Children With Disabilities In America Children With Disabilities In America:

Children with Disabilities in America Philip L. Safford, Elizabeth J. Safford, 2005-12-30 Images of disabled children are found throughout well known works of literature film and even opera Their characters range from sweet to brave to tragic Disabled children are also a part of the reality of life either in personal ways or as poster girls and boys for drives and causes Behind these images is a historical presence that has been created by the societies in which these children live and have lived This work examines current knowledge about children s experience of physical cognitive and emotional behavioral impairments from the Colonial period to the present while revealing the social constructions of both disability and childhood throughout American history Just as disability has been advanced as an essential consideration in other historical inquiries such as that of gender this is a work intended to demonstrate the critical role of disability with respect to the history of childhood

Arab American Children with Disabilities Jamal M. Al Khatib, 2016-07-22 Despite a proliferation of special education literature on racial minorities over the past three decades research and writing on Arab American children with disabilities remain remarkably sparse This book fills that gap by promoting culturally appropriate services for Arab American children with disabilities Special education and service providers in the U S including school psychologists rehabilitation counselors and social workers are increasingly likely to work with Arab Americans with disabilities By focusing on this marginalized minority population Al Khatib provides much needed context and direction for service providers and researchers working with the Arab American community Offering an overview of special education and the rights guaranteed under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act IDEA this book also helps Arab American families understand the special education process and advocate for their children
