Djakarta Tuesday October 15 1957:

The Communist Party of Indonesia 1951-1963 Donald Hindley, 2023-11-15 The Communist Party of Indonesia 1951 1963 explores the dramatic evolution of PKI under the transformative leadership of D N Aidit and his contemporaries M H Lukman and Njoto From a weakened party of a few thousand disorganized members in 1951 the PKI emerged as the largest non governing communist party globally boasting over 2 million members by 1963 and an additional 12.5 million supporters through its mass organizations This study focuses on the Aidit leadership's implementation of a national united front strategy emphasizing the creation of a mass communist party extending influence far beyond party boundaries and navigating complex interactions with Indonesia's major political forces The narrative concludes in 1963 when the ultimate success of this strategy remained uncertain Rooted in Indonesia's specific socio political landscape the book delves deeply into the Javanese society that provided the core of the PKI's support By examining the party's grassroots efforts mass mobilization strategies and challenges within an underdeveloped nation the study sheds light on why PKI amassed widespread support yet struggled to consolidate power Avoiding a broader international perspective this work zeroes in on Indonesia presenting a detailed account of the Aidit leadership's influence and the socio political conditions shaping the PKI during its pivotal years This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1964 Foreign Commerce Weekly United States. Department of Commerce, 1957 The Foreign Office List and Diplomatic and Consular Year Book for ... Great Britain. Foreign Office, 1964 Tondano (Toundano) Timothy C. Brickell, 2022-12-30 This monograph is a grammatical description of Tondano an endangered and under documented Austronesian AN language spoken in the northern part of the island of Sulawesi Indonesia It is a modified version of the related doctoral dissertation completed at La Trobe University Bundoora Victoria Australia 2015 The chapters herein begin by outlining relevant socio historical information relating to the Tondano speech community before providing detailed explanations of the sound system phonetics and phonology word structure morphology and phrase and sentence structure syntax of the language This description seeks to be as complete as possible while at the same time acknowledging any descriptive shortcomings either due to a lack of data a lack of analytical clarity or simply due to considerations of space The data used for this grammar come from extensive in situ fieldwork 2011 2015 In essence the analysis takes a theory neutral approach While it does not utilise a specific theoretical framework parts of the terminology methodology and analysis conform to those of Basic Linguistic Theory There is a strong emphasis on using data which are as naturalistic as possible and which has been collected collated and analysed in collaboration with native speakers in the Tondano speech community For all levels of linguistic structure under description language examples taken from primarily spontaneous communicative events are provided In terms of issues relating to Austronesian typology and aspects of broader cross linguistic typology these are mentioned where deemed necessary but are not the primary focus of this work The principal audience for this book is scholars and students of languages and linguistics along with anyone with an interest in the anthropology and linguistics of the Austronesian cultures of Maritime Southeast Asia Asian Recorder ,1968 Foreign Relations of the United States United States. Consulate General (Hong Kong, China),1957-05 Legal Evolution and Political Authority in Indonesia Daniel Lev,2021-10-25 For nearly forty years following the collapse of Indonesia s parliamentary system Indonesia s once independent legal institutions were transformed into dedicated instruments of a powerful elite and allowed to sink into a deep mire of corruption and malfeasance Legal process was devastated far beyond the capacity of any simple effort at reconstruction by post Suharto governments Indonesia s problems in this respect surpass those of other countries in the region compelled by economic crisis to re examine institutional structures The works reprinted in this collection constitute a case study over time of legal decay and the rise of reform interests in one of the most complex countries in the world Written during a period of more than thirty years beginning in the early 1960s the essays trace several themes in the legal history of modern Indonesia They make clear however that legal history is seldom that alone but rather like law itself is largely derivative fundamentally imbedded in the interest ideas purposes and contentions of local political social and economic power Report on Indonesia ,1964 The Asian Trade Unionist ,1963 Ocean Transportation of Grain to Russia United States. Federspiel,2009 Originally published Ithaca N Y Cornell Southest Asia Program Publications 1970 The Transition to Guided Democracy Daniel S. Lev,2009 Periods of major political transition are generally so complex as to present the political analyst with one of his most difficult challenges Indonesia between 1957 and 1959 was no exception During these years a previously wide diffusion of political power was superseded by its increasing concentration in three major bases President Soekarno the Army and the Communist Party This was also a period of crisis in the relationships of Djakarta and Java with the other major islands of the archipelago and it was marked by ideological ferment and change largely dominated by the views of President Soekarno It was during these years that Guided Democracy was given its initial shape with the stage being set for a power struggle which was to become increasingly intense So dramatic were the political experiences of this period and so deeply etched in the minds of many Indonesians that their effect is still strongly felt and can be expected to influence the character of Indonesia's political development for many years to come Dr Daniel S Lev is particularly well qualified to examine the course of Indonesian political developments between 1957 and 1959 Arriving in Indonesia towards the end of this period he remained there for three years engaged in an intensive study of its political life His monograph constitutes by far the most searching analysis yet to appear of this critically important period As well as providing a guide to these earlier formative years in the nation's political development it will I am sure long remain relevant for all those seriously interested in understanding contemporary Indonesian political life George McT Kahin August 10 1966 Seven Years of the Ngo Dinh Diem Administration, 1954-1961 Vietnam, 1961
