Shoe Shop Marie-Hélène Gutberlet, Cara Snyman, 2012 Shoe Shop is an anthology and an experiment in imagining different paths speaking in different tongues on Africa movement public art migration beauty considering an innate humanity The book has been shaped to create a space for transformation and fluidity for care and for the sole pleasure of movement It is a site for loitering waiting but also for doubt and reserving a space to enquire Publisher's website A Guide to Twentieth Century Literature in English Harry Blamires, 2021-06-23 First published in 1983 A Guide to Twentieth Century Literature in English is a detailed and comprehensive guide containing over 500 entries on individual writers from countries including Africa Australia Canada the Caribbean India Ireland New Zealand Pakistan Sri Lanka and the UK The book contains substantial articles relating to major novelists poets and dramatists of the age as well as a wealth of information on the work of lesser known writers and the part they have played in cultural history It focuses in detail on the character and quality of the literature itself highlighting what is distinctive in the work of the writers being discussed and providing key biographical and contextual details A Guide to Twentieth Century Literature in English is ideal for those with an interest in the twentieth century literary scene and the history of literature more broadly The Amateur Saikat Majumdar, 2024-06-13 Can ignorance mistake failure shape ways of reading or do they disrupt its proper practice What happens when the authority of modern education and culture places canonical western texts in the way of readers who live in worlds remote from their material contexts The Amateur reads patterns of autodidacticism and intellectual self formation under systems of colonial education that are variously repressive exclusionary broken or narrowly instrumental It outlines the development of a wide range of writers activists and thinkers whose failed relationships with institutions of knowledge curiously enabled their later success as popular intellectuals Bringing current debates around reading together with the history of higher education in the postcolony it focuses on three primary locations Black intellectuals in apartheid era South Africa in the aftermath of the Bantu Education Act of 1953 20th century Caribbean writers who sought to understand the disembodied legacy of the diaspora through accidental encounters with literature and history and writers from late colonial and postcolonial India whose disruptive self formation departed from the administrative project of professionalizing a particular kind of colonial subject Celebrating flawed and accidental forms of reading writing and learning along the periphery of the historical British Empire Majumdar reveals an unexpected account of the humanities in the postcolony We Make Each Other Beautiful Yxta Maya Murray, 2024-06-15 We Make Each Other Beautiful focuses on woman of color and queer of color artists and artist collectives who engage in direct political action as a part of their art practice Defined by public protest rule breaking rebellion and resistance to governmental and institutional abuse direct action activism draws on the aims radical spirit and tactics of the civil rights and feminist movements and on the struggles for disability rights queer rights and immigrant rights to seek legal and social change Yxta Maya Murray traces the development of activism as a practice from the Harlem Renaissance to Yoko Ono Judy Baca and Marsha P Johnson She also studies its role in transforming law and society We Make Each Other Beautiful profiles the work and lives of four contemporary artists Carrie Mae Weems Young Joon Kwak Tanya Agui Iga and Imani Jacqueline Brown and the artist collective Drawn Together combining new oral histories with sharp analyses of how their diverse and expansive artistic practices bear important aesthetic and politico-legal meanings that address a wide range of injustices

Emerging Traditions Vicki Briault Manus, 2012-07-10 The monograph explores the linguistic impact of the colonial and postcolonial situations in South Africa on language policy on literary production and especially on the stylistics of fiction by indigenous South Africans writing in English A secondary concern is to investigate the present place of English in the multilingual spectrum of South African languages and to see how this worldly English relates to Global English in the South African context The introduction presents a socio-linguistic overview of South Africa from pre-historic times until the present including language planning policies during and after the colonial era and a cursory review of how the difficulties encountered in implementing the Language Plan provided for by the new South African constitution impinge on the development of black South African English Six chapters track the course of English in South Africa since the arrival of the British in 1795 considered from the point of view of the indigenous African population The study focuses on ways in which indigenous authors indigenize their writing innovating and subverting stylistic conventions including those of African orature in order to bend language and genre towards their own culture and objectives Each chapter corresponds to a briefly outlined historical period that is largely reflected in linguistic and literary developments A small number of significant works for each period are discussed one of which is selected for a case study at the end of each chapter where it is subjected to detailed stylistic analysis and appraised for the degree of indigenization or other linguistic or socio-historic influences on style The methodology adopted is a linguistic approach to stylistics focusing on indigenization of English inspired by the work of Chantal Zabus in her book The African Palimpsest Indigenization of Language in the West African Europhone Novel 2007

1991 The conclusion reappraises the original hypothesis that the specific characteristi

Theatres of Struggle and the End of Apartheid Belinda Bozzoli, 2019-06-01 This is a compelling study of the origins and trajectory of a legendary black uprising against apartheid the Alexandra Rebellion of 1986 Using insights from the literature on collective action and social movements it delves deep into the rebellion's inner workings It examines how the residents of Alexandra a poverty-stricken segregated township in Johannesburg manipulated and overturned the meanings of space time and power in their sequestered world how they used political theatre to convey stage and dramatise their struggle and how young and old residents generated differing ideologies and tactics giving rise to a distinct form of generational politics Theatres of Struggle
