Modern China Xiaobing Li, 2015-11-23 Providing an indispensable resource for students educators businessmen and officials investigating the transformative experience of modern China this book provides a comprehensive summary of the culture institutions traditions and international relations that have shaped today's China In Modern China author Xiaobing Li offers a resource far beyond a conventional encyclopedia providing not only comprehensive coverage of Chinese civilization and traditions but also addressing the values issues and critical views of China As a result readers will better understand the transformative experience of the most populous country in the world and will grasp the complexity of the progress and problems behind the rise of China to a world superpower in less than 30 years Written by an author who lived in China for three decades this encyclopedia addresses 16 key topics regarding China such as its geography government social classes and ethnicities gender based identities arts media and food each followed by roughly 250 short entries related to each topic All the entries are placed within a broad sociopolitical and socioeconomic contextual framework The format and writing consistency through the book reflects a Chinese perspective and allows students to compare Chinese with Western and American views

The Rise and Decline and Rise of China MISTRA MISTRA,2015-05-10 The Rise and Decline and Rise of China Searching for an Organising Philosophy represents a new and promising approach to Africa China relations What is most impressive is that it is an encounter between African and Chinese thought but this encounter is not just a set of stale comparisons of philosophical beliefs This study places the concepts and attitudes in both China and Africa in their socio political contexts in an attempt to provide a sophisticated sensitive and usable history This attempt yields dividends especially for the primary audience of Africans as it gives a way of learning from the vast history of Chinese experience without reducing African experience to insignificance or irrelevance as has happened so often in dialogues between Africa and the West This book will be of interest to anyone from within Africa interested in engaging with China as a complex and nuanced place a place of challenge creativity and opportunity

Social Mobilisation in Post-Industrial China Jia Gao,Yuanyuan Su,2019 In recent years China has experienced intense economic development Previously a rapidly urbanising industrial economy the country has become a post industrial economy with a service sector that accounts for almost half the nation s GDP This transformation has created many socio political changes but key among them is social mobilisation This book provides a full and systematic analysis of social mobilisation in China and how its use as part of state capacity has evolved

Rise and Decline and Rise of China Ross Anthony,Kevin Bloom,Daouda Cissé,Martyn Davies,Maxime Lauzon-Lacroix,Garth le Pere,Thaddeus Metz,Richard Poplak,Gauhar Raza,Yongjun Zhao,Mapungubwe Institute for Strategic Reflection (MISTRA),2015-09-14 Running like a red thread through this book are the manifestations of Sino African relations dating back many centuries In this way The Rise and Decline and Rise of China Searching for an Organising Philosophy takes forward the work MISTRA conducted on the Mapungubwe society one of the advanced states that existed in southern Africa some 800 years ago What makes this research report unique though is that the treatment of these issues has been undertaken primarily from an African perspective
