Cogic Elder Manual:

The Ministry of the Elder Roderick L. Evans, In this publication we will discuss the ministry of the C O G I C Elder It is our endeavor to help those entering ministry having supplemental support as they navigate the execution of their ministries In addition we will provide basic protocols for the Elder s purpose and function Bishop Charles H. Mason in the Age of Jim Crow Elton H. Weaver III,2020-11-17 Bishop Charles H Mason in the Age of Jim Crow profiles the life and career of Charles Harrison Mason Mason was the founder of the Church of God in Christ COGIC which from its Memphis roots grew into the most significant black Pentecostal denomination in the United States with profound theological and political ramifications for poor and working class black Memphians Bishop Charles H Mason in the Age of Jim Crow is grounded in the history of the Jim Crow era The book traces the origins of COGIC in Memphis it reveals just how Mason s new black Pentecostal denomination grew gained social and political power and earned a permanent place in Memphis s black religious pantheon This book tells how a son of slaves transformed a rural migrant movement into an urban phenomenon how unusual religious demonstrations exemplified infrapolitical religious protests and how these rituals of resistance changed black lives and helped strengthen and sustain blacks fighting for freedom in segregated Memphis The author reveals why Charles H Mason was an important pre civil rights religious leader who laid the groundwork for integrated churches Divine Callings Richard N. Pitt,2012-02 One of the unique aspects of the religious profession is the high percentage of those who claim to be called by God to do their work This call is particularly important within African American Christian traditions Divine Callings offers a rare sociological examination of this markedly understudied phenomenon within black ministry Richard N Pitt draws on over 100 in depth interviews with Black Pentecostal ministers in the Church of God in Christ both those ordained and licensed and those aspiring to examine how these men and women experience and pursue the call Viewing divine calling as much as a social process as it is a spiritual one Pitt delves into the personal stories of these individuals to explore their work as active agents in the process of fulfilling their calling In some cases those called cannot find pastoral work due to gender discrimination lack of clergy positions and educational deficiencies Pitt looks specifically at how those who have not obtained clergy positions understand their call exploring the influences of psychological experience the congregational acceptance of their call and their response to the training process He emphasizes how those called reconceptualize clericalism in terms of who can be called how that call has to be certified and what those called are meant to do offering insight into how social actors adjust to structural constraints Down by the Riverside Larry Murphy,Larry George Murphy,2000-11 An introductory overview of the development of African American religion and theology Down by the Riverside provides an expansive introduction to the development of African American religion and theology Spanning the time of slavery up to the present the volume moves beyond Protestant Christianity to address a broad diversity of African American religion from Conjure Orisa and Black Judaism to Islam African American Catholicism and humanism This accessible historical overview begins with African religious heritages and traces the transition to various forms of Christianity as well as the maintenance of African and Islamic traditions in antebellum America. Preeminent contributors include Charles Long, Gayraud Wilmore, Albert Raboteau, Manning Marable, M. Shawn Copeland, Vincent Harding, Mary Sawyer, Toinette Eugene, Anthony Pinn, and C. Eric Lincoln and Lawrence Mamiya. They consider the varieties of religious expression emerging from migration from the rural South to urban areas, African American women's participation in Christian missions, Black religious nationalism, and the development of Black Theology from its nineteenth-century precursors to its formulation by James Cone and later articulations by black feminist and womanist theologians. They also draw on case studies to provide a profile of the Black Christian church today. This thematic history of the unfolding of religious life in African America provides a window onto a rich array of African American people practices and theological positions.

Women in the Church of God in Christ Anthea Butler, 2012-01-01. The Church of God in Christ (COGIC), an African American Pentecostal denomination founded in 1896, has become the largest Pentecostal denomination in the United States today. In this first major study of the church, Anthea Butler examines the religious and social lives of the women in the COGIC Women's Department from its founding in 1911 through the mid-1960s. She finds that the sanctification or spiritual purity that these women sought earned them social power both in the church and in the black community. Offering rich, lively accounts of the activities of the Women's

Department founders and other members Butler shows that the COGIC women of the early decades were able to challenge gender roles and to transcend the limited responsibilities that otherwise would have been assigned to them both by churchmen and by white dominated society The Great Depression World War II and the civil rights movement brought increased social and political involvement and the Women s Department worked to make the sanctified world of the church interact with the broader American society More than just a community of church mothers says Butler COGIC women utilized their spiritual authority power and agency to further their contestation and negotiation of gender roles in the church and beyond Adult Quarterly | Teacher Manual Winter Quarter 2020 (Dec-Feb) Church Of God In Christ Publishing House,2020-12-01
