Do Muslim Women Need Saving? Lila Abu-Lughod, 2013-11-12 Do Muslim Women Need Saving is an indictment of a mindset that has justified all manner of foreign interference including military invasion in the name of rescuing women from Islam It offers a detailed moving portrait of the actual experiences of ordinary Muslim women and of the contingencies with Abusing Religion Megan Goodwin, 2020-07-17 Why do Americans presume to know what s really going on in marginal religions Sex abuse happens in all communities but American religious outsiders often face disproportionate allegations of sexual abuse Abusing Religion argues that sex abuse in minority religious communities is an American problem Postcolonial Justice Anke Bartels, Lars Eckstein, Nicole Waller, Dirk Wiemann, 2017-02-13 not merely a religious one Postcolonial Justice addresses a major issue in current postcolonial theory and beyond namely the question of how to reconcile an ethics grounded in the reciprocal acknowledgment of diversity and difference with the normative if not universal thrust that appears to energize any notion of justice The concept of postcolonial justice shared by the essays in this volume carries an unwavering commitment to difference within and beyond Europe while equally rejecting radical cultural essentialisms which refuse to engage in utopian ideals of convivial exchange across a plurality of subject positions Such utopian ideals can no longer claim universal validity as in the tradition of the European enlightenment instead they are bound to local frames of speaking from which they project world The Fear of Islam, Second Edition Todd H. Green, 2019-09-03 The Fear of Islam investigates the context of Western views of Islam and offers an introduction to the historical roots and contemporary anxiety regarding Islam within the Western world Tracing the medieval legacy of religious polemics and violence Green orients readers to the complex history and issues of Western relations to Islam from early and late modern colonial enterprises and theories of Orientalism to the production of religious discourses of otherness and the clash of civilizations that proliferated in the era of 9 11 and the war on terror In this second edition Green brings the reader up to date examining the Islamophobic rhetoric of the 2016 US presidential election and the ongoing success of populist and far right parties in Europe Green provides updated data on the rise of anti Muslim legislation for example the Muslim ban in the United States and a wave of full face veil bans in Europe as well as the rise in anti Muslim hate crimes on both sides of the Atlantic since 2015 This important book is essential reading for anyone who wants to better understand current views of Islam and to work toward meaningful peace and understanding between religious communities The Oxford Handbook of Islam and Women Asma Afsaruddin, 2023 The Oxford Handbook of Islam and Women offers authoritative contributions from well known scholars whose sophisticated and cutting edge research explores the diversity of Muslim women's lives and their accomplishments challenging common stereotypes that are particularly prevalent in the West Women's America Linda K. Kerber, 2016 Featuring a mix of primary source documents articles and illustrations Women's America Refocusing the Past has long been an invaluable resource Now in its eighth edition the book has been extensively revised and updated to cover

recent developments in U S women s history Patriarchy Pavla Miller, 2017-06-14 Patriarchy particularly as embedded in the Old and New Testaments and Roman legal precepts has been a powerful organising concept with which social order has been understood maintained enforced contested adjudicated and dreamt about for over two millennia of western history This brief book surveys three influential episodes in this history seventeenth century debates about absolutism and democracy nineteenth century reconstructions of human prehistory and the broad mobilisations linked to twentieth century women s movements It then looks at the way feminist scholars have reconsidered and revised some earlier explanations built around patriarchy The book concludes with an overview of current uses of the concept of patriarchy from fundamentalist Christian activism over foreign policy analyses of oppressive regimes to scholarly debates about forms of effective governance By treating patriarchy as a powerful tool to think with rather than a factual description of social relations the text makes a useful contribution to current social and political thought Muslim Women and Misogyny Samia Rahman, 2024-06-06 Muslim women are among the most fetishised and objectified groups in society today Much is assumed and imagined about their lives and it is all too easy to succumb to orientalist myths For too long Muslim women have been reduced to two dimensional stereotypes empowered heroines rejecting patriarchal religious teachings or victims of a misogyny believed to run deep within Islam But why is this neatly packaged view so pervasive Are oppression and subjugation actually so central to Muslim women's lives How is this misogyny influenced by white supremacy and Islamophobia And where do the biggest threats to Muslim women's freedom and safety really come from In this bold new book Samia Rahman explores the relationships between misogyny and Muslim women s experiences in Britain today untangling complex issues such as Muslim feminism representation toxic masculinity marriage and sexuality Based on extensive interviews with both women and men from Islamic communities she offers a powerful much needed response to the misappropriation of female Muslim voices revealing the many faces of Muslim womanhood within the UK African Women Writers and the Politics of Gender Sadia Zulfigar, 2016-09-23 This work examines the work of a group of African women writers who have emerged over the last forty years While figures such as Chinua Achebe Ben Okri and Wole Soyinka are likely to be the chief focus of discussions of African writing female authors have been at the forefront of fictional interrogations of identity formation and history In the work of authors such as Mariama B Senegal Buchi Emecheta Nigeria Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie Nigeria Tsitsi Dangarembga Zimbabwe and Leila Aboulela Sudan there is a clear attempt to subvert the tradition of male writing where the female characters are often relegated to the margins of the culture and confined to the domestic private sphere This body of work has already generated a significant number of critical responses including readings that draw on gender politics and colonialism but it is still very much a minor literature and most mainstream western feminism has not sufficiently processed it The purpose of this book is three fold First it draws together some of the most important and influential African women writers of the post war period and looks at their work separately and together in terms of a series of themes and issues including marriage family polygamy religion childhood and education Second it demonstrates how African literature produced by women writers is explicitly and polemically engaged with urgent political issues that have both local and global resonance the veil Islamophobia and a distinctively African brand of feminist critique Third it revisits Fredric Jameson's claim that all third world texts are national allegories and considers these novels by African women in relation to Jameson's claim arguing that their work has complicated Jameson's assumptions Australian Muslim Women's Borderland Subjectivities Lütfive Ali,2024-01-19 This book claims a discursive space in academic scholarship for knowledges and ways of knowing that capture the diversity complexity and full humanness of Australian Muslim women s subjectivities It draws on in depth conversational interviews with 20 Australian Muslim women from various ethnic backgrounds during which the women shared their experiences of being at the crossroads of their religious gendered racialised and ethnic identities. The book puts forward a decolonial feminist border methodology by weaving the work of decolonial feminist philosophers Maria Lugones and Gloria Anzald a with postmodern feminist thinking on subjectivity and with discourse analysis This methodology is used to centre and attend to the fluidity and plurality of Muslim women's subjectivities at the intersections of race ethnicity patriarchy gender sexuality and Islam Sensible Politics William A. Callahan, 2020-01-08 Visual images are everywhere in international politics But how are we to understand them In Sensible Politics William A Callahan uses his expertise in theory and filmmaking to explore not only what visuals mean but also how visuals can viscerally move and connect us in affective communities of sense The book s rich analysis of visual images photographs film art and visual artifacts maps veils walls gardens cyberspace shows how critical scholarship needs to push beyond issues of identity and security to appreciate the creative politics of social ordering and world ordering Here sensible politics isn t just sensory but looks beyond icons and ideology to the affective politics of everyday life It challenges our Eurocentric understanding of international politics by exploring the meaning and impact of visuals from Asia and the Middle East Sensible Politics offers a unique approach to politics that allows us to not only think visually but also feel visually and creatively act visually for a multisensory The Routledge Handbook of Islam and Gender Justine Howe, 2020-11-09 Given the intense appreciation of politics political scrutiny of Islam and Muslims which often centres on gendered concerns The Routledge Handbook of Islam and Gender is an outstanding reference source to key topics problems and debates in this exciting subject Comprising over 30 chapters by a team of international contributors the Handbook is divided into seven parts Foundational texts in historical and contemporary contexts Sex sexuality and gender difference Gendered piety and authority Political and religious displacements Negotiating law ethics and normativity Vulnerability care and violence in Muslim families Representation commodification and popular culture These sections examine key debates and problems including feminist and queer approaches to the Qur an hadith Islamic law and ethics Sufism devotional practice pilgrimage charity female religious authority global politics of feminism material and consumer culture masculinity fertility and the family sexuality sexual rights domestic violence marriage practices and gendered representations of Muslims in film and media The Routledge Handbook of Islam and Gender is essential reading for students and researchers in religious studies Islamic studies and gender studies The Handbook will also be very useful for those in related fields such as cultural studies area studies sociology anthropology Muslim Women as Speakers of English Madiha Neelam, 2022-10-28 This book examines representations of Muslim women as speakers of English in the context of a language ideological debate in the UK in 2016 The author shows how Muslim women are stereotyped as non speakers of English through the manipulation of census data and how this supposed lack of English is discursively constructed as an index of their supposed oppression complicity in the threat of extremism emanating from their sons and limited participation in the labour force. The book aims to complement a growing body of research on raciolinguistics and language ideologies It illuminates the intersection of language Islamophobia and securitization and will be of interest to postgraduate students and academics working in applied linguistics and discourse The Myth of the Andalusian Paradise analysis and interdisciplinary audiences in studies of race Islamophobia and gender Dario Fernandez-Morera, 2023-07-11 A finalist for World Magazine's Book of the Year Scholars journalists and even politicians uphold Muslim ruled medieval Spain al Andalus as a multicultural paradise a place where Muslims Christians and Jews lived in harmony There is only one problem with this widely accepted account it is a myth In this groundbreaking book Northwestern University scholar Dar o Fern ndez Morera tells the full story of Islamic Spain The Myth of the Andalusian Paradise shines light on hidden history by drawing on an abundance of primary sources that scholars have ignored as well as archaeological evidence only recently unearthed This supposed beacon of peaceful coexistence began of course with the Islamic Caliphate's conquest of Spain Far from a land of religious tolerance Islamic Spain was marked by religious and therefore cultural repression in all areas of life and the marginalization of Christians and other groups all this in the service of social control by autocratic rulers and a class of religious authorities The Myth of the Andalusian Paradise provides a desperately needed reassessment of medieval Spain As professors politicians and pundits continue to celebrate Islamic Spain for its multiculturalism and diversity Fern ndez Morera sets the historical record straight showing that a politically useful myth is a myth nonetheless Encyclopedia of Women in World Religions Susan de-Gaia, 2018-11-16 This reference offers reliable knowledge about women s diverse faith practices throughout history and prehistory and across cultures Across the span of human history women have participated in world building and life sustaining cultural creativity making enormous contributions to religion and spirituality In the contemporary period women have achieved greater equality with more educational opportunities female role models in public life and opportunities for religious expression than ever before Contemporaneously with this increased visibility women are actively and energetically engaging with religion for themselves and for their communities Drawing on the expertise of a range of scholars this reference chronicles the religious experiences of women across time and cultures The book includes sections on major religions as well as on spirituality African religions prehistoric religions and other broad topics Each section begins with an introduction followed by reference entries on specialized subjects along with excerpts from primary source documents The entries provide numerous suggestions for further reading and the book closes with a detailed bibliography Why Muslim Women and Smartphones Karen Waltorp, 2020-07-12 Using an assemblage approach to study how Muslim women in Norrebro Denmark use their phones Karen Waltorp examines how social media complicates the divide between public and private in relation to a group of people who find this distinction of utmost significance Building on years of ethnographic fieldwork Waltorp's ethnography reflects the trust and creativity of her relationships with these women which in turn open up nuanced discussions about both the subject at hand and best practice in conducting anthropological research Combining rich ethnography with theoretical contextualization Waltorp's book alternates between ethnography and analysis to illuminate a thoroughly modern community and reveals the capacity of image making technology to function as an infrastructure for seeing thinking and engaging in fieldwork as an anthropologists Waltorp identifies a series of important issues around anthropological approaches to new media contributing to new debates around the anthropology of automation data and self tracking Young British Muslims Sadek Hamid, 2016-12-08 Young British Muslims continue to generate strong interest in public discourse However much of this interest is framed in negative terms that tends to associate them with criminality religious extremism or terrorism Focusing instead on other aspects of being young Muslim and British this volume takes a multidisciplinary approach that seeks to normalise the subjects and focus on their everyday lived realities Structured into three sections the collection begins by contextualising the study of young British Muslims before addressing the sensitive social issues highlighted in the media and finally focusing on a variety of case studies which investigate the previously unexplored lived experiences of these young people With contributions from scholars of religion media and criminology as well as current and former practitioners within vouth and social work contexts Young British Muslims Between Rhetoric and Realities will appeal to scholars who have an interest in the fastest growing most profiled minority demographic in the UK Gender and Women's Studies, Second Edition Margaret Hobbs, Carla Rice, 2018-05-03 Now in its second edition Gender and Women's Studies Critical Terrain provides students with an essential introduction to key issues approaches and concerns of the field This comprehensive anthology celebrates a diversity of influential feminist thought on a broad range of topics using analyses sensitive to the intersections of gender race class ability age and sexuality Featuring both contemporary and classic pieces the carefully selected and edited readings centre Indigenous racialized disabled and queer voices With over sixty percent new content this thoroughly updated second edition contains infographics original activist artwork and a new section on gender migration and citizenship The editors have also added chapters on issues surrounding sex work as labour the politics of veiling trans and queer identities Indigenous sovereignty decolonization masculinity online activism and contemporary social justice movements including Black Lives Matter and Idle No More The multidisciplinary focus and the unique combination of
