Legitimate property acquisition was as important in biblical law where physical disfigurements marked dependents in a similar way that the veil or the head covering identified a wife or concubine in ancient Assyrian and Judean societies This is primarily substantiated in the accounts of prescriptive disfigurements namely circumcision and the piercing of a slave's ear both of which were required only when a son or slave was acquired permanently It is further argued that legal entitlement was relevant also to the punitive disfigurements recorded in Exodus 21 22 24 and Deuteronomy 25 11 12 where the physical violation of women was of concern solely as an infringement of male property rights Method Matters David L.

Petersen,2009 The Image of God in the Theology of Gregory of Nazianzus Gabrielle Thomas,2019-06-06 Provides the first full length analysis of Gregory Nazianzen's multifaceted account of the image of God against the backdrop of biblical themes

Animal Sacrifice and the Death Penalty Giosue Ghisalbetti,2021-12-03 The slaughter of animals as a religious ritual and the execution of human beings as a judicial one was an interrelated phenomenon in the ancient world Writings from different traditions had to be interpreted in relation to each other for the connection between two sacred rituals to be made The history of the death penalty within the textual traditions of Judaism and ancient Greece could be traced to specific commandments beginning in Genesis and in laws specified as early as in Hesiod's Theogony in each case however with far from unambiguous conclusions despite their divine origins in YHWH or Zeus An ever present uncertainty in the nature of the death penalty pervades the writings of the Bible from Genesis to the Gospels of Jesus as well as in the mytho poetic world of Hesiod the tragedy of Aeschylus and Socratic philosophy as represented in Plato's dialogues Scholarship has not considered the importance of these two interrelated traditions insofar as both expose the specific characteristics of violence and killing within the institutions of religion and the law The creation of religious rituals and the acts of the law are inseparable and essential to the authority of the politico religious state Animal sacrifice and the death penalty serve as the pillars of social legitimacy in the ancient world The Textual History of the Bible from the Dead Sea Scrolls to the Biblical

Manuscripts of the Vienna Papyrus Collection Ruth A. Clements,Russell Fuller,Armin Lange,Paul D. Mandel,2023-03-20 Biblical manuscripts from the Dead Sea and the Cairo Genizah have added immeasurably to our knowledge of the textual history of the Hebrew Bible The papers collected in this volume compare the evidence of the biblical DSS with manuscripts from the Vienna Papyrus Collection connected with the Cairo Genizah as well as late ancient evidence from diverse contexts The resulting picture is one of a dialectic between textual plurality and fixity the eventual dominance of the consonantal Masoretic Text over the textual plurality of the Second Temple period and the secondary diversification of that standardized text through scribal activity New Approaches to Human Dignity in the Context of Qur'ānic Anthropology Rüdiger

Braun,Hüseyin I. Cicek,2017-05-11 In recent years the challenge of relating one's own theological concept of man and his destiny to secular topics such as the inviolability of human dignity has generated a dynamic discourse about how Islamic anthropology can help cultivate and perfect the individual self and social humanisation This anthology brings together contemporary Muslim and non Muslim approaches to the secular notion of human dignity with reference to the Islamic tradition in general and the anthropology of the Qur'an in particular The collection presents approaches to Islamic theological anthropology across a range of fields especially with regard to the narrative of Adam and Iblis which occurs in all monotheistic traditions It focuses on the specific grammars of anthropological narratives at the levels of the canonical text of the Qur'an itself Section I and the interpretations that focus on its performative discourse Section II Further to this the normative implications of the human images that are derived from the canonical text and its interpretations are discussed in Section III The dynamic interdependencies between the hermeneutics of the Qur'an theological anthropology and legal philosophy particularly in the European context are a promising field of research that not only allows a deeper insight into the multiperspectivity and indexicality of theological anthropology but also has the potential to facilitate the long overdue discursive cooperation and rapprochement between Muslim and non Muslim scholarship Imagining God Humberto Casanova,2020-02-05 An ever growing number of Christians are becoming more and more uncomfortable with the tenets of the church the stories of the Bible and the church's worldview Statistics show that these feelings easily escalate into a crisis of faith and for now their predicament is being resolved by leaving the church This book will certainly help dealing with the crisis by showing that the language of faith is built by a web of metaphors taken from the Ancient Near East We do not need to take biblical language literally but as parables for human values in need to be assessed critically Edenic Eve Versus Clonaid Eve Lephen Thank Kumar,2015-11-25 Human Cloning by virtue of its achievement in the field of medico science has sparked a big controversy across the globe In the contemporary world being a global village no one can claim to be untouched by it It won't take much time to succeed in its attempt to creep into human society as the other discoveries and inventions have done in the past Nevertheless religion has never left science all alone to move on as it wished to make its way into the human society Religion being the core of human society has always checked such developments some time due to her vital role in the society and sometimes due to her legal doctrines that never allow her to think otherwise The objective of this book is to scrutinize the development in the field of Human Cloning in the light of its intentions and implication in marriage family and the larger society In order to fulfill the objective of this book the author has attempted to compare the first mother called Edenic Eve from Christian literature with first claimed human clone from the field of science The primary role of Christian Ethics has been to scrutinize all controversial issues in the society for its good Scrutinizing human cloning is one such attempt Healthy Human Life James K. Bruckner,2012-06-18 Health is God's original created intent whole persons healthy relationships a thriving environment and ongoing interaction with himself In the Bible human health is body based community based and deeply integrated in a relationship with God's creating Spirit The Pentateuch prophets writings Gospels and epistles all are deeply if not primarily concerned with the ongoing and ultimate health of God's good creation Scripture also has a wide perspective on the disruption of human health It deals with the human tendency to violence corruption and self destructive behaviors The recently renewed interest in health vitality and spirituality of all kinds has led to this articulation of a biblical spirituality in relation to human health Surprisingly when we look for spirituality in the Bible we find real and embodied relationships Everyone is for health and for the restoration of health But what are health and healing How does the Bible describe or define them Here is the result of ten years of conversations with health care professionals in a master's course on biblical perspectives on health and healing The biblical witness can transform the way we practice the healing arts This book provides a biblical foundation for health and its restoration

Patterns of Sin in the Hebrew Bible Joseph Lam, 2016 Sin often defined as a violation of divine will remains a crucial idea in contemporary moral and religious discourse However the apparent familiarity of the concept obscures its origins within the history of Western religious thought Joseph Lam examines a watershed moment in the development of sin as an idea namely within the language and culture of ancient Israel by examining the primary metaphors used for sin in the Hebrew Bible Drawing from contemporary theoretical insights coming out of linguistics and philosophy of language this book identifies four patterns of metaphor that pervade the biblical texts sin as burden sin as an account sin as path or direction and sin as stain or impurity In exploring the permutations of these metaphors and their development within the biblical corpus Patterns of Sin in the Hebrew Bible offers a compelling account of how a religious and theological concept emerges out of the everyday thought world of ancient Israel while breaking new ground in its approach to metaphor in ancient texts Far from being a timeless stable concept sin becomes intelligible only when situated in the matrix of ancient Israelite culture In other words sin is not as simple as it might seem
