Geography Learnerships:

Geography and Economy in South Africa and its Neighbours Christian M. Rogerson, 2017-05-15 The dismantling of the apartheid regime in South Africa caused massive transformation in both geographical and economic terms not only in this country but also in the region as a whole As the post apartheid government enters its second term this captivating volume assesses its progress in unravelling the geography of apartheid both in South Africa itself and in its relationships with other countries in Southern Africa and Africa It also considers the ways in which South Africa now that it is no longer a pariah state has begun to position itself within the current global economy Examining South Africa's land and agriculture mining and minerals manufacturing tourism corporate finance the labour market and transport the volume discusses the challenges of balancing growth and redistribution the extent and nature of progress change and relationships within the regional and global economy A compelling investigation into the economics of South Africa's neighbouring states in relation to their natural resources colonialism and inter relationships with themselves and with South Africa leads to a focus on the region as a whole and its relations with the global economy

Confronting Challenges to the Liberal Arts Curriculum Patti McGill Peterson, 2012-03-15 Comparative research on higher education in developing and transitional countries is often focused on such issues as access finance student mobility and the impact of globalization but there has been little attention to curriculum and the forces that shape it Confronting Challenges to the Liberal Arts Curriculum fills an important gap in the literature by examining the context content challenges and successes of implementing liberal arts coursework within undergraduate curriculum In order to fully understand the place of liberal education in each location chapter authors have employed a wide lens to investigate the influences upon curricular content in China India Mexico Pakistan Poland Russia South Africa and Turkey Thus this volume explores how curricular content is decided how educational programs are being structured and whether countries are viewing higher education as more than just the preparation of students for specialized knowledge By providing detailed case studies of these countries at crucial transition points in their higher education systems each chapter outlines the state of higher education system and the government's role the impact of imported models the presence of a liberal education the curricular formation and best examples of successful programs Ultimately this volume depicts how global influences have come to rest in developing countries and how market forces far removed from faculty and students have shaped the undergraduate curriculum This valuable book is of interest to scholars and researchers in Higher Education as well as practitioners working to foster student and faculty exchange and raise awareness of curricular issues

D. Young,2001 The Institute of Education has been closely involved with post apartheid developments in education policy in South Africa The book examines the current policy dilemmas in South Africa It also provides a sophisticated exploration of the tensions that can occur between and among policy makers and policy researchers as a local vision is translated into reality in a global context At the same time the book provides clear evidence of the value as well as the difficulty of continuing dialogue between these groups which might usefully be heeded in those countries where such interaction too rarely takes place Shaping the Future of South Africa's Youth Helene Perold,Nico Cloete,Joy Papier,2012 Why solving ongoing problems with the NQF National Qualifications Framework matters The challenges unemployment imposes on youth The challenge of youth to work transitions an international perspective A statistical overview of further education and training colleges Strengthening the capacity of FET Colleges to meet the needs of young people Higher education and an expanded post school educational system Trends in training in South Africa Key issues in the assessment of South Africa's national skills development strategy Opening the doors of learning Viewing the post school education and training landscape from a youth perspective Parliamentary Papers Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons,1911 Women's Work Agnes Amy Bulley,2016-09-28 The writers of the present volume have a purely practical object in view They have no desire to discuss theoretically the duties rights and responsibilities of women They consider that it would be unwise to give prominence to considerations affecting the political or social position of women in a work dealing specially with their industrial situation On the other hand they are fully aware that there is a necessary connection between the views which appear to be in course of formation as to the proper position of women in the labour market and the change which has taken place in the standpoint from which all questions even the most abstract regarding the condition of women are now discussed Various reforms have been forced on us within the last thirty years through the necessity of recognising legally and socially that development in the relations of women to the state and to society which has been brought about by the pressure of the altered circumstances of modern life Unfortunately the agitation which has accompanied the carrying of these reforms has been characterized in some directions by a deplorable lack of self control and judgment on the part of certain of vi those who have put themselves forward as the leaders of their sex In the past it must be confessed that our social system has not afforded to the majority of women those opportunities for the acquisition of disciplined habits of mind which are to be found only in bearing the responsibilities of independent action and self government When we hear the voices of those who have been called the shrieking sisterhood uplifted in frenzied violence against the male oppressor when we are tempted to repudiate their follies we may remember that crimes against good sense good taste and good feeling are like other crimes bred of the bitter resentment of wrong which springs in the breasts of all who awake to consciousness of the suffering inflicted by centuries of unjust rule
