Geographers Hayden Lorimer, 2014-09-25 Volume 33 of Geographers Biobibliographical Studies adds significantly to the corpus of scholarship on geography's multiple histories and biographies with six essays on individuals who have made major contributions to the development of geography in the twentieth century. This volume focuses on European geographers including essays on individuals from Britain, France, and Hungary. These are individuals who have made important and distinctive contributions to a diverse range of fields including cartography, physical geography, oceanography, and urban theory. As with previous volumes, these biographical essays demonstrate the importance of geographers' lives in terms of the lived experience of geography in practice.
