LITTLE BLUE FLOWER - A Fairy Tale Love Story Anon E. Mouse, 2017-03-11 ISSN 2397 9607 Issue 361 In this 361st issue of the Baba Indaba's Children's Stories series Baba Indaba narrates the Fairy Tale LITTLE BLUE FLOWER long ago and far far away a stork swept high over the Bohemian forest It was a most important duty that had brought him from his own marshes into this mountainous region where far and wide no croak of frog could be heard In his beak he carried two little children a boy and a girl both intended for the knight who dwelt in the gloomy fortress below Smaller and smaller grew the circles made by the stork in his flight Lower and lower he sank towards the earth until at length he rested on the highest chimney of the castle But before letting the children slip down the narrow black hole he paused and looked carefully around While in the air this old castle with its round turrets glittering in the rising sun had appeared to him a most stately edifice But now when quite close the stork discovered many things that did not please him The walls were sadly out of repair there were holes in the roof whilst the courtyard was overgrown with weeds I do not like this said the stork looking thoughtfully down his long red beak This place seems to have a very bad landlord A knight who cannot keep his castle in proper repair certainly does not deserve two children I will take one away with me Which should he have now the boy or the girl thought the stork He looked once more thoughtfully down his long beak and on the two children smiling happily in their dreams I think I will give him the boy he said at length He will push his way in this wretched place better than the girl With these words he made a movement to throw the little boy down the chimney This however was not so easy as the stork had thought In their sleep the little ones had embraced each other and would not let go I have never had two such obstinate little creatures in my beak before exclaimed the stork angrily Then he began to shake them at first gently then harder and at last so roughly that the children half awoke from their dreams and looked at each other with blinking eyes After this the boy would not let go his companion and no wonder for the little girl had shown him a pair of blue eyes of such wondrous beauty that there were not many like them in the world But the stork now thoroughly angry gave the poor little fellow a kick that sent him head first down the castle chimney Now what shall I do with the other little thing said the stork thoughtfully scratching the back of his ear Ah I have it he cried the little girl had kept on blinking her eyes and the stork had also seen their beautiful blue I have it he repeated Such eyes can only belong to Norway High overhead soared the stork Powerfully his wings clove the air as he sailed away towards the north Well what happened to the babe with the beautiful blue eyes Did the stork complete the journey to Norway and was Little Blue Eyes delivered to loving family Did she grow up to become a loving mother Well many things happened some strange some fun and some serious To find the answers to these questions and others you may have you will have to download and read this story to find out BUY ANY 4 BABA INDABA CHILDREN'S STORIES FOR ONLY 1 33% of the profit from the sale of this book will be donated to charities INCLUDES LINKS TO DOWNLOAD 8 FREE STORIES Each issue also has a WHERE IN THE WORLD LOOK IT UP section where young readers are challenged to look up a place on a map somewhere in the world The place town or city is relevant to the story HINT use Google maps Baba Indaba is a fictitious Zulu storyteller who narrates children s stories from around the world Baba Indaba translates as Father of Stories
