The Routledge International Handbook of Equity and Inclusion in Education Paul Downes,Guofang Li,Lore Van Praag,Stephen Lamb,2024-05-13 Providing a cornerstone to the global debate on equity and inclusion within education this handbook explores equity issues pertaining to poverty and social class race ethnicity sociocultural sociolinguistic exclusion in education and recognises intersectionality and gender across these dimensions This carefully curated collection of essays written by international experts promotes inclusive systems in education that explicitly recognise the voices of learners who may be at risk of marginalisation exclusion or underachievement Developing a multilayered innovative conceptual framework involving spatial emotional relational and dialogical turns for education it emphasises key system points for reform including building strategic bridges between health and education for vulnerable groups and shifts in focus for initial teacher education and the wider curriculum The handbook is organised into the following key parts Theoretical Frameworks Funding Models and Structures for Equity and Inclusive Systems Exclusion and Discrimination Bridging Health and Education Agency and Empowerment Outreach and Engagement The Routledge International Handbook of Equity and Inclusion in Education will be of great value to academics operating in the areas of education psychology sociology social policy ethnography cultural studies researchers in university research centres and in policy institutes pertaining to education poverty social inclusion as well as international organisations involved with inclusion in education

The Synchronization of National Policies Pertti Alasuutari,2015-09-25 The Synchronization of National Policies shows how it is possible that there is remarkable uniformity in the policies that the nation states adopt although there is no world government Mainstream research attributes such global governance to the influence of leading countries to functional requirements created by capitalism and technological development or to international organizations This book argues that to understand how national policies are synchronized we need to realize that the global population forms a single global tribe of moderns divided into some 200 clans called nations While previous research on the world culture of moderns has focused on the diffusion of ideas this book concentrates on the active role of local actors who introduce global models and domesticate them to nation states In national policymaking actors justify new policies by international comparisons by the successes and failures of models adopted in other countries and by building and appealing to the authority of international organizations Consequently national policies are synchronized with each other Yet because of the way such domestication of global trends takes place citizens retain and reproduce the understanding that they follow a sovereign national trajectory This book will be of interest to students and scholars of sociology world culture theory globalization international relations and political science

The Routledge International Handbook of Organizational Autoethnography Andrew Herrmann,2020-07-16 For nearly 40 years researchers have been using narratives and stories to understand larger cultural issues through the lenses of their personal experiences There is an increasing recognition that autoethnographic approaches to work and organizations add to our knowledge of both personal identity and organizational scholarship By using personal narrative and autoethnographic approaches this research focuses on the working lives of individual people within the organizations for which they work This international handbook includes chapters that provide multiple overarching perspectives to organizational autoethnography including views from fields such as critical postcolonial and queer studies It also tackles specific organizational processes including organizational exits grief fandom and workplace bullying as well as highlighting the ethical implications of writing organizational research from a personal narrative approach Contributors also provide autoethnographies about the military health care and academia in addition to approaches from various subdisciplines such as marketing economics and documentary film work Contributions from the US the UK Europe and the Global South span disciplines such as organizational studies and ethnography communication studies business studies and theatre and performance to provide a comprehensive map of this wide reaching area of qualitative research This handbook will therefore be of interest to both graduate and postgraduate students as well as practicing researchers Winner of the 2021 National Communication Association Ethnography Division Best Book Award Winner of the 2021 Distinguished Book on Business Communication Award Association for Business Communication The Wiley Handbook of Global Educational Reform Kenneth J. Saltman, Alexander J. Means, 2018-08-30 The Wiley Handbook of Global Educational Reform examines educational reform from a global perspective Comprised of approximately 25 original and specially commissioned essays which together interrogate educational reform from a critical global and transnational perspective this volume explores a range of topics and themes that fully investigate global convergences in educational reform policies ideologies and practices The Handbook probes the history ideology organization and institutional foundations of global educational reform movements actors institutions and agendas and local national and global education reform trends It further examines the new managerialism in global educational reform including the standardization of national systems of educational governance curriculum teaching and learning through the rise of new systems of privatization accountability audit big data learning analytics biometrics and new technology driven adaptive learning models Finally it takes on the subjective and intersubjective experiential dimensions of the new educational reforms and alternative paths for educational reform tied to the ethical imperative to reimagine education for human flourishing justice and equality An authoritative definitive volume and the first global take on a subject that is grabbing headlines as well as preoccupying policy makers scholars and teachers around the world Edited by distinguished leaders in the field Features contributions from an illustrious list of experts and scholars The Wiley Handbook of Global Educational Reform will be of great interest to scholars and graduate students of education throughout the world as well as the policy makers who can institute change Reckoning Candis Callison, Mary Lynn Young, 2020 How do journalists know what they know Who gets to decide what good journalism is and when it s done right What sort of expertise do journalists have and what role should and do they play in society Until a couple of decades ago journalists rarely asked these questions largely because the answers were generally undisputed Now the stakes are rising for journalists as they face real time critique and audience pushback for their ethics news reporting and relevance Yet the crises facing journalism have been narrowly defined as the result of disruption by new technologies and economic decline This book argues that the concerns are in fact much more profound Drawing on their five years of research with journalists in the U S and Canada in a variety of news organizations from startups and freelancers to mainstream media the authors find a digital reckoning taking place regarding journalism s founding ideals and methods The book explores journalism s long standing representational harms arguing that despite thoughtful explorations of the role of publics in journalism the profession hasn t adequately addressed matters of gender race intersectionality and settler colonialism In doing so the authors rethink the basis for what journalism says it could and should do suggesting that a turn to strong objectivity and systems journalism provides a path forward They offer insights from journalists own experiences and efforts at repair reform and transformation to consider how journalism can address its limits and possibilities along with widening media publics

A Hospitable World? David Jordhus-Lier, Anders Underthun, 2014-10-30 The hospitality and tourism sector is a large and rapidly expanding industry worldwide and can rightfully be described as a vehicle of globalisation Hotels are among the cornerstones of the industry often drawing workers from the most vulnerable segments of multicultural labour markets accommodating and entertaining tourists and business travelers from around the world This book explores the organisation of work worker identities and worker strategies in hotel workplaces as they are located in heterogeneous labour markets being changed by processes of globalisation It uses an explicitly geographical approach to understand how different groups of workers experience and respond to challenges in the hospitality industry and is based on recent theoretical debates and empirical research on hotel workplaces in cities as different as Oslo Goa London Las Vegas and Toronto A multi scalar analysis is taken where concrete worker bodies and their physical emotional and embodied labour are seen in relation to among other aspects the regulation of national and regional labour markets city governments with global city ambitions and global corporate actors and labour migration patterns The book sheds light on the hotel workplace as a hierarchical and fragmented social space as well as addressing questions on worker mobility the fragmentation of work scales of organisation and how workers can help shape the regulation of their industry This timely volume brings together contributions from international academics and is valuable reading for all those interested in hospitality tourism human geography and globalisation

Food Futures in Education and Society

Gurpinder Singh Lalli, Angela Turner, Marion Rutland, 2023-07-11 This book brings together a unique collection of chapters to facilitate a broad discussion on food education that will stimulate readers to think about key policies recent research curriculum positions and how to engage with key stakeholders about the future of food Food education has gained much attention because the challenges that influence food availability and eating in schools also extend beyond the school gate Accordingly this book establishes evidence based arguments that recognise the many facets of food education and reveal how learning through a future s lens and joined up thinking is critical for shaping intergenerational fairness concerning food futures in education and society This book is distinctive through its multidisciplinary collection of chapters on food education with a particular focus on the Global North with case studies from England Australia the Republic of Ireland the United States of America Canada and Germany With a focus on three key themes and a rigorous food futures framework the book is structured into three sections i food education pedagogy and curriculum ii knowledge and skill diversity associated with food and health learning and iii food education inclusivity culture and agency Overall this volume extends and challenges current research and theory in the area of food education and food pedagogy and offers insight and tangible benefits for the future development of food education policies and curricula This book will be of great interest to students scholars policymakers and education leaders working on food education and pedagogy food policy health and diet and the sociology of food Sex, Gender, and Sexuality in Sport Vikki Krane,2018-12-07 Diverse sex gender and sexual identities historically have been pushed to the margins in sport While there is more visibility and inclusion for LGBTIQ lesbian gay bisexual transgender intersex queer people in sport today than in the past there still exists bigotry and marginalization In this book Vikki Krane and a team of leading sport scholars critically assess what we know about sex gender and sexuality in sport expose areas in need of further inquiry and offer new avenues for theory research and practice Drawing on cultural studies perspectives and with social justice at the heart of every chapter the book discusses theory policy practice and the experiences of LGBTIQ people in sport Sex Gender and Sexuality in Sport is an important read for undergraduate and postgraduate students in any class with content on LGBTIQ people in sport but particularly for those studying sport and gender sexuality and sport LGBT studies psychology of gender contemporary issues in sport sociology of gender and sport and higher education It is also a vital resource for scholars who conduct research in the area of LGBTIQ people in sport Critical Medical Anthropology Jennie Gamlin,Sahra Gibbon,Paola M. Sesia,Lina Berrio ,2020-03-12 Critical Medical Anthropology presents inspiring work from scholars doing and engaging with ethnographic research in or from Latin America addressing themes that are central to contemporary Critical Medical Anthropology CMA This includes issues of inequality embodiment of history indigeneity non communicable diseases gendered violence migration substance abuse reproductive politics and judicialisation as these relate to health The collection of ethnographically informed research including original theoretical contributions reconsiders the broader relevance of CMA perspectives for addressing current global healthcare challenges from and of Latin America It includes work spanning four countries in Latin America Mexico Brazil Guatemala and Peru as well as the trans migratory contexts they connect and are defined by By drawing on diverse social practices it addresses challenges of central relevance to medical anthropology and global health including reproduction and maternal health sex work rare and chronic diseases the pharmaceutical industry and questions of agency political economy identity ethnicity and human rights Making Language Visible in the University Bee Bond,2020-08-05 This book focuses on the nexus of language disciplinary content and knowledge communication against the background of the economic cultural and ideological forces of Higher Education's current push for internationalisation. It suggests the need for a greater synergy between language and content experts and argues that change needs to be implemented through policy rather than on an ad hoc basis by individual teachers. It is a call to action for English for Academic Purposes practitioners to find a way out of the silo of their own centres and work to assert influence over the wider context in which they work. The book begins and ends in the practice of teaching with a focus throughout on understanding the barriers and enablers to that practice within a particular context.
