Islamophobia Stephen Sheehi, 2010-12-03 Islamophobia The Ideological Campaign Against Muslims examines the rise of anti Muslim and anti Arab sentiments in the West following the end of the Cold War through GW Bush's War on Terror to the Age of Obama Using Operation Desert Storm as a watershed moment Stephen Sheehi examines the increased mainstreaming of Muslim bating rhetoric and explicitly racist legislation police surveillance witch trials and discriminatory policies towards Muslims in North America and abroad The book focuses on the various genres and modalities of Islamophobia from the works of rogue academics to the commentary by mainstream journalists to campaigns by political hacks and special interest groups Some featured Islamophobes are Bernard Lewis Fareed Zakaria Thomas Friedman David Horowitz Ayaan Hirsi Ali Irshad Manji George W Bush Dick Cheney John McCain Hilary Clinton and Barack Obama Their theories and opinions operate on an assumption that Muslims particularly Arab Muslims suffer from particular cultural lacuna that prevent their cultures from progress democracy and human rights While the assertion originated in the colonial era Sheehi demonstrates that it was refurbished as a viable explanation for Muslim resistance to economic and cultural globalization during the Clinton era. Moreover, the theory was honed into the empirical basis for an interventionist foreign policy and propaganda campaign during the Bush regime and continues to underlie Barack Obama's new internationalism. If the assertions of media pundits and rogue academics became the basis for White House foreign policy, Sheehi also demonstrates how they were translated into a sustained domestic policy of racial profiling and Muslim baiting by agencies from Homeland Security to the Department of Justice. Furthermore, Sheehi examines the collusion between non-governmental agencies, activist groups and lobbies and local state and federal agencies to suppress political speech on US campuses critical of racial profiling, US foreign policy in the Middle East and Israel. While much of the direct violence against Muslims on American streets, shops and campuses has subsided, Islamophobia runs throughout the Obama administration. Sheehi therefore concludes that Muslim and Arab hating emanate from all corners of the American political and cultural spectrum, serving poignant ideological functions.

Multilingual Communications & Technology, 1997 We are All Africans Here Kristín

Loftsdóttir, 2021-12-10 Europe is often described as flooded by migrants or by Muslim others, with Western African men especially portrayed as a security risk. At the same time, the intensified mobility of privileged people in the Global North is celebrated as creating an increasingly cosmopolitan world. This book looks critically at racialization of mobility in Europe, anchoring the discussion in the aspiration of precarious migrants from Niger in Belgium and Italy. The book contextualizes their experiences within the ongoing securitization of mobility in their home country and the persistent denial of racism and colonialism that seeks to portray the innocence of Europe.

Emerging Subjectivity in the Long 19th-Century Middle East Stephan Guth, 2024-06-04 This volume revisits the long 19th century in the Middle East from the perspective of emerging subjectivity as a fundamentally new attitude of the individual vis-à-vis the World. Stephan Guth's holistic vision interprets emerging subjectivity as the key operator at the heart of the many aspects of the so-called Arabic Renaissance and corresponding movements in Turkish, like rationalism, critical analysis, political emancipation, reformism, moralism and emotionalism, but also a new language, new genres and new concepts. Guth's thoroughly philological approach demonstrates how a close reading of literary texts from the period, a cultural psychological interpretation of linguistic phenomena and an etymology-informed look into conceptual terminology can contribute to a deeper understanding of what modernisation actually meant deep inside the human beings' mind and psyche in their meeting with a rapidly changing world. Twenty essays on language, literature and key concepts reflect the author's life-long engagement with the culture of the period in question. The articles are glued together by a guiding narrative that assigns each treated aspect its place in the author's vision, which includes a global perspective.

The Lead Books of the Sacromonte and the Parchment of the Torre Turpiana: Granada, 1588-1606 Gerard A. Wieggers, P.S. Van Koningsveld, 2023-12-11 The Archive of the Sacromonte Abbey in Granada preserves a historical treasure: Arabic texts on a sheet of parchment and on numerous small tablets of lead which were discovered in Granada at the end of the sixteenth century in the tower of the old Friday Mosque and in caves of the Valparaíso hill from then on called Sacromonte They became the object of heated discussions in Europe and were condemned by the Pope in 1682 The texts are among the very last literary productions of the Moriscos the Andalusí Muslims many of whom continued to practice Islam in secret until their expulsion from Spain between 1609 and 1614 With the permission of the archbishop of Granada we offer for the first time in history a study edition translation and images of all the tablets and shed new light on the fascinating religious messages of these enigmatic texts and their authors Talking Book Topics, 2021
