China Counting How The West Was Lost:

China Counting A. Mackinnon, Barnaby Powell, 2009-11-04 A political and managerial brief on Chinese global power this new book puts into a modern context the Chinese opportunities created by the West's chaotic and destructive capitalism It examines China's attitudes towards the West its capacity for strategic change and its plans for expanding its global influence

Reporting China in Africa Herman Wasserman, 2016-03-31 This book discusses the growing media engagement between China and Africa from the point of view of both these regions The rapid increase in Sino African contact has led to many controversies and debates in the media often represented in simplistic terms and stereotypes that call for more in depth scholarly analysis Not only have the relationship between Africa and China made headlines in the media but the media itself has also become increasingly central in the exchanges of capital and human resources between these two regions The media has also become the terrain where China's new foreign policy takes shape in the form of soft power This volume brings together authors from Africa China the US UK and Europe to provide analysis comment and empirical evidence to deepen our understanding of how the geopolitical shift towards the emerging regions of China and Africa are playing out on media terrain The implications for transnational flows of media capital and content on journalistic approaches press freedom and normative frameworks are discussed as well as how African journalists have responded to these changes The result is a collection of perspectives that refuses simplistic conclusions about what the growing engagement between China and Africa might mean but presents a range of arguments informed by scholarly research This book was originally published as a special issue of Ecquid Novi African Journalism Studies

Margalla Papers, 2011 Chinese Mathematics History Zhi Dao, The book provides highlights on the key concepts and trends of evolution in Chinese Mathematics History as one of the series of books of China Classified Histories

Time and Ritual in Early China Thomas O. Höllmann, 2009 This is the publication of proceedings from the conference Writing Ritual and Cultural Memory in Early States which took place in Munich in November 2007 It is dedicated to the German Sinologist Herbert Franke on the occasion of his 95th birthday on September 27th of 2009 The papers contained in this book examine ways in which time and ritual mutually stimulated each other in Early China Attention is also paid to the role played by writing in encoding the calendar system and in the notation of time and how time and history were linked Most authors make use of archaeologically excavated inscriptions and try to coordinate them with received texts of Confucian classics Their philological and historical examinations lead to in depth views of the cultural complexity of early Chinese civilization as well as its non linear development Questions raised provide new perspectives and stimuli for future studies
