Year Without "Made in China" Sara Bongiorni,2010-12-28 Can an American family live without Chinese made goods A wry look at the ingenuity it takes to shun the planet s fastest growing economy Bloomberg News Journalist Bongiorni on a post Christmas day mired deep in plastic toys and electronics equipment makes up her mind to live for a year without buying any products made in China a decision spurred less by notions of idealism or fair trade though she does note troubling statistics on job loss and trade deficits than simply to see if it can be done In this more personal vein Bongiorni tells often funny occasionally humiliating stories centering around her difficulty procuring sneakers sunglasses DVD players and toys for two young children and a skeptical husband Bongiorni is a graceful self deprecating writer and her comic adventures in self imposed inconvenience cast an interesting sideways glance at the personal effects of globalism Publishers Weekly
