Call of the American Wild Guy Grieve, 2015-09-01 A wild adventure Independent A man an axe and a dog named Fuzzy let the adventure begin Trapped in a job he hated and up to his neck in debt Guy Grieve's life was going nowhere But with a stroke of luck his dream of escaping it all to live in the remote Alaskan tundra suddenly came true Miles from the nearest human being and armed with only the most basic equipment Guy built a log cabin from scratch and began carving a life for himself through fishing hunting and diligently avoiding bears Packed with adventure humor and insight this is the gripping story of an ordinary man learning the ways of the wild

Wild Coast John Gimlette, 2011-06-21 Guyana Suriname and French Guiana are among the least known places in South America nine hundred miles of muddy coastline giving way to a forest so dense that even today there are virtually no roads through it a string of rickety coastal towns situated between the mouths of the Orinoco and Amazon Rivers where living is so difficult that as many Guianese live abroad as in their homelands an interior of watery green anarchy where border disputes are often based on ancient Elizabethan maps where flora and fauna are still being discovered where thousands of rivers remain mostly impassable And under the lens of John Gimlette brilliantly offbeat irreverent and canny these three small countries are among the most wildly intriguing places on earth On an expedition that will last three months he takes us deep into a remarkable world of swamp and jungle from the hideouts of runaway slaves to the vegetation strangled remnants of penal colonies and forts from Little Paris to a settlement built around a satellite launch pad He recounts the complicated often surprisingly bloody history of the region including the infamous 1978 cult suicide at Jonestown and introduces us to its inhabitants from the world s largest ants to fluorescent purple frogs to head crushing jaguars from indigenous tribes who still live by sorcery to descendants of African slaves Dutch conquerors Hmong refugees Irish adventurers and Scottish outlaws from high tech pirates to hapless pioneers for whom this stunning strangely beautiful world a sort of X rated Garden of Eden has become home by choice or by force In Wild Coast John Gimlette guides us through a fabulously entertaining eye opening and sometimes jaw dropping journey

St. James Guide to Fantasy Writers David Pringle, 1996 Concise discussions of the lives and principal works of writers of various forms of fantasy including heroic fantasy sword and sorcery humorous fantasy adult fairy tales and fables and children s fantasies still popular with adults Written by subject experts      Wild Horses, Wild Wolves Maureen Enns, 2013-06-03 Established in 1967 the Ghost River Wilderness Area located along the eastern slopes of the Rocky Mountains in southern Alberta is one of only three provincially designated wilderness areas in the province As such it is supposed to have the strictest form of government protection available in Canada with development motorized transportation and recreational activities either tightly controlled or altogether forbidden This has not been the case however It is in this beautiful threatened and geographically remote area that Maureen Enns a well known artist author educator and conservationist has come to discover an incredible world inhabited by wild horses one of the region s most elusive and iconic creatures Descendants of the original settlers of the area have been known to describe the wildies of the Ghost Wilderness as ugly nondescript Roman nosed and useless animals But such descriptions stand in sharp contrast to some of the athletic and beautiful stallions mares and foals that Enns has encountered Using a stunning combination of drawn and painted images conventional and remote photography using hidden cameras activated by heat or motion and traditional stories told by Peigan and Stoney Nakoda people Enns invites the reader to join her as she untangles old myths regarding Alberta s heritage and reveals some uncomfortable realities facing the province in the 21st century The wild horses wolves moose deer and bear profiled in this book have had little contact with humankind As communities developers and governments struggle to understand the impacts of conservation recreation and development in sacred places it is becoming more and more difficult to keep the wild in wild animals This project is passionate plea for understanding conservation and action
