Chinese Tattoo Art Traditional And Modern Styles:

Chinese tattoo art Roxanne Yang, Fino Huang, 2011 Text in English French Chinese German This is the world's first comprehensive documentation of the art of tattooing in China and Taiwan Its fascinating images exemplify the artful diversity of Chinese tattooing and its common motifs which are largely inspired by ancient myths and legends The meanings behind many of these motifs are explored in an illustrated chapter that delves into their symbolism history and mythology Chinese tattoo artists have outstandingly developed their own unique style and expression Many of the tattooists presented in the book are also gifted draftsmen their dynamic sketches of dragons tigers lotus blossoms serpents demons and so much more are inspiring The Chinese culture favours bright vibrant cheerful colours This is also reflected in the masterful artworks by these tattooists The preference for particular colours in China gives these creations their own special appeal But Oriental tattooists are also masters of the black and grey style which is often used in China as it is in the West for sinister visions of horror motifs as well as portraits This is a weighty volume offering a grand overview and profound insight into tattooing in China and Taiwan enabling professional tattooists around the world to expand their knowledge and spectrums of motifs and inspiring future tattoos of collectors

Ink Art Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 2013 Featuring 70 works in various media paintings calligraphy photographs woodblock prints video and sculpture that were created during the past three decades Ink Art Past as Present in Contemporary China will demonstrate how China's ancient pattern of seeking cultural renewal through the reinterpretation of past models remains a viable creative path Although all of the artists have transformed their sources through new modes of expression visitors will recognize thematic aesthetic or technical attributes in their creations that have meaningful links to China's artistic past The exhibition will be organized thematically into four parts and will include such highlights as Xu Bing's dramatic Book from the Sky ca 1988 an installation that will fill an entire gallery Family Tree 2000 a set of vivid photographs documenting a performance by Zhang Huan in which his facial features and his identity are obscured gradually by physiognomic texts that are inscribed directly onto his face and Map of China 2006 by Ai Weiwei which is constructed entirely of wood salvaged from demolished Qing dynasty temples Tattoos in Modern Society Janey Levy, 2008-08-15 This title looks at tattooing today and how this once traditional cultural practice has become mainstream both in the United States and worldwide thepurplebook(R), 2007 edition Hillary
