Critical Pedagogy for Social Justice John Smyth, 2011-10-20 Conflicted

Identities Alexandra Staub, 2015-10-23 Nation states have long used representational architecture to create symbolic identities for public consumption both at home and abroad Government buildings major ensembles and urban plans have a visibility that lends them authority while their repeated portrayals in the media cement their image as icons of a shared national character Existing in tandem with this official self however is a second often divergent identity represented by the vast realm of domestic space defined largely by those who occupy it as well as those with a vested interest in its cultural meaning Using both historical inquiry and visual spatial and film analysis this book explores the interaction of these two identities and its effect on political control class status and gender roles Conflicted Identities examines the politicization of both public and domestic space especially in societies undergoing rapid cultural transformation through political social or economic expansion or restructuring when cultural identity is being rapidly modernized shifted or realigned to conform to new demands Using specific examples from a variety of national contexts the book examines how vernacular housing legislation marketing and media influence a large but often underexposed domestic culture that runs parallel to a more publicly represented one As a case in point the book examines West Germany from the end of World War II to the early 1970s to probe more deeply into the mechanisms of such cultural dichotomy On a national level post war West Germany demonstratively rejected Nazi era values by rebuilding cities based on interwar modernist tenets while choosing a decidedly modern and transparent architecture for high visibility national projects In the domestic realm government media and everyday citizens countered this turn to state sponsored modernism by embracing traditional architectural aesthetics and housing that encouraged patriarchal family structures Written for readers interested in cultural theory history and the politics of space as well as those engaged with architecture and the built environment Conflicted Identities provides an engaging new perspective on power and identity as they relate to architectural settings The Oxford Handbook of Power, Politics, and Social Work Rajendra Baikady, Jaroslaw Przeperski, Sajid S.M., M. Rezaul Islam, 2024 This Handbook examines the impetus for the development growth and relevance of social work as a profession in different political social and cultural contexts Contributions align with overarching contemporary themes such as changing governance structures around the world digitalization and globalization and decolonization The book is also in line with the advancement of global agendas for social work and social development led by the IASSW ICSW IFSW This contemporary text engages comprehensively with diverse political systems across the world and explores the interactions with and implications for social work policy practice and education in these countries and globally Reference & User Services Quarterly, 2007 The History of Genocide in Cinema Jonathan Friedman, William Hewitt, 2016-10-27 The organization Genocide Watch estimates that 100 million civilians around the globe have lost their lives as a result of genocide in only the past sixty years Over the same period the visual arts in the form of documentary footage has aided international efforts to document genocide and prosecute those responsible but this book argues that fictional representation occupies an equally important and problematic place in the process of shaping minds on the subject Edited by two of the leading experts in the field The History of Genocide in Cinema analyzes fictional and semi fictional portrayals of genocide focusing on amongst others the repression of indigenous populations in Australia the genocide of Native Americans in the 19th century the Herero genocide Armenia the Holodomor Stalin s policy of starvation in Ukraine the Nazi Holocaust Nanking and Darfur Comprehensive and unique in its focus on fiction films as opposed to documentaries The History of Genocide in Cinema is an essential resource for students and researchers in the fields of cultural history holocaust studies and the history of film Communication, Entertainment, and Messages of Social Justice Richard West,Christina S. Beck,2025-04-29 This edited collection explores the contemporary interplay among three pivotal areas found in cultures around the world communication entertainment and messages of social justice Each chapter centralizes communication as instrumental in creating mediated messages pertaining to social justice usually resulting in a more educated audience Using an accessible writing style the contributors investigate both classic and contemporary social media television film stage radio and podcast productions by employing both qualitative and quantitative methods Furthermore through case studies on topics including transphobia indigenous comedy and drag performance this book assesses key issues and themes portrayed in contemporary entertainment education It provides a foundational framework for analysis by utilizing a broad range of theoretical models to explore representations of race class gender advocacy and pedagogy among others as well as their communication implications This book will be of interest to scholars and students in the fields of Communication Studies Popular Culture Studies Media Studies Theatre Studies Social Justice Studies Sociology and Psychology Handbook of Research on Teaching in Multicultural and Multilingual Contexts Charamba, Erasm0s,2022-06-24 Several factors have resulted in increased intra and inter state migration This has led to an increase in the enrollment of students with diverse linguistics backgrounds placing more academic demands on educators Linguistic diversity presents both opportunities and challenges for educators across the educational spectrum Language ideologies profoundly shape and constrain the use of language as a resource for learning in multilingual or linguistically diverse classrooms While English has become the world language most communities remain and are becoming more and more multicultural multilingual and diverse The Handbook of Research on Teaching in Multicultural and Multilingual Contexts moves beyond the constraints of current language ideologies and enables the use of a wide range of resources from local semiotic repertoires It examines the phenomenon of language use language teaching multiculturalism and multilingualism in different learning areas giving practitioners a voice to spotlight their efforts in order to keep their teaching afloat in culturally and linguistically diverse situations Covering topics such as Indigenous languages multilingual deaf communities and intercultural competence this major reference work is an essential resource for educators of both K 12 and higher education pre service teachers educational psychologists linguists education administrators and policymakers government officials researchers and academicians Translation as Social Justice Wine Tesseur,2022-09-30 This book analyses the translation policies and practices of international non governmental organisations INGOs engaging in critical questions around the ways in which translation can redress power dynamics between INGOs and the people they work with and the role of activist researchers in contributing to these debates The volume examines the duality of translation and interpreting in INGOs traditionally undervalued and under resourced while simultaneously acknowledged as a powerful tool in ensuring these organisations work according to their own values of equal access to information dialogue and political representation Drawing on over ten years of ethnographic fieldwork and interview data with a wide variety of INGOs Tisseur offers unique insights into if and how INGOs plan for translation and interpreting needs while also critically reflecting on her own experience and the ways in which activist researchers like her can ensure social justice efforts are fully reflected in their own working practices Encouraging a new interdisciplinary research agenda the volume seeks to raise the profile of language and translation in humanitarian and development contexts and cross disciplinary dialogue in scholarship on these issues The book will be of interest to scholars in translation and interpreting studies sociolinguistics development studies and international relations
