Bopp, Linda C. Smith, 2011-05-23 Reflecting the dramatic changes shaped by rapidly developing technologies over the past six years this new fourth edition of Reference and Information Services takes the introduction to reference sources and services significantly beyond the content of the first three editions In Part I Concepts and Processes chapters have been revised and updated to reflect new ideas and methods in the provision of reference service in an era when many users have access to the Web In Part II Information Sources and Their Use discussion of each source type has been updated to encompass key resources in print and on the Web where an increasing number of freely available sources join those purchased or licensed by libraries A number of new authors are contributors to this new edition bringing to their chapters their experience as teachers of reference and as practitioners in different types of libraries Discussions of services in Part I integrate digital reference as appropriate to each topic such as how to conduct a reference interview online using instant messaging Boxes interspersed in the text are used to present scenarios for discussion to highlight key concepts or to present excerpts from important documents Discussions of sources in Part II place more emphasis on designing effective search strategies using both print and digital resources The chapter on selection and evaluation of sources addresses the changing nature of reference collections and how to evaluate new types of sources Each chapter concludes with an updated list of additional readings to guide further study A new companion website will provide links to Web accessible readings and resources as well as additional scenarios for discussion and example search strategies to supplement those presented in the text

Any Child Can Write Harvey S. Wiener, 2003-02-06 Harvey S Wiener shows how parents can encourage their children to write with a home program that can be used from preschool through high school Beginning with the building of attitudes Wiener moves through simple varied and practical experience with the written word By setting up an atmosphere in the home that encourages creative written expression coupled with a parent s guidance in writing children gain an outlook on writing that builds confidence in their abilities to use language This new edition addresses many heated issues about children s education and touches on today s critical debates parents roles in school preparations the increased stress on writing assessment and performance measures throughout a child s education and across school sectors and the debate over phonics A revised and expanded section called Key Books for Young Writers and Their Parents will help any family stock its shelves with useful books for a home writing program A new chapter discusses the ubiquity of home computers and word processing programs and assesses their positive and negative influences on children s home learning experiences In addition Wiener describes how to find the best educational online resources and how to supervise a child s work on the Internet Furthermore he emphasizes the importance of collaboration child and parent child and sibling to help avoid computer abuse and establish good computer practices Finally he integrates discussion on computers through the text and also offers writing exercises and samples for children to obtain from Oxford s website

Young Researchers Margaret Mallett, 2002-02-07 Informational kinds of reading are crucial in every lesson This book looks at how we can encourage children from the very beginning to think of themselves as young researchers using skills and strategies for clear purposes It argues that the creative practitioner nurtures children s sense of wonder and curiosity about the world and all its phenomena Packed full of advice on how to use the most stimulating and exciting texts and the liveliest approaches the book celebrates the good practice of teachers and student teachers in a large number of classroom case studies The content includes a summary of the recent developments and a framework of principles to inform good practice in this challenging aspect of literacy chapters concentrating on particular age groups beginning with the nursery and ending with the later primary years and thus taking up an essentially developmental approach an assessment of recent research and how findings can be put to practical and creative use in the classroom A central message is that children benefit from collaborating with teachers and peers at every stage of finding out The spoken language energises informational reading and writing making the sharing of the fruits of children s research highly enjoyable This book will inspire you and lead to the very best practice Stimulating Non-Fiction Writing! Emma Hughes-Evans,Simon Brownhill,2019-01-25 Stimulating Non Fiction Writing Inspiring Children Aged 7 11 offers innovative and exciting ways to engage children in non fiction writing giving professionals the confidence and practical advice that they need to support children in producing quality non fiction texts in the classroom Packed full of interesting ideas resource suggestions and practical activities the book explores the various ways professionals can purposefully encourage child authors to develop their non fiction writing skills Tried and tested resources Gold star tips and practical suggestions are underpinned by research informed teaching strategies and academic information to strengthen professional practice associated with the teaching of non fiction writing By taking a stimulating approach to each text type and linking activities to known texts and stimuli the book offers differentiated advice for working with children in Lower and Upper Key stage 2 Chapters consider text types that include Instructions Persuasive texts Non chronological reports Correspondence texts Discussion texts This new text is the perfect guide for inspiring children aged 7 11 in the classroom and will energise and enrich classroom provision and practice by being an essential resource for teachers and students on teacher training courses Reference and Information Services Kay Ann Cassell,Uma Hiremath,2013 Search skills of today bear little resemblance to searches through print publications Reference service has become much more complex than in the past and is in a constant state of flux Learning the skill sets of a worthy reference librarian can be challenging unending rewarding and yes fun Educating with Purpose: The heart of what matters Stephen Tierney,2020-08-04 If the last decade focused on what works the decade ahead must focus on what matters In his second book Tierney argues that the purpose of education must move to the heart of the educational debate Purpose will significantly influence what schools and the education system as a whole will do next Why we educate is a question from which all other aspects evolve A question for all times it will resonate with those who have experienced the Great Pause Using four main philosophies of education personal empowerment cultural transmission preparation for work and preparation for citizenship he provides the underpinning theory and seminal works alongside a powerful critique Using the impact of these different philosophies on a school s curriculum he challenges the current orthodoxy allowing the reader to consider alternative views and approaches Proposing that the telos of education must be a life well lived he argues for a re purposing of education with a preferential option for the poor at its heart Educative and challenging this will be read by all those interested and involved in education
