Visions in Exile Malcolm K. Read, 1990-01-01 Malcolm K Read employs a psychoanalytic model which sees civilization as a manner of instinctual renunciation in this analysis of selected texts from the sixteenth seventeenth and eighteenth centuries Focusing on their moments of silence and contradiction he demonstrates that certain attitudes toward the body expressed in these texts have a basis albeit unconscious in a motivation which is ultimately political The central topics deeply intertwined thematically and theoretically relate to the nature and development of language to the Baroque art of Gongora and Quevedo to Feijoo's defense of the rationalist subject set against Torres Villarroel's subversion of the same and to the neo-classical aesthetics of Luzán and Artega The result is an interdisciplinary approach that challenges traditional assumptions in both literary criticism and linguistic historiography , A Dictionary of the Spanish and English Languages Mariano
