Do Yourself Thomas Barnthaler:

Do It Yourself Thomas Bärnthaler, 2015-09-14 50 of the world's most exciting designers and visionary artists have devised simple objects that anyone can make at home. Do It Yourself collects 50 simple beautiful projects by the world's best designers and artists. From lamps and tables to toys and chairs, all items can be constructed using basic tools and everyday items, making designer classics from the everyday. Each project is illustrated with full color photographs of the finished piece and all tools and materials required to make it, in addition to hand-drawn illustrations for the step-by-step instructions. Text for each object describes the design concept and gives a bio for the designer, plus the price of materials and time to complete. The book features designers and artists from all over the globe and from a variety of disciplines, including Konstantin Grcic, Rafael Horzon, Hella Jongerius, Sarah Sze, and Ai Weiwei. This book offers readers affordable access to world-class design as well as hours of fun and will inspire young designers for years to come.

Now Make this Thomas Bärnthaler, 2018 24 of the world's leading designers contribute one object each for kids to make themselves. For the young makers in the family, this beautifully designed handbook offers 24 unique and practical objects for kids to make and use. Each project features fully illustrated step-by-step instructions, a photographic list of materials, the approximate cost, timing, and a photograph of the finished product. The 24 contributors range from lauded graphic designers to successful industrial designers, all of whom considered this young audience in the creation of their projects. This unusual and engaging book of activities grants children access to world-class design in their very own homes and may even inspire a few to become designers themselves. Ages 8-11.

Congoville Pieter Boons, Sandrine Colard, 2021-06-01 One hundred years after the founding of the cole Coloniale Supérieure in Antwerp, the adjacent Middelheim Museum invites Sandrine Colard, researcher and curator, to conceive an exhibition that probes silenced histories of colonialism in a site-specific way. For Colard, the term Congoville encompasses the tangible and intangible urban traces of the colony, not on the African continent but in 21st-century Belgium: a school building, a park, imperial myths, and citizens of African descent. In the exhibition and this adjoining publication, the concept Congoville is the starting point for 15 contemporary artists to address colonial history and ponder its aftereffects as Black folks walking through a postcolonial city. Due to the multitude of perspectives and voices, this book is both a catalogue and a reference work, comprised of artistic and academic contributions. Together, the participating artists and invited authors unfold the blueprint of Congoville, an imaginary city that still subconsciously affects us but also encourages us to envision a decolonial utopia. Een eeuw na de oprichting van de cole Coloniale Supérieure in Antwerpen nodigt het naburige Middelheimmuseum onderzoeker en curator Sandrine Colard uit om een tentoonstelling te creëren die sitespecifiek peilt naar de stille geschiedenissen van het kolonialisme. Congoville duidt op de zichtbare en onzichtbare stedelijke sporen van de kolonie niet op het Afrikaanse continent maar pal in het België van vandaag: een schoolgebouw, een park, imperialistische mythes en burgers van Afrikaanse origine. Doorheen de tentoonstelling en deze bijhorende publicatie is Congoville de context.

Race-ing the Century Mita Banerjee, 2005 What do Charlie Chan and William Faulkner have in common This study starts out from the assumption that there may well be a continuity between literature and popular culture in the racialized images they perpetuate Looking at twentieth century American literature film music and art this book suggests that strategies of exclusion and of resistance are mutually constitutive Where a 1920s Western audience yearned for exoticism Josephine Baker donned a scanty costume of bird feathers and enchanted a white audience by singing to them from within a gilded cage Looking at African American Asian American Chicano and Native American cultural productions as constituting a rainbow coalition this study seeks to chart out the terrain of a multi ethnic nation a nation to which as El Vez the Mexican Elvis asserts everyone is welcome even the mainstream itself
