Faith And Film A Guidebook For Leaders:

Faith and Film Edward N. McNulty, 2007-01-01 Growing numbers of church leaders are discovering that many films are able to impact viewers with gospel truths almost as well as a good sermon Ed McNulty a former pastor and longtime reviewer of films offers this guide to help church leaders enter into dialogue with contemporary films McNulty carefully crafts a theology of movies and then provides practical suggestions for creating and leading movie discussions with groups In addition he provides people from all across the theological spectrum with a framework to understand whether the overall message of a film outweighs concerns over profanity violence or sex in the film He concludes by introducing twenty seven films and including provocative questions about each that will prepare leaders to assemble and facilitate a group Popular films explored include The Color Purple Crash Hotel Rwanda The Matrix Million Dollar Baby O Brother Where Art Thou and The Shawshank Redemption The Routledge Companion to Religion and Film John C. Lyden, 2009-05-07 The Routledge Companion to Religion and Film brings together a lively and experienced team of contributors to introduce students to the key topics in religion and film and to investigate the ways in which the exciting subject of religion and film is developing for more experienced scholars Divided into four parts the Companion analyzes the history of the interaction of religion and film through periods of censorship as well as appreciation of the medium studies religion in film examining how the world's major religions as well as Postcolonial Japanese and New Religions are depicted by and within films uses diverse methodologies to explore religion and film such as psychoanalytical theological and feminist approaches and audience reception analyzes religious themes in film including Redemption the Demonic Jesus or Christ Figures Heroes and Superheroes considers films as diverse as The Passion of the Christ The Matrix Star Wars and Groundhog Day This definitive book provides an accessible resource to this emerging field and is an indispensable guide to religion and film for students of Religion Film Studies and Film, Lacan and the Subject of Religion Steve Nolan, 2009-09-23 In their study of religion and film religious film beyond analysts have tended to privilege religion Uniquely this study treats the two disciplines as genuine equals by regarding both liturgy and film as representational media Steve Nolan argues that in each case subjects identify with a represented other which joins them into a narrative where they become participants in an ideological reality Finding many current approaches to religious film analysis lacking Film Lacan and the Subject of Religion explores the film theory other writers ignore particularly that mix of psychoanalysis Marxism and semiotics often termed Screen theory that attempts to understand how cinematic representation shapes spectator identity Using translations and commentary on Lacan not originally available to Screen theorists Nolan returns to Lacan's contribution to psychoanalytic film theory and offers a sustained application to religious practice examining several priest films and real life case study to expose the way liturgical representation shapes religious identity Film Lacan and the Subject of Religion proposes an interpretive strategy by which religious film analysts can develop the kind of analysis that engages with and critiques both cultural and religious practice Encyclopedia of

Religion and Film Eric Michael Mazur,2011-03-08 Comprising 91 A Z entries this encyclopedia provides a broad and comprehensive introduction to the topic of religion within film Technology has enabled films to reach much wider audiences enabling today s viewers to access a dizzying number of films that employ diverse symbolism and communicate a vast array of viewpoints Encyclopedia of Religion and Film will provide such an audience with the tools to begin their own exploration of the deeper meanings of these films and grasp the religious significance within Organized alphabetically this encyclopedia provides more than 90 entries on the larger religious traditions the major film producing regions of the globe the films that have stirred controversy the most significant religious symbols and the more important filmmakers The included topics provide substantially more information on the intersection of religion and film than any of the similar volumes currently available While the emphasis is on the English speaking world and the films produced therein there is also substantial representation of non English non Western film and filmmakers providing significant intercultural coverage to the topic

Jump into the Story Ray R. Friesen, 2019-02-27 Preaching is a challenging privileged and awesome responsibility As important as mining the text for its meaning and message and making connections to our twenty first century world is the responsibility to engage the imaginations of the people in the pews or chairs In this book Ray Friesen life long preacher and retired pastor has provided twenty examples of how to be creative and engage those imaginations Most were written under the pressures of bi vocational ministry preaching forty times a year as half time pastor and operating a mediation practice They are offered to you not as sermons for you to preach but as examples of what is possible even with all the other responsibilities you may have Each sermon and type of creativity will create an opportunity to set your imagination and creativity free to engage the imaginations hearts and dreams of your parishioners Lights in the Darkness Phillip M. Thompson, 2017-07-21 Americans currently spend on average more than ten hours a day in front of a screen Some of that time can now be a source of profound ethical reflections and spiritual insights thanks to this refreshing book The primary goal of Lights in the Darkness is to explore the themes of grace redemption pilgrimage conscience justice faith and reason the common good sacramentality and wisdom in twelve award winning films In addition to unpacking these themes each chapter provides background information on the relevant historical moment and explores the development of the film Questions at the end of each chapter helps to connect the themes in each film to the lives of the reader Film is a powerful and unique artistic medium and now you have a resource to connect its wonders to your faith by reading this book and watching these films Teaching Faith with Harry Potter Patricia Lyons, 2017-05 Sought after resource for using the themes of Harry Potter in the faith formation arena Resource for parish retreats confirmation education and multi generational settings Study Guide included The Catholic Periodical and Literature Index ,2007 Guidebook for Recruiting, Developing, and Retaining Transit Managers for Fixed-route Bus and Paratransit Systems Transit Cooperative Research Program, 2010 TRB's Transit Cooperative Research Program TCRP Report 139 Guidebook for Recruiting Developing and
