I believe that this is not just an investigative work It is a fantastic journey that takes the readers from villa del Parque Reale a location not far from Milano and finishes on April 16th 1950 in San Remo The journey has the main purpose to dig out Juan M Fangio s first stages after the Second World War and to understand how the man born in Balcarce could climb up until reaching the summit of the Racing Car world in less than four years The focus of this incredible journey is not focussed when Fangio is part of the Formula 1 world but four years earlier Nevertheless to understand what was happening during the post war Europe and in the opulent post war Argentina can be only understood by surfing many pre war events that happened in Europe more precisely in Italy and Germany A huge rivalry grew between these two allies whose outcome paved the way to the creation of the Formula 1 Championship Within this atmosphere the start of the Second war created the perfect environment for the appearance and growth of Argentinean names and figures An Italian rooted surname turned to be a fantastic help to reach sports and political goals Notwithstanding sports was not the only objective Regimes copy regimes and where some fail others try to succeed Pursuing this objective the Argentinean 1947 1950 regime concentrated its efforts on building up part of its power upon a tripod As they were doing so any success was shown up to the whole country Money and propaganda went hand in hand The war had left the Argentinean Central Bank loaded so any dream could be fulfilled The question that started this journey was Why was Fangio and not another driver the chosen since the very beginning We have learnt about his driving skills and abilities as well as mechanical knowledge But most of the times these skills seem not to be enough A causal chain of events aligned in such a way that it allowed the Balcarce former TC driver and champion to climb to the top of the sportspeople Olympus If you are willing and daring to step onto this journey in time and space be my guest and discover whether Juan Manuel Fangio was a coincidence or a causality of the time and politics Thanks for joining me
