Renmin Chinese Law Review Jichun Shi, 2015-05-29 Renmin Chinese Law Review Volume 3 is the third work in a series of annual volumes on contemporary Chinese law which bring together the work of recognized scholars from China offering a window on current legal research in China This book reflects t

Terrorism and Counter-Terrorism in China Michael Clarke, 2018-10-01 China s problem with terrorism has historically been considered an outgrowth of Beijing s efforts to integrate the Xinjiang Uyghur Autonomous Region into the People s Republic of China Since the end of the Cold War however this internal dynamic has converged with an evolving external environment stimulating the development of linkages between Uyghur separatism and terrorism and broader terrorist movements in Central Asia South Asia and the Middle East This book brings together some of the leading experts on Chinese terrorism offering the first systematic scholarly assessment of the country s approaches to this threat Four areas of investigation are looked at the scope and nature of terrorism in China and its connection with developments in other regions the development of legislative measures to combat terrorism the institutional evolution of China s counter terrorism bureaucracy and Beijing s counter terrorism cooperation with international partners

State Participation in International Treaty Regimes Srini Sitaraman, 2016-04-01 Why do some states resist entering into international treaty regimes while others demonstrate eagerness to participate Although factors such as degree of pressure exerted by international actors ambiguity in the treaty language and a regime s lack of teeth enforcement and sanctioning mechanism do affect participation this book investigates whether internal domestic factors may ultimately be responsible for influencing why a state resists or joins international treaty regimes The volume draws on United Nations treaty ratification data from three different issue areas arms control environment and human rights to study the participation patterns of democracies and non democracies in international treaty regimes Incorporating two in depth case studies on the United States and China the author traces the impact of domestic institutional structure state capacity and internal social norms on state decisions to resist or participate

Harvard East Asian Monographs , 1971 Research Handbook on UN Sanctions and International Law Larissa van den Herik, 2017-07-28 The 1990s have been labeled the Sanctions Decade since they witnessed an unprecedented intensification of the use of collective non military enforcement measures and in particular sanctions by the post Cold War reactivated Security Council This Research Handbook studies the current practice of UN sanctions in international law their interrelationship with other regimes and substantive areas of law as well as issues arising from their implementation and application at the domestic level

The Book of Lord Shang Yang Shang, 2019-03-19 Compiled in China in the fourth third centuries BCE The Book of Lord Shang argues for a new powerful government to rule over society and turn every man into a diligent tiller and valiant soldier Creating a rich state and a strong army will be the first step toward unification of All under Heaven These ideas served the state of Qin that eventually created the first imperial polity on Chinese soil In Yuri Pines s translation The Book of Lord Shang s intellectual boldness and surprisingly modern looking ideas shine through underscoring the text's vibrant contribution to global political thought The Book of Lord Shang is attributed to the statesman and theorist Shang Yang and his followers It epitomizes the ideology of China's so called Legalist School of thought In the ninety years since the work's previous translation major breakthroughs in studies of the book's dating and context have recast our understanding of its messages Pines applies these advances to a whole new reading of the text's content and function in the sociopolitical life of its times and subsequent centuries This abridged and revised edition of Pines's annotated translation is ideal for newcomers to the book while also guiding early Chinese scholars and comparatists It highlights the text's practical success and its influence on political thought and political practice in traditional and modern China The New Werner Twentieth Century Edition of the Encyclopaedia Britannica, 1906 Remaking Citizenship in Hong Kong Agnes S. Ku, Ngai Pun, 2011-02-22 This book provides a detailed comparative account of the development of citizenship and civil society in Hong Kong from its time as a British colony to its current status as a special autonomous region of China Subject Guide to Books in Print, 2001 Asia, 1921 Transformation of India's Foreign Policy Santishree Dhulipudi Pandit, 2024-11-15 Analysing the trajectory of Indian foreign policy through Prime Minister Narendra Modi's vision this book examines issues related to India's growing profile at global multilateral forums economy and trade soft power diaspora and the intersection between foreign policy and national security The subject matter in this book assesses Indian foreign policy by covering seven broad domains security multilateralism economy and trade diaspora climate change science and technology and soft power In addition it also examines the notable achievements of Indian foreign policy over the past decade describes Prime Minister Modi's worldview and how it has been implemented analyses the changes Modi has brought to Indian foreign policy behaviour and conduct studies the evolution of Indian foreign policy over the last decade and explores the new opportunities that could be potentially exploited in the future Print edition not for sale in South Asia India Sri Lanka Nepal Bangladesh Pakistan and Bhutan Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists, 1969-02 The Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists is the premier public resource on scientific and technological developments that impact global security Founded by Manhattan Project Scientists the Bulletin's iconic Doomsday Clock stimulates solutions for a safer world Rehumanizing Muslim Subjectivities Aroosa Kanwal, 2024-01-31 Rehumanizing Muslim Subjectivities Postcolonial Geographies Postcolonial Ethics is a timely and urgent monograph allowing us to imagine what it feels like to be the victim of genocide abuse dehumanization torture and violence something which many Muslims in Palestine Kashmir Pakistan Myanmar Syria Iraq and China have to endure Most importantly the book emphasizes the continued relevance of creative literature's potential to intervene in and transform our understanding of a conceptual and political field as well as advanced technologies of power and domination The book makes a substantial theoretical contribution by drawing on wide ranging angles and dimensions of contemporary drone warfare and its related catastrophes postcolonial ethics in relation to the thanatopolitics of slow violence dehumanization and the politics of death Against the backdrop of such institutionalized and diverse acts of violence committed against Muslim communities I call the postcolonial Muslim world geographies of dehumanization The book investigates how ongoing legacies of contemporary forms of injustice and denial of subjecthood are represented staged and challenged in a range of postcolonial anglophone Muslim texts thereby questioning the idea of postcolonial ethics One of the selling points of this book is the chapters on fictional representations by Muslim Myanmar and Uyghur writers as to the best of my knowledge no critical work or single authored book is available on Myanmar and Uyghur literature to date The Palgrave Handbook of Cold War Literature Andrew Hammond,2020-09-04

This book offers a comprehensive guide to global literary engagement with the Cold War Eschewing the common focus on national cultures the collection defines Cold War literature as an international current focused on the military and ideological conflicts of the age and characterised by styles and approaches that transcended national borders Drawing on specialists from across the world the volume analyses the period s fiction poetry drama and autobiographical writings in three sections dominant concerns socialism decolonisation nuclearism propaganda censorship espionage common genres postmodernism socialism realism dystopianism migrant poetry science fiction testimonial writing and regional cultures Asia Africa Oceania Europe and the Americas In doing so the volume forms a landmark contribution to Cold War literary studies which will appeal to all those working on literature of the 1945 1989 period including specialists in comparative literature postcolonial literature contemporary literature and regional literature Foreign Policy Steve Smith,Amelia Hadfield,Timothy

Dunne,2008 This major new textbook introduces students to the dynamic and evolving field of foreign policy The book opens with a consideration of different theoretical and historical perspectives it then focuses on a range of actors and the goals they seek to advance and it ends with a series of case studies involving issues and crises relating to a wide range of different countries Foreign Policy Theories Actors Cases is timely given the growing significance of foreign policy in the post 9 11 world It will be essential reading for all students new to foreign policy The book is accompanied by an Online Resource Centre Student resources TimelineWeb linksFlashcard glossaryInstructor resources Three case studiesPowerPoint slides

Consent Alan Reed,Michael Bohlander,Nicola Wake,Emma Smith,2016-10-14 This volume presents a leading contribution to the substantive arena relating to consent in the criminal law In broad terms the ambit of legally valid consent in extant law is contestable and opaque and reveals significant problems in adoption of consistent approaches to doctrinal and theoretical underpinnings of consent This book seeks to provide a logical template to focus the debate The overall concept addresses three specific elements within this arena embracing an overarching synergy between them This edifice engages in an examination of UK provisions with specialist contributions on Irish and Scottish law and in contrasting these provisions against alternative domestic jurisdictions as well as comparative contributions addressing a particularised research grid for consent The comparative chapters provide a wider background of how other legal systems treat a variety of specialised issues relating to consent in the context of the criminal law The debate in relation to consent principles continues for academics practitioners and within the criminal justice system Having expert descriptions of the wider issues surrounding the particular discussion and of other legal systems approaches serves to stimulate and inform that debate This collection will be a major source of reference for future discussion Foundations of Homeland Security Martin J.
