Apocalypse TV Michael G. Cornelius,Sherry Ginn,2020-03-27 The end of the world may be upon us but it certainly is taking its sweet time playing out The walkers on The Walking Dead have been walking for nearly a decade There are now dozens of apocalyptic television shows and we use the end times to describe everything from domestic politics and international conflict to the weather and our views of the future This collection of new essays asks what it means to live in a world inundated with representations of the apocalypse Focusing on such series as The Walking Dead The Strain Battlestar Galactica Domsday Preppers Westworld The Handmaid s Tale they explore how the serialization of the end of the world allows for a closer examination of the disintegration of humanity while it happens Do these shows prepare us for what is to come Do they spur us to action Might they even be causing the apocalypse The Take2 Guide to Lost James O'ehley,Erin Willard,2015-09-18 Over 50 contributors ask and answer all your questions in this ultimate eBook compendium of everything related to the most iconic and talked about series in Television history Each Chapter and Guide is made up of multiple associated articles from the likes of award winning sci fi authors David Brin and Peter Watts academics including Dr Kristine Larsen and Alan Shapiro Lost community leaders such as Jon Lachonis news producers comedy writers and professional and lay bloggers who spawned a revolution in television criticism Just the Ending chapter alone has over 30 articles opinions and insights to further challenge your perspective The sumptuous Episode Guide is a definitive resource of over 350 articles with at least two reviews of each episode as well as synopses tidbits and a comprehensive archive of intertextual references within each episode Other chapters include Cast and Characters which gives an incite to the characters role in the overall drama as well provide juicy titbits about the actors careers Mythology which includes posts on the Smoke Monster DHARMA the Frozen Donkey Wheel and how religion was reflected on the series Philosophy ranging from scholarly but accessible posts on the philosophy and philosophers referenced in the show to a post on how the series affected one writer s personal philosophy Structure including discussions on the flashback forward sideways the DHARMA stations and a physicist s explanation of the science of time travel Interviews with the showrunners and writers throughout the lifetime of the series and much much more Programming the Future Sherryl Vint,Jonathan Alexander,2022-11-01

From 9 11 to COVID 19 the twenty first century looks increasingly dystopian and so do its television shows Long form science fiction narratives take one step further the fears of today liberal democracy in crisis growing economic precarity the threat of terrorism and omnipresent corporate control At the same time many of these shows attempt to visualize alternatives using dystopian extrapolations to spotlight the possibility of building a better world Programming the Future examines how recent speculative television takes on the contradictions of the neoliberal order Sherryl Vint and Jonathan Alexander consider a range of popular SF narratives of the last two decades including Battlestar Galactica Watchmen Colony The Man in the High Castle The Expanse and Mr Robot They argue that science fiction television foregrounds governance as part of explaining the novel institutions and norms of its imagined futures In so doing SF shows allegorize and critique contemporary social political and economic developments helping audiences resist the naturalization of the status quo Vint and Alexander also draw on queer theory to explore the representation of family structures and their relationship to larger social structures Recasting both dystopian and utopian narratives Programming the Future shows how depictions of alternative world political struggles speak to urgent real world issues of identity belonging and social and political change Hollyweird Science Kevin R. Grazier,Stephen Cass,2015-07-27 Lighthearted quirky and upbeat this book explores the portrayal of science and technology on both the big and little screen and how Hollywood is actually doing a better job of getting it right than ever before Grounded in the real word and often cutting edge science and technology that inspires fictional science the authors survey Hollywood depictions of topics such as quantum mechanics parallel universes and alien worlds Including material from interviews with over two dozen writers producers and directors of acclaimed science themed productions as well as scientists science fiction authors and science advisors Hollyweird Science examines screen science fiction from the sometimes conflicting vantage points of storytellers researchers and viewers Including a foreword by Eureka co creator and executive producer Jaime Paglia and an afterword by astronomer and science fiction author Michael Brotherton Ph D this book is accessible to all readers from the layperson to the armchair expert to the professional scientist and will delight all of them equally Neuroscience and Media Michael Grabowski,2014-12-05 This volume explores how advances in the fields of evolutionary neuroscience and cognitive psychology are informing media studies with a better understanding of how humans perceive think and experience emotion within mediated environments The book highlights interdisciplinary and transdisciplinary approaches to the production and reception of cinema television the Internet and other forms of mediated communication that take into account new understandings of how the embodied brain senses and interacts with its symbolic environment Moreover as popular media shape perceptions of the promises and limits of brain science contributors also examine the representation of neuroscience and cognitive psychology within mediated culture Falling Skies Falling skies (Television program), The Fifty-Year Mission: The Complete, Uncensored, Unauthorized Oral History of Star Trek: The First 25 Years Edward Gross, Mark A. Focus On: 100 Most Popular Canadian Male Film Actors Wikipedia contributors, The Sex Is Out of This World Sherry Ginn,Michael G. Cornelius,Donald E. Palumbo,2012-11-08 Science fiction can be translated into real unreality More than a genre like fantasy which creates entirely new realms of possibility science fiction constructs its possibilities from what is real from what is indeed possible or conceivably so This collection then looks to understand and explore the unreal reality to note ways in which our culture s continually changing and evolving mores of sex and sexuality are reflected in dissected by and deconstructed through the genre of science fiction This book is a collection of new essays with the general objective of filling a gap in the literature about sex and science fiction although some work has gone before none of it is recent The essays herein explore the myriad ways in which authors regardless of format print film television etc envision very different beings expressing this most fundamental of human behaviors

Focus On: 100 Most Popular Television Series by 20th Century Fox Television Wikipedia contributors, Race, Gender, and Sexuality in Post-Apocalyptic TV and Film Barbara Gurr,2015-10-07 This book offers analyses of the roles of race gender and sexuality in the post apocalyptic visions of early

twenty first century film and television shows Contributors examine the production reproduction and re imagination of some of our most deeply held human ideals through sociological anthropological historical and feminist approaches

Post-Apocalyptic Patriarchy Carlen Lavigne,2018-09-26 Twenty first century American television series such as Revolution Falling Skies The Last Ship and The Walking Dead have depicted a variety of doomsday scenarios nuclear cataclysm rogue artificial intelligence pandemic alien invasion or zombie uprising These scenarios speak to longstanding societal anxieties and contemporary calamities like 9 11 or the avian flu epidemic Questions about post apocalyptic television abound whose voices are represented What tomorrows are they most afraid of What does this tell us about the world we live in today The author analyzes these speculative futures in terms of gender race and sexuality revealing the fears and ambitions of a patriarchy in flux as exemplified by the return to a mythical American frontier where the white male hero fights for survival protects his family and crafts a new world order based on the old

Pop Culture and the Dark Side of the American Dream Paul A. Cantor,2019-05-17 The many con men gangsters and drug lords portrayed in popular culture are examples of the dark side of the American dream Viewers are fascinated by these twisted versions of heroic American archetypes like the self made man and the entrepreneur Applying the critical skills he developed as a Shakespeare scholar Paul A Cantor finds new depth in familiar landmarks of popular culture He invokes Shakespearean models to show that the concept of the tragic hero can help us understand why we are both repelled by and drawn to figures such as Vito and Michael Corleone or Walter White Beginning with Huckleberry Finn and ending with The Walking Dead Cantor also uncovers the link between the American dream and frontier life In imaginative variants of a Wild West setting popular culture has served up disturbing and yet strangely compelling images of what happens when people move beyond the borders of law and order Cantor demonstrates that at its best popular culture raises thoughtful questions about the validity and viability of the American dream thus deepening our understanding of America itself
