

THE END OF THE WORLD AS WE KNOW IT

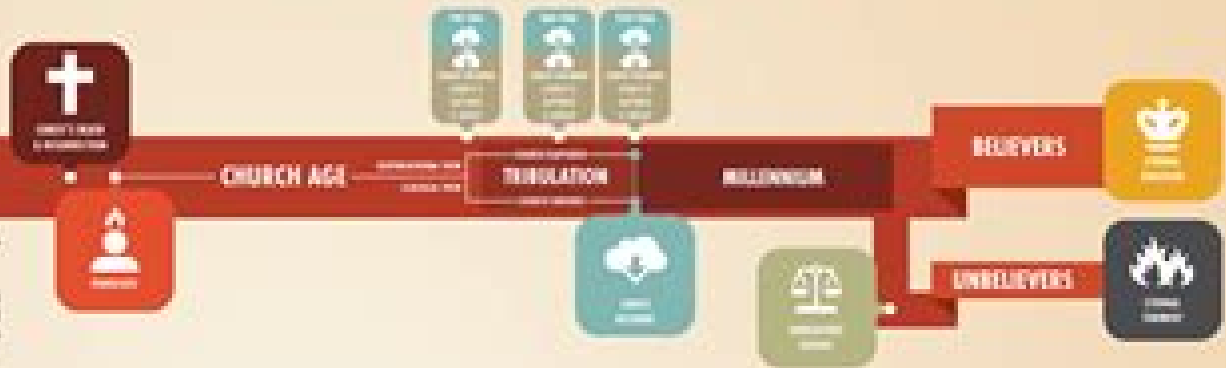

VIEWS OF THE END TIMES

PREMILLENNIALISM

Premillennialism is the belief that the Second Coming of Christ occurs before the millennium, which is a literal 1000 years.

Premillennialists believe that believers will be caught up (raptured) into heaven at the end of the church age before a time of great tribulation on the earth. They will then return with Christ to rule with Him for a 1000 years after which unbelievers are judged and the eternal kingdom is set up.

Premillennial theologians have historically been divided on whether the church will go through a time of great tribulation or whether the church will be raptured from the earth before the tribulation. Dispensationalism leans also differed on the timing of the rapture believing it to occur before, in the middle, or at the end of the period of tribulation.

POSTMILLENNIALISM

Postmillennialism is the belief that the Second Coming of Christ occurs after the millennium.

Some that take this position believe the millennium is a literal 1000 years while others believe it is a figurative concept referring to the entire New Testament age.

Postmillennialism teaches that the forces of Satan will gradually be defeated by the expansion of the Kingdom of God throughout history up until the Second Coming of Christ.

The view that the tribulation has already taken place is the Pretribulational position. The view that the entire church age is tribulation is the Posttribulational view.

AMILLENNIALISM

Amillennialism is the belief that there is not a literal 1000 year reign of Christ on the earth but that the Second Coming occurs at the end of history.

The millennium is purely spiritual. It occurs now and at the end of the church age. Christ will return to final judgment and establish a permanent physical reign.

The Pretribulational view believes the tribulation has already taken place while the Posttribulational view believes the tribulation will not occur or symbolically in the book of Revelation.
