Chin Na Fa Traditional Chinese Submission Grappling Techniques:

Chin Na Fa Jinsheng Liu, Jiang Zhao, 2007-07-10 First published in 1936 this work represents primary source material of ancient combat techniques designed in a time of occupation and war when the threat of lethal hand to hand combat was an ever present reality for soldiers those involved in law enforcement and very often for the ordinary citizen This is the seminal work in the field written by the form s founders Liu Jinsheng and Zhao Jiang as a training manual for the Police Academy of Zhejiang province The intent of this translation is to provide authentic historical documentation for martial arts techniques that have been modified for use today in both competition and self defense Submission grappling is a technique in which fighters use locks chokes and breaking techniques to defeat their challengers in no holds barred matches Chi Na Fa remains the most comprehensive explanation available of these Chinese grappling techniques from which derive many current techniques Renowned author and Brazilian jiu jitsu champion Tim Cartmell presents the book in a clear compelling new translation

Chinese Martial Arts: Changing Views and Practices Michael DeMarco, Since ancient times some observant people have made the revered Book of Change Yijing their lifelong study Change is the fundamental principle found in every aspect of our lives Change is the Way of the universe Confucian and Daoist texts are filled with anecdotal and philosophic discourse related to this theme There is little wonder why we find the concept of change in the diverse Chinese martial traditions This anthology presents articles from the Journal of Asian Martial Arts that are related to the theme of change This does not mean that the authors are writing solely about philosophic ideas such as yin yang taiji five phases wuxing or the eight hexagrams bagua From the content of these articles you will see how the views needs purposes and understandings of Chinese martial arts have changed over the centuries By expounding on these themes each author demonstrates how the actual practice of martial arts has changed in tandem with these fluctuating views Supported by in depth research interviews and field experience the nine articles included here offer us a view of Chinese martial arts from many angles Of course effectiveness is one of the criteria for skills that are valued as being truly martial To improve the effectiveness some leading practitioners gained insights from nature particularly from the animal kingdom Also in both ancient and modern times Chinese practitioners borrowed from other styles The concept of mixed martial arts is nothing new There have been spinoffs to the warrior arts Even centuries ago the martial arts were utilized in entertaining flowery performances as in Peking opera The variety of martial movements were certainly conducive for good health so there is a long tradition of incorporating these in exercises practices solely for health and longevity In the early twentieth century martial arts became a political tool for boosting the spirit of country vitalizing the sick man of Asia Perhaps the most notable change in Chinese martial arts can be seen in the modern sportification of it Motivated by rank trophies and money the combative elements have been forsaken in favor of competition and show Originally practical techniques have been transformed into pure acrobatics This special anthology provides an encompassing overview of the development and variety of Chinese martial arts You will come to appreciate the ancient roots and the forces that have influenced how and why these arts are practiced today

Shaolin Chin Na Fa. Art of Seizing and Grappling Liu Jin Sheng, Andrew Timofeevich, 2008-12-15 The book CHIN NA FA was written by Liu Jin Sheng in collaboration with Zhao Jiang The first edition of the book was issued in July of 1936 as a manual for the Police Academy of Zhejiang province The book was printed by the publishing house Shan Wu in Shanghai If you are in command of this technique you can sway the destiny of the enemy You can kill your enemy cause unbearable pain tear his muscles and sinews break his bones or make him unconscious for some time and completely disable him to resist Even a woman or a physically weak man who mastered this technique can curb a strong enemy This technique demands deftness and skill not brute force It is necessary to train oneself daily to make the body flexible and nimble but hardness must be hidden inside this softness Liu Jin Sheng The Police Academy of Zhejiang province 1 st of May of the 24 th year of the Chinese Republic 1935 If two outstanding fighters encountered in a combat like a tiger against a tiger the outcome of the combat depends on a measure of skill in CHIN NA He is in the process of transforming so do I closely following him Blows and grips follow continuously without a moment s respite You see an opening and needle your way into the vulnerable spot clear a passage and rush forward SHAOLIN QUAN SHU MI JUE Secret Directions for Shaolin Pugilistic Art Peking 1915
