Chinese Modern Xiaobing Tang, 2000-04-03 An analysis of the Chinese experience of modernity through the literary works films and other cultural artifacts that represent it

Revolutionary Stagecraft Tarryn Li-Min Chun, 2024-06-04 Revolutionary Stagecraft draws on a rich corpus of literary historical and technical materials to reveal a deep entanglement among technological modernization political agendas and the performing arts in modern China This unique approach to Chinese theater history combines a close look at plays themselves performance practices technical theater details and behind the scenes debates over how to make theater amid the political upheavals of China's 20th century The book begins at a pivotal moment in the 1920s when Chinese theater artists began to import use and write about modern stage equipment and ends in the 1980s when China's scientific and technological boom began By examining iconic plays and performances from the perspective of the stage technologies involved Tarryn Li Min Chun provides a fresh perspective on their composition and staging The chapters include stories on the challenges of creating imitation neon rigging up a makeshift revolving stage and representing a nuclear bomb detonating onstage In thinking about theater through technicity the author mines well studied materials such as dramatic texts and performance reviews for hidden technical details and brings to light a number of previously untapped sources such as technical journals and manuals set design renderings lighting plots and prop schematics and stage technology how to guides for amateur thespians This approach focuses on material stage technologies situating these objects equally in relation to their technical potential their human use and the social political economic and cultural forces that influence them In each of its case studies Revolutionary Stagecraft reveals the complex and at times surprising ways in which Chinese theater artists and technicians of the 20th century envisioned and enacted their own revolutions through the materiality of the theater apparatus

Reading China Against the Grain Carlos Rojas, Mei-hwa Sung, 2020-10-28 Through an analysis of a wide array of contemporary Chinese literature from inside and outside of China this volume considers some of the ways in which China and Chineseness are understood and imagined Using the central theme of the way in which literature has the potential to both reinforce and to undermine a national imaginary the volume contains chapters offering new perspectives on well known authors from Jin Yucheng to Nobel Prize winning Mo Yan as well as chapters focusing on authors rarely included in discussions of contemporary Chinese literature such as the expatriate authors Larissa Lai and Xiaolu Guo The volume is complemented by chapters covering more marginalized literary figures throughout history such as Macau born poet Yiling the Malaysian born novelist Zhang Guixing and the ethnically Korean author Kim Hak-chul Invested in issues ranging from identity and representation to translation and grammar it is one of the few publications of its kind devoting comparable attention to authors from Mainland China authors from Manchuria Macau and Taiwan and throughout the global Chinese diaspora Reading China Against the Grain Imagining Communities is a rich resource of literary criticism for students and scholars of Chinese studies sinophone studies and comparative literature

The Aesthetics of the "beyond" Jianguo Chen, 2009 This book is about an alternative mode of reading thinking and representing the intricacies of human experience in Chinese literature of the late twentieth century which the author calls the aesthetics of the beyond It investigates how contemporary Chinese writers by means of dynamic interface of literary practice and cultural philosophical considerations engage the reader in critical reflection on and aesthetic appreciation of the complexity of human conditions By studying the beyond in its various manifestations the semiotics of human embodiment the discourse of the phantasm the politics of nostalgia with regard to origin and center and the metaphysics of death in the writings of some major contemporary Chinese writers the book explores the ways in which the beyond is constructed as a new paradigm of critical thinking in literary aesthetic and philosophical terms in which its discursive strategies structural features and aesthetic possibilities are presented and in which varied literary tropes are used in an attempt to unravel human experience in all its aspects Jianguo Chen is a Professor of Chinese literature at the University of Delaware □□□□□□□□, 2001 □□□□□□, 2000 Representations, 2000 A Companion to Modern Chinese Literature Yingjin Zhang, 2015-08-07 This wide ranging Companion provides a vital overview of modern Chinese literature in different geopolitical areas from the 1840s to now It reviews major accomplishments of Chinese literary scholarship published in Chinese and English and brings attention to previously neglected important areas Offers the most thorough and concise coverage of modern Chinese literature to date drawing attention to previously neglected areas such as late Qing Sinophone and ethnic minority literature Several chapters explore literature in relation to Sinophone geopolitics regional culture urban culture visual culture print media and new media The introduction and two chapters furnish overviews of the institutional development of modern Chinese literature in Chinese and English scholarship since the mid twentieth century Contributions from leading literary scholars in mainland China and Hong Kong add their voices to international scholarship Positions, 1999 American Book Publishing Record R.R.
