The Foreign Office List and Diplomatic and Consular Year Book for ... Great Britain. Foreign Office, 1964 Daily Graphic M. Therson-Cofie, 1957-04-23 Rebellions in Indonesia, 1950-1960 Robert A. Peterson, 1961 The Transition to Guided Democracy Daniel S. Lev, 2009 Periods of major political transition are generally so complex as to present the political analyst with one of his most difficult challenges Indonesia between 1957 and 1959 was no exception During these years a previously wide diffusion of political power was superseded by its increasing concentration in three major bases President Soekarno the Army and the Communist Party This was also a period of crisis in the relationships of Djakarta and Java with the other major islands of the archipelago and it was marked by ideological ferment and change largely dominated by the views of President Soekarno It was during these years that Guided Democracy was given its initial shape with the stage being set for a power struggle which was to become increasingly intense So dramatic were the political experiences of this period and so deeply etched in the minds of many Indonesians that their effect is still strongly felt and can be expected to influence the character of Indonesia's political development for many years to come Dr Daniel S Lev is particularly well qualified to examine the course of Indonesian political developments between 1957 and 1959 Arriving in Indonesia towards the end of this period he remained there for three years engaged in an intensive study of its political life His monograph constitutes by far the most searching analysis yet to appear of this critically important period As well as providing a guide to these earlier formative years in the nation's political development it will I am sure long remain relevant for all those seriously interested in understanding contemporary Indonesian political life George McT Kahin August 10 1966 Southeast Asia, 1955-1957 United States. Committee on Appropriations, 1959 Fire and the Full Moon David Webster, 2010-01-01 Our image of Canada's postwar foreign policy is dominated by the Cold War while the story of Canada's response to decolonization in the Global South is less well known This book explores Canadian Indonesian relations to determine whether Canada's postwar foreign policy was guided by an overarching set of altruistic principles It shows that Canada remained a loyal member of the Western alliance Canada wanted developing countries to follow its own non revolutionary model of decolonization and paid little attention to violations of human rights Webster s reassessment of Canada s foreign policy objectives in Indonesia and of its own national image will appeal to students of diplomatic history interested in Asia and the developing world Lord Meher, Supplement David Fenster,2024-10-22 A Supplement to Lord Meher the 4 part biography of the Avatar of the Age Meher Baba Report United States.
