Canadian Agriculture in the 21st Century Dr. Marvin S. Anderson, The Canadian Farming Community is facing numerous ongoing challenges including rapidly changing technologies the gradual erosion of the rural lifestyle growing consumer concerns about the healthiness of food and growing environmental concerns including climate change This book begins with an historic overview of agriculture in Canada followed by a statistical profile of the contemporary Canadian farm ranch supporting agri industrial complex and the innumerable farm organizations in Canada The vital role of international trade and government support in the evolution of Canadian agriculture is also highlighted Resource management issues and related hot button issues e g climate change GMO s are also addressed in considerable detail In addition Dr Anderson identifies the likely trends in Canadian agriculture in the immediate years ahead Emphasizing the diversity complexity strength and vitality of the agricultural sector Canadian Agriculture in the 21st Century ultimately highlights how it effectively molds and remains integral to the socioeconomic fabric of both rural and urban Canada An underlying theme is the importance of having Canadian agriculture become increasingly ecofriendly in the challenging years ahead particularly the need to gradually adopt more sustainable regenerative organic technologies and the need to more pro actively serve as a vital CO2 sink in climate change mitigation Dr Anderson also suggests that the public should financially compensate farmers ranchers for protecting environmental amenities that accrue to everyone A complimentary theme is the need for Canadian agriculture to become increasingly sensitive to consumer concerns particularly with respect to rigorous health standards animal welfare and sustainable resource management

The Obama Effect Heather E. Harris, Kimberly R.

Moffitt, Catherine R. Squires, 2010-09-20 November 4 2008 ushered in a historic moment Illinois Senator Barack Obama was elected the forty fourth President of the United States of America In The Obama Effect editors Heather E Harris Kimberly R Moffitt and Catherine R Squires bring together works that place Barack Obama s candidacy and victory in the context of the American experience with race and the media Following Obama s victory optimists claimed that the campaign signaled the arrival of an era of postracism and postfeminism in the United States This collection of essays all presented at a national conference to discuss the meaning and impact of the nomination of the first presidential candidate of African descent remind the reader that reaching a point in U S history where a biracial man could be deemed electable is part of a still ongoing struggle It resists the temptation to dismiss the uncertainty hope and fear that characterized the events and discourse of the two year primary and general election cycle and brings together multidisciplinary approaches to assessing the Obama effect on public discourse and participation This volume provides readers with a means for recalling and mapping out the enduring issues that erupted during the campaign issues that will continue to shape how our society views itself and President Obama in the coming years

Celebrating a Century of 4-H in Ontario

4-H Ontario, 2015-08-31 This book celebrates a century of 4 H in Ontario through stories of members and families from across rural Ontario who have been involved in the 4 H program Part 1 of the book was originally published in 1995 on the 80th anniversary of 4 H in Ontario and covers its early beginnings and the growth of the 4 H program at the provincial level and in each county and district of the province Part 2 covers the last 20 years and the story of 4 H Ontario s growth to become an independent organization and the impact of the 4 H program on families who have been involved in 4 H through several generations The book showcases how 4 H has kept up with the times to provide diverse programs and a continuum of excellence to inspire youth and give them hands on experience to develop transferable skills for their future Some 40 photos are included to help depict the 4 H story over the last century www.4hontario.ca

LEARNING WITH ADULTS Leona M. English, Peter Mayo, 2012-12-25 This book is written at a time when our own field of adult education is under assault from a variety of capitalist and neoconservative forces pressuring us to turn away from the causes of criticality lifelong learning and education for freedom Rather than succumb to these pressures we have hope that our long term goals of education for life and living can and will be accomplished alongside professional and vocational education This book offers new insight into what is a very dark moment of our human civilization From the preface by Dr Carlos Alberto Torres Professor GSEIS Director Paulo Freire Institute University of California at Los Angeles The book offers decidedly critical and international perspectives on various aspects of adult education especially on state citizenship and neoliberal policies Critical in both content and method it is at the same time the part of the collective work needed to advance the Bel m call to action by furthering awareness and capacity in the field of adult education Dr Katarina Popovic Professor Universit t Duisburg Essen University of Belgrade DBB International In the midst of diminishing resources and growing inequalities English and Mayo provide an incisive and much needed critique of adult education in ways that highlight not only its historical and philosophical roots but also its major significance to the practice of democracy In a direct challenge to the neoliberal accountability craze Learning with Adults offers a rigorous political reading of the field one that systematically challenges oppressive educational policies and practices while affirming an emancipatory vision of civic engagement Truly an informative treatise that sheds new light on the education of adults Dr Antonia Darder Professor Leavey Presidential Endowed Chair in Education Loyola Marymount University Los Angeles Leona English and Peter Mayo challenge hegemonic assumptions and ideas while offering a constructive alternative based on the principle of working with learners and not just for them Their analysis is accessible enough for newcomers to the field while the authors wide ranging coverage and radical approach provide refreshing and challenging messages for the most experienced adult educator Up to date genuinely international and passionately committed Learning with Adults is a great book Dr John Field Professor University of Stirling Cover design by Annemarie Mayo Keys to a Successful 4-H Club, 2005

How to Work with Space Karen Messer, 2024-04-09 This book is an exploration of the entangled spatial relationships with and within organizations and research practice Situating our environment as an active participant in the outcomes of day to day living heightens the role space can have as a co creator of experience behaviour and emotion Physical environments tend to fade into the background becoming an unseen untended accompaniment in our journey However through active attunement and deep noticing spatial details arise through our bodies senses conversations and physical encounters As the nature of work continues to evolve understanding and shifting our relationship with the work environment broadens the scope of how space and work are engaged and performed This thoughtful book will be of great interest to academics and students of organisational studies as well as those involved in interdisciplinary research across geography
