Trends in Statistical Codicology Marilena Maniaci, 2021-11-22 The application of statistical techniques to the study of manuscript books based on the analysis of large data sets acquired through the archaeological observation of manuscripts is one of the most original trends in codicological research aiming not only to reconstruct on a sound basis the methods and processes used in book manufacture and their tendential evolution in space and time but also to interpret them as the result of a dynamic interplay between various and often incompatible needs of cultural technical social and economic nature that book artisans had to reconcile in the best possible way The present collection of essays in English translation was guided by the desire to offer a multifarious well articulated picture of the application of statistical methodology to the various aspects of manuscript production namely analysis of materials characterization of book types manufacturing techniques planning and use of layout characterization of scripts and scribal habits The volume aims to present to a wider readership a series of significant papers which have appeared over the last fifteen years by means of which the statistical approach continues to demonstrate its vast potential

Traducciones castellanas del código de San Millán de la Cogolla RAH 59 Fernando Vilches Vivancos, 2015 El estudioso de la historia depende lo quiera o no de la correcta interpretaci n de los textos Los textos aquellos que han sobrevivido son la v a principal para llegar a conocer el pasado en todas sus inabarcables dimensiones Y pese a lo estrecho y angosto que es el camino que depende de los escasos textos conservados cualquier reconstrucci n hist rica solo puede edificarse y acercarse a la cumbre de la verdad sobre s lidos cimientos editoriales Si la base peligra tambi n est en riesgo lo que sobre ella se construye En el manuscrito 59 de la Real Academia de la Historia procedente del monasterio emilianense se reunieron varias traducciones de inter s para los monjes de ese cenobio probablemente en dos etapas que a n tienen su reflejo en la soluci n de continuidad formal de los cuadernos 1 17 18 20 y en el cambio de letra y copista del c dice A la primera fase corresponde el grueso del manuscrito que contiene los Di logos 593 594 de Gregorio Magno en la versi n romance ejecutada por Gonzalo de Oca a probablemente a medidados del Cuatrocientos y la colecci n de sermones pseudoagustinianos Ad fratres in eremo de principios del siglo XIV En una segunda etapa se añadieron textos que eran de especial interés para el monasterio de San Millán la traducción al romance nica medieval en prosa de la Vita Sancti Emiliani 631-646 de Braulio de Zaragoza acompañada de las versiones romanceadas de la Historia translationis Sancti Emiliani y el Liber miraculorum Sancti Emiliani probablemente de finales del siglo XII. Esos romanceamientos se completaron con dos textos dedicados a otro santo de peculiar devoción en el cenobio riojano San Felices las traducciones de la Historia translationis sacri corporis beati Felicis y de los Miracula beati Felicis quizá de mediados del XII. Como es casi norma en la Edad Media el códice tiene carácter misceláneo y es el propósito destinado a su uso lo que explica su constitución por lo que parece totalmente acertado haber acometido la edición completa y no pongamos por caso la de cada texto individual en el contenido. Primera edición del códice 59 de la RAH que viene a enriquecer nuestro conocimiento de la lengua del Cuatrocientos la actividad traductora de la época y su papel en el desarrollo de la vida monástica del período de INÉS FERNÁNDEZ ORDÓEZ.
