Falling Into The Fire A Psychiatrists Encounters With The Mind In Crisis:

Falling Into the Fire Christine Montross, 2013-08-01 Falling Into the Fire is psychiatrist Christine Montross's thoughtful investigation of the gripping patient encounters that have challenged and deepened her practice. The majority of the patients Montross treats in Falling Into the Fire are seen in the locked inpatient wards of a psychiatric hospital; all are in moments of profound crisis. We meet a young woman who habitually commits self injury having ingested light bulbs, a box of nails, and a steak knife among other objects. Her repeated visits to the hospital incite the frustration of the staff, leading Montross to examine how emotion can interfere with proper care. A recent college graduate, dressed in a tunic and declaring that love emanates from everything around him, is brought to the ER by his concerned girlfriend. Is it ecstasy or psychosis? What legal ability do doctors have to hospitalize and sometimes medicate a patient against his will? A new mother is admitted with incessant visions of harming her child. Is she psychotic and a danger, or does she suffer from obsessive thoughts? Her course of treatment and her child's future depends upon whether she receives the correct diagnosis. Each case study presents its own line of inquiry, leading Montross to seek relevant psychiatric knowledge from diverse sources. A doctor of uncommon curiosity and compassion, Montross discovers lessons in medieval dancing plagues, in leading forensic and neurological research, and in moments from her own life. Beautifully written, deeply felt, Falling Into the Fire brings us inside the doctor's mind, illuminating the grave human costs of mental illness as well as the challenges of diagnosis and treatment. Throughout, Montross confronts the larger question of psychiatry: What is to be done when a patient's experiences cannot be accounted for or helped by what contemporary medicine knows about the brain? When all else fails, Montross finds what remains is the capacity to abide, to sit with the desperate in their darkest moments. At once rigorous and meditative, Falling Into the Fire is an intimate portrait of psychiatry, allowing the reader to witness the humanity of the practice and the enduring mysteries of the mind. Falling insightful and essential new volume for academics and professionals interested in the lived experience of those who struggle with disordered eating Embodiment and Eating Disorders situates the complicated and increasingly prevalent topic of disordered eating at the crossroads of many academic disciplines articulating a notion of embodied selfhood that rejects the separation of mind and body and calls for a feminist existential and sociopolitically aware approach to eating disorder treatment Experts from a variety of backgrounds and specializations examine theories of embodiment current empirical research and practical examples and strategies for prevention and treatment      The Art of Relational Supervision HELENA HARGADEN, 2015-09-16 The Art of Relational Supervision demonstrates the clinical implications of the relational approach when applied to supervision Describing her philosophical and theoretical rationale for setting up relational supervision groups Helena Hargaden's goal in supervision is to reveal the relational unconscious within the client therapist relationship Here with chapters from members of these groups the vitality of supervision is brought to life as the clinical implications of the therapist's internal world are highlighted by group members The complexity of group dynamics are explored and psychotherapists show how this positively affects their work with clients and patients The main themes examined in the book are the Bi directionality of the relational unconscious Ubiquity of therapeutic enactments and ruptures Intuitive use of improvisation Co creation of the intersubjective third the analytic third Focus on mutuality and reciprocity Filled with case study examples readers of The Art of Relational Supervision will gain a deep insight into the complex dynamics which form an integral part of any supervision and discover how this type of relational approach strengthens the therapeutic relationship to bring about significant psychological change for the client It will be an invaluable resource for psychotherapists counsellors and psychologists      Making Spaces Kate Cullen, Professor Liz Bondi, Judith Fewell, Eileen Francis, Molly Ludlam, 2018-05-01 This book argues for the value and application of psychoanalytic thinking beyond as well as within the consulting room Inspired by a Scottish psychoanalytic tradition that owes much to W R D Fairbairn and J D Sutherland the Scottish Institute of Human Relations has provided a valuable reference point for the work described in the book It illustrates how the coming together of human beings into a shared space fosters opportunities to create loving collaborative relationships in which to work and from which to grow The book's first section explores how psychoanalytic thinking developed in Scotland while section two focuses on work with children families and couples showing how psychoanalytic perspectives can be used to strengthen capacities for loving relationships The chapters in section three show how psychoanalysis can be applied in such varied settings as psycho social research education institutional development and organisational consultancy The fourth section pursues this theme further considering the potential of psychoanalytic concepts to enhance work in religious ministry in medical and psychiatric services and in understanding the processes of ageing
