This book assesses the important role of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN in the management of regional political security and economic relations The author argues that ASEAN's prominent role in the region spanning 50 years is largely due to the acquiescence of the great powers who endorsed ASEAN accepted its regional position and accorded the institution a legitimacy and durability that otherwise it would not have This text offers a key intervention into the debate regarding ASEAN and regional order by showing how ASEAN's contribution to order management is part of a negotiated division of labour with the great powers The author applies an innovative social roles analysis which captures the dynamic interactions between ASEAN and the great powers from the Cold War to the present day      Java in a Time of Revolution Benedict Richard O'Gorman Anderson, 2006 With remarkable scope and in scrupulous detail Professor Anderson analyzes the Indonesian revolution of 1945 Against the background of Javanese culture and the Japanese occupation he explores the origins of the revolutionary youth groups the military and the political parties to challenge conventional interpretations of revolutionary movements in Asia The author emphasizes that the critical role in the outbreak was played not by the dissatisfied intellectuals or by an oppressed working class but by the youth of Indonesia Perhaps most important are the insights he offers into the conflict between strategies for seeking national revolution and those for attaining social change By giving first priority to gaining recognition of Indonesian sovereignty from the outside world he argues the revolutionary leadership had to adopt conservative domestic policies that greatly reduced the possibility of far reaching social reform This in depth study of the independence crisis in Indonesia brought back to life by Equinox Publishing as the first title in its Classic Indonesia series also illuminates the revolutionary process in other nations where wars for independence have been fought but significant social and economic progress has not yet been achieved ABOUT THE AUTHOR Benedict Anderson is one of the world's leading authorities on South East Asian nationalism and particularly on Indonesia He is Professor of International Studies and Director of the Modern Indonesia Project at Cornell University New York His other works include Imagined Communities Reflections on the Origin and Spread of Nationalism and The Spectre of Comparisons Nationalism Southeast Asia and the World      Engineering News-record, 1962      Our Sunday Visitor's 2001 Catholic Almanac Matthew Bunson, 2000 Provides facts and information about the Catholic Church and includes listings for Catholic associations and web site addresses      Art, Global Maoism and the Chinese Cultural Revolution Jacopo Galimberti, Noemi de
