China Through The Looking Glass:

China Andrew Bolton, John Galliano, Adam Geczy, Maxwell K. Hearn, Homa King, Harold Koda, Mei Mei Rado, Wong Kar Wai, 2015-05-04 For centuries China has fueled the creative imagination and inspired fashion This stunning publication explores the influence of Chinese art film and aesthetics on international fashion designers including Christian Dior Jean Paul Gaultier Karl Lagerfeld Alexander McQueen and Yves Saint Laurent Through the Looking Glass Paul French, 2009-05-01 The convulsive history of foreign journalists in China starts with newspapers printed in the European factories of Canton in the 1820s It also starts with a duel between two editors over the future of China and ends with a fistfight in Shanghai over the revolution This book tells the story of China's foreign journalists China, 2015 For centuries China's export arts jade silks porcelains and more recently cinema have fuelled Western fantasies of an exotic East and served as enduring sources of inspiration for fashion This stunning publication explores the influence of Chinese aesthetics on designers including Giorgio Armani Christian Dior Jean Paul Gaultier Karl Lagerfeld Ralph Lauren Alexander McQueen and Yves Saint Laurent Drawing upon Chinese decorative arts cinema and costume notably imperial court robes the close fitting cheongsam and the unisex Mao suit their designs are fantastical pastiches of anachronistic motifs As in the game of telephone which the British call Chinese whispers the process of cultural translation transforms the source material into ingeniously original fashions that are products solely of the designers' imaginations Exhibition The Metropolitan Museum of Art New York USA 07 05 16 08 2015 Through the Looking Glass Anu Sharma, 2022-01-31 This book analyses Iran's foreign policy in order to better assess its relations with India and the factors that are propelling the two nations closer In a region susceptible to power plays how far can India Iran partnership go This book will be of interest to scholars of International Relations Iranian Politics and Iranian Foreign Policy Please note Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka Above sea Jenny Lin, 2018-11-30 Shanghai long known as mainland China's most cosmopolitan city is today a global cultural capital This book offers the first in depth examination of contemporary Shanghai based art and design from state sponsored exhibitions to fashionable cultural complexes to cutting edge films and installations Informed by years of in situ research the book looks beyond contemporary art's global hype to reveal the socio political tensions accompanying Shanghai's transitions from semi colonial capitalism to Maoist socialism to Communist Party sponsored capitalism Case studies reveal how Shanghai's global aesthetic constructs glamorising artifices that mask the conflicts between vying notions of foreign influenced modernity and anti colonialist nationalism as well as the city's repressed socialist past and its consumerist present Documenting the Visual Arts Roger Hallas, 2019-12-06 Bringing together an international range of scholars as well as filmmakers and curators this book explores the rich variety in form and content of the contemporary art documentary Since their emergence in the late 1940s as a distinct genre documentaries about the visual arts have made significant contributions to art education public television and documentary filmmaking yet they have received little scholarly attention from either art history or film studies Documenting the Visual Arts brings that attention to the fore Whether considering documentaries about painting sculpture photography performance art site specific installation or fashion the chapters of this book engage with the key question of intermediality how film can reframe other visual arts through its specific audio visual qualities in order to generate new ways of understanding those arts The essays illuminate furthermore how art documentaries raise some of the most critical issues of the contemporary global art world specifically the discourse of the artist the dynamics of documentation and the visuality of the museum Contributors discuss documentaries by filmmakers such as Frederick Wiseman Lynn Hershman Leeson Jia Zhangke and Trisha Ziff and about artists such as Michael Heizer Ai Weiwei Do Ho Suh and Marina Abramovi This collection of new international and interdisciplinary scholarship on visual art documentaries is ideal for students and scholars of visual arts and filmmaking as well as art history arts education and media studies

Ornamentalism Anne Anlin Cheng, 2019 Ornamentalism offers one of the first sustained and original theories of Asiatic femininity Examining ornamentality in lieu of Orientalism as a way to understand the representation circulation and ontology of Asiatic femininity this study extends our vocabulary about the woman of color beyond the usual platitudes about objectification

Fashion and Beauty in the Time of Asia S. Heijin Lee, Christina H. Moon, Thuy Linh Nguyen Tu, 2019-06-03 How transnational modernity is taking shape in and in relation to Asia Fashion and Beauty in the Time of Asia considers the role of bodily aesthetics in the shaping of Asian modernities and the formation of the so called Asian Century S Heijin Lee Christina H Moon and Thuy Linh Nguyen Tu train our eyes on sites as far flung varied and intimate as Guangzhou and Los Angeles Saigon and Seoul New York and Toronto They map the transregional connections ever evolving aspirations and sensibilities and new worlds and life paths forged through engagements with fashion and beauty Contributors consider American influence on plastic surgery in Korea Vietnamese debates about the fashionable and the costs and commitments demanded of those who make and wear fast fashion from Chinese garment workers to Nepalese nail technicians in New York who are mandated to dress fashionably In doing so this interdisciplinary anthology moves beyond common characterizations of Asians and the Asian diaspora as simply abject laborers or frenzied consumers analyzing who the modern Asian subject is now what they wear and how they work move eat and shop

The International Politics of Fashion Andreas Behnke, 2016-07-07 This book seeks to address and fill a puzzling omission in contemporary critical IR scholarship Following on from the aesthetic turn in IR critical and postmodern IR has produced an impressive array of studies into movies literature music and art and the way these media produce mediate and represent international politics By contrast the proponents of the aesthetic turn have overlooked fashion as a source of knowledge about global politics Yet stories about the political role of fashion abound in the news media Margaret Thatcher used dress to define her political image and more recently the fascination with Michelle Obama Carla Bruni and other women in similar positions and the discussions about the appropriateness of their wardrobes regularly makes the news

In Sudan a female writer and activist successfully challenged the government over her right to wear trousers in public and in Europe the debate on women's headscarves has politicised a garment item and turned it into a symbol of fundamentalism and oppression. In response the contributors to this book investigate the politics of fashion from a variety of perspectives addressing theoretical as well as empirical issues establishing the critical study of fashion and its protagonists as a central contribution to the aesthetic turn in international politics. The politics of fashion go beyond these examples of the uses and abuses of textiles and fabrics for political purposes extending into its very grammar and vocabulary. This book will be a unique contribution to the field and will be of interest to students and scholars of international relations, critical IR theory and popular culture and world politics.

Reverse Design Ana Cristina Broega, Joana Cunha, Helder Carvalho, Manuel Blanco, Guillermo García-Badell, Diana Gómez-Chacón, 2018-09-25. The collaboration between the Textile Department of the University of Minho and the Brazilian Association of Studies and Research ABEPEM has led to an international platform for the exchange of research in the field of Fashion and Design CIMODE. This platform is designed as a biennial congress that takes place in different European and Latin American countries with the co-organization of another university in each location. The current edition was jointly organized by the University of Minho and the Centro Superior de Diseño de Moda CSDMM Universidad Politécnica de Madrid. CIMODE's mission is to explore fashion and design from a social, cultural, psychological and communication perspective and to bring together different approaches and perceptions of practice, education and the culture of design and fashion. Through an interdisciplinary dialogue and intercultural perspective, CIMODE wants to generate and present new scenarios about the present and future of fashion and design. DISEÑO AL REVÉS: BACKWARD DESIGN was the central theme of the 4th CIMODE Madrid Spain 21-23 May 2018, which produced a highly topical and relevant number of academic publications presented in this book.

Threads of globalization Melia Belli Bose, 2024-02-06. Threads of globalization is an interdisciplinary volume that brings fashion-specific garments, motifs, materials and methods of production into dialogue with gender and identity in various cultures throughout Asia during the long twentieth century. It examines how the shift from artisanal production to fast fashion over the past 150 years has devalued women's textile labour and how skilled textile garment makers and the organizations that support them are preserving and reviving heritage traditions. It also offers examples of how socially engaged artists in Asia and the diaspora use their work to criticize labour and environmental abuses in the global fashion industry.

Not Your China Doll Katie Gee Salisbury, 2024-03-12. Enlightening, nuanced and honest. Lisa See set against the glittering backdrop of Los Angeles during the gin-soaked Jazz Age and the rise of Hollywood, this debut book celebrates Anna May Wong, the first Asian American movie star, to bring an unsung heroine to light and reclaim her place in cinema history. One of Entertainment Weekly's Books We Are Excited to Read in 2024. Before Constance Wu, Sandra Oh, Awkwafina or Lucy Liu, there was Anna May Wong. In her time, she was a legendary beauty, witty conversationalist and fashion icon. Plucked from her family's laundry business in Los Angeles Anna May Wong rose to stardom in Douglas Fairbanks's blockbuster The Thief of Bagdad Fans and the press clamored to see more of this unlikely actress but when Hollywood repeatedly cast her in stereotypical roles she headed abroad in protest Anna May starred in acclaimed films in Berlin Paris and London She dazzled royalty and heads of state across several nations leaving trails of suitors in her wake She returned to challenge Hollywood at its own game by speaking out about the industry's blatant racism She used her new stature to move away from her typecasting as the China doll or dragon lady and worked to reshape Asian American representation in film Filled with stories of capricious directors and admiring costars glamorous parties and far flung love affairs Not Your China Doll showcases the vibrant radical life of a groundbreaking artist

Democratization Through the Looking-glass Peter Burnell, 2018-02-06 In Democratization through the Looking Glass Peter Burnell provides a revealing image of how our knowledge and understanding of democratization could be improved by viewing the topic through a more multi disciplinary lens and from the perspective of more broadly based comparative analyses Burnell and his contributors encourage readers to both look and think outside of the box beyond the limited parameters that usually shape the study of democratization The goal of Democratization through the Looking Glass is to pursue a more comprehensive understanding of democratization as a process taking many forms rather than just as a political phenomenon With a viewpoint from a wider multi disciplinary stance and broader global geopolitical knowledge base the contributors hope to get readers to better recognize and address gaps in the political science literature on the subject of democratization The contributors seek to do this by specifically explaining what democratization is while also making sense of the wide variety of experiences undergone by different societies at different times going through this very process anticipating the wider effects of democratization's consequences for all human conditions at all levels and critically assessing strategies for extending and deepening democracy by improving its positive qualities and chances of being sustained in societies into which it is introduced This volume takes readers in the direction of predicting and foretelling the future of democracy and democratization with greater accuracy In all Democratization through the Looking Glass provides a wide ranging review of themes issues and topics concisely written by leading experts in their fields while advancing its case for more inclusive comparative studies covering Europe and North America as well as developing regions showing precisely how multi disciplinary approaches enhance a global vision and understanding of democratization

The Kingdom of Surfaces Sally Wen Mao, 2023-08-01 FINALIST FOR THE 2023 MAYA ANGELOU BOOK AWARD A virtuosic new poetry collection from Sally Wen Mao a consistently inspiring and exciting voice Morgan Parker In The Kingdom of Surfaces award winning poet Sally Wen Mao examines art and history especially the provenance of objects such as porcelain silk and pearls to frame an important conversation on beauty empire commodification and violence In lyric poems and wide ranging sequences Mao interrogates gendered expressions such as the contemporary leftover women which denotes unmarried women and the historical castle toppler a term used to describe a concubine whose beauty ruins an emperor and his empire These poems also explore the permeability of object and subject through the history of Chinese women in America labor practices around the silk loom and the ongoing violence against Asian people during the COVID 19 pandemic At its heart The Kingdom of Surfaces imagines the poet wandering into a Western fantasy which covets imitates and appropriates Chinese aesthetics via Chinamania and the nineteenth century Aesthetic movement while perpetuating state violence upon actual lives The title poem is a speculative recasting of Through the Looking Glass set in a surreal topsy turvy version of the China themed 2015 Metropolitan Museum of Art Gala The Kingdom of Surfaces is a brilliantly conceived call for those who recognize the horrors of American exceptionalism to topple the empire that values capital over lives and power over liberation

The Politics of Translation in International Relations Zeynep Gulsah Capan,Filipe dos Reis,Maj Grasten,2021-01-09 This volume concerns the role and nature of translation in global politics Through the establishment of trade routes the encounter with the New World and the circulation of concepts and norms across global space meaning making and social connections have unfolded through practices of translating While translation is core to international relations it has been relatively neglected in the discipline of International Relations The Politics of Translation in International Relations remedies this neglect to suggest an understanding of translation that transcends language to encompass a broad range of recurrent social and political practices The volume provides a wide variety of case studies including financial regulation gender training programs and grassroot movements Contributors situate the politics of translation in the theoretical and methodological landscape of International Relations encompassing feminist theory de and post colonial theory hermeneutics post structuralism critical constructivism semiotics conceptual history actor network theory and translation studies The Politics of Translation in International Relations furthers and intensifies a cross disciplinary dialogue on how translation makes international relations

Elites, Nonelites, and Power Rebecca Jean Emigh,Dylan Riley,2024-11-28 Bringing together cutting edge multidisciplinary papers that weigh in on central issues of the world and social science the collection consider power elites and nonelites in a new inclusive way drawing in researchers who deal with topics central to elite theory but who might not be represented in more classic statements of it

The Gate to China Michael Sheridan,2021-09-21 An epic history of the rise of China and the fall of Hong Kong to authoritarian rule Essential reading for anyone wishing to deal with China or to understand the world in which we live The rise of China and the fall of Hong Kong to authoritarian rule are told with unique insight in this new history by Michael Sheridan drawing on documents from archives in China and the West interviews with key figures and eyewitness reporting over three decades The story takes the reader from the earliest days of trade through the Opium Wars of the nineteenth century to the age of globalisation the handover of Hong Kong from Britain to China the fight for democracy on the city s streets and the ultimate victory of the Chinese Communist Party As the West seeks a new China policy we learn from private papers how Margaret Thatcher anguished over the fate of Hong Kong sought secret American briefings on how to deal with Beijing and put her trust in a spymaster who was tormented by his own doubts The Chinese version of history so often unheard emerges from memoirs and documents many of them entirely new to the foreign reader which reveal China's negotiating tactics The voices of Hong Kong people eloquent smart and bold speak compellingly here at every turn The Gate to China tells how Hong Kong was the gate to China as it reformed its economy and changed the world emerging to challenge the West with a new order that raised fundamental questions about freedom identity and progress Told through real human stories and a gripping narrative for the general reader it is also critical reading for all who study trade or deal with China
