Do You Web 2.0 Public Libraries And Social Networking Chandos Internet:

Do You Web 2.0? Linda Berube, 2011-05-03 Web 2.0 technology is a hot topic at the moment and public librarians in particular are beginning to feel the pressure to apply these tools. Indeed Web 2.0 has the potential to transform library services but only if the policy and strategy for those services are ready to be transformed. The author not only reviews these tools and provides practical advice and case studies on how they can be applied in the public library setting but also recommends the policies and business cases that begin to create a new strategy for public libraries. Particularly geared to the public library setting. Advice on using in conjunction or integrated with other public library services. Examples of best practice.

Social Media Strategies for Dynamic Library Service Development Tella, Adeyinka, 2014-12-31 As social technologies continue to evolve it is apparent that librarians and their clientele would benefit through participation in the digital social world. While there are benefits to implementing these technologies many libraries also face challenges in the integration and usage of social media. Social Media Strategies for Dynamic Library Service Development discusses the integration of digital social networking into library practices. Highlighting the advantages and challenges faced by libraries in the application of social media this publication is a critical reference source for professionals and researchers working within the fields of library and information science as well as practitioners and executives interested in the utilization of social technologies in relation to knowledge management and organizational development.
