Neither Complementarian nor Egalitarian Michelle Lee-Barnewall, 2016-03-15 Regarding gender relations the evangelical world is divided between complementarians and egalitarians While both perspectives have much to contribute the discussion has reached a stalemate Michelle Lee Barnewall critiques both sides of the debate challenging the standard premises and arguments and offering new insight into a perennially divisive issue in the church She brings fresh biblical exegesis to bear on our cultural situation presenting an alternative way to move the discussion forward based on a corporate perspective and on kingdom values The book includes a foreword by Craig L Blomberg and an afterword by Lynn H Cohick

The Spirit of Atonement Steven M. Studebaker, 2021-01-14 Steven M Studebaker proposes a Pentecostal approach to a major Christian doctrine the atonement The book moves Pentecostal theology of the atonement from a primarily Christocentric and crucicentric register to one that articulates the pneumatological and holistic nature of Pentecostal praxis Studebaker examines the irony of Classical Pentecostalism relying on the Christocentrism of Protestantism evangelical atonement theology to articulate its experience of the Holy Spirit as well as the Pneumatological nature of Pentecostal praxis He then develops a Pentecostal theology of atonement based on the biblical narrative of the Spirit of Pentecost and returns to re imagine an expanded vision of Pentecostal praxis based on the theological formation of the biblical narrative The result is a Pentecostal atonement theology that shows the integrated nature of pneumatology creation and Christology in the biblical narrative of redemption It gives theological expression to not only the pneumatological nature of Pentecostal praxis but also the fundamental role of the Holy Spirit in the biblical narrative of redemption The book challenges popular western atonement theologies to re think their Christocentrism and crucicentrism as well as their atomistic tendency to separate soteriology into objective

Christological and subjective pneumatological categories The Message of Humanity Ian W. Payne, 2025-02-20 Who do humans think they are A cacophony of answers in the face of global challenges like climate change artificial intelligence racism nationalism terrorism feminism abortion gene therapy gender constructivism shows we do not agree To a deeply divided despondent world the Bible speaks today about the human condition and destiny by pointing us to Jesus Christ the true human the image of God Ian Payne s conviction is that the most important answer to the question of humanity is God He expounds a comprehensive selection of Old and New Testament passages and examines a range of issues in being human today The book is structured in three parts following the biblical narrative Part 1 Created in the image of God Part 2 Image of God renewed in Christ Part 3 Issues in being human This biblical theology shows that hope and meaning for humans are found in remembering and trusting God s gift of life and goal of redemption and restoration With an integrated study guide this book is perfect for personal and group study and preachers application of the passages covered Grasping God's Word, Fourth Edition J. Osborne, 2020-09-24 The concept of blessing pervades the everyday life of Christians from testimonies recounting God s provision to praise songs to wishing someone well In fact the term has been so integrated into

Christian language that it is rarely considered thoughtfully In the pages of Scripture blessing seems to be either physical or spiritual but a fuller biblical theological approach reveals that God s blessing has always been both spiritual and physical In Divine Blessing and the Fullness of Life in the Presence of God William Osborne traces the theme of blessing throughout Scripture as he guides readers into a deeper understanding of how God s gracious benevolence impacts the everyday lives of Christians
