guide to life on the high seas      Transformational Groups Ed Stetzer, Eric Geiger, 2014 God declared through the Apostle Paul that the church would be a place of transformation In 2 Corinthians 5:17 we find Therefore if anyone is in Christ he is a new creation old things have passed away and look new things have come Despite this the church seems increasingly to be a place where transformation fails to occur Surveying the landscape however there are some bright spots where churches are faithfully producing transformed disciples Furthermore as shown in Scripture and supported by new research God designed such transformation to often happen in the context of smaller groups of people But what characteristics are true of churches that are making transformed disciples through group based ministry whether small groups missional communities Sunday school or some other expression of groups In Transformational Groups Ed Stetzer and Eric Geiger have created a new scorecard that will provide a map to transformational success for your church's groups ministry Using data from the largest survey of pastors and laypersons ever done on the condition of groups in the church they define a simple process to lead your groups from where they are to where God wants them to be      Courage and Calling Gordon T. Smith, 2024-05-28 What is my calling How do I best live it out Will my vocation change In this third edition of his popular book Gordon Smith addresses these questions and more providing rich insight for all who long to courageously follow God's call This is your invitation to discover your calling by listening to God and becoming a coworker with him      Congregations Carl Ellis Nelson, 1988-01-01 C. Ellis Nelson has collaborated with and collected the works of ten leaders experienced in congregational affairs to design and produce a resource that helps ministers and lay leaders understand the dynamics of congregations The result is an engaging collection that will help pastors and church leaders invigorate their congregations      Women of Color in U.S. Society Maxine Baca Zinn, Bonnie Thornton Dill, 1993-12-30 The theme of race class and gender as interlocking systems of oppression unites these original essays about the experience of women of color OCo African Americans Latinas Native Americans and Asian Americans The contributing scholars discuss the social conditions that simultaneously oppress women of color and provide sites for opposition Though diverse in their focus the essays uncover similar experiences in the classroom workplace family prison and other settings Working class women poor women and professional women alike experience subordination restricted participation in social institutions and structural placement in roles with limited opportunities How do women survive resist and cope with these oppressive structures Many articles tell how women of color draw upon resources from their culture family kin and community Others document defenses against cultural assaults by the dominant society OCo Native American mothers instilling tribal heritage in their children African American women engaging in community work and Asian American women opposing the patriarchy of their own communities and the stereotypes imposed by society at large These essays challenge some of our basic assumptions about society revealing that experiences of inequality are not only diverse but relational      Show Me The Harmony Mark Worthington, 2023-08-03 All of us lead We lead our own lives We may lead our families friends and work colleagues Some of us lead large teams of people Whatever the form or scale leadership comes with great responsibilities for in leading we hold our own lives and the lives of others in our hands We can shape those lives and in turn shape the world for the better Isn't it therefore the responsibility of all leaders to guide the world towards a more harmonious way of living With eight billion unique souls on Earth many of us today feel disconnected from collectives where we might otherwise find acceptance and love We need leaders who are truly self-aware authentic and integrated and who can help us expand and grow together through creativity and truth This ground-breaking book attempts to stretch paradigms of leadership shining a light on the forgotten powers that will generate unprecedented levels of unity productivity and success in our lives Infinite possibilities greater harmony and wealth await us all Join the new chorus that is heralding a more natural way of leading

Leading Together: How Brave, Honest Conversations can Transform Our Lives, Organizations, and Communities Steph Roy McCallum, 2022-11-09 In an exploration of conversations gone wrong well and sideways Leading Together examines what divides us and what brings us together Grounded in the belief that brave honest conversations are how we solve the challenges in our lives organizations and the public arena the book dives into stories of heartache humor connection and polarization Through lessons of conflict and challenge you will learn to grow your leadership and gain insights to talk together with others and solve the toughest challenges you face

Love and Politics Jeffery L. Nicholas, 2021-06-07 In Love and Politics Jeffery L. Nicholas argues that Eros is the final rejection of an alienated life in which humans are prevented from developing their human powers Eros in contrast is an overflowing of acting into new realities and new beauties a world in which human beings extend their powers and senses Nicholas uniquely interprets Alasdair MacIntyre's Revolutionary Aristotelianism as a response to alienation defined as the divorce of fact from value However this account cannot address alienation in the form of the oppression of women or people of color Importantly it fails to acknowledge the domination of nature that blackens the heart of alienated life Alienation must be seen as a separation of the human from nature Nicholas turns to Aristotle first to uncover the way his philosophy embodies a divorce of human from nature then to reconstruct the essential elements of Aristotle's metaphysics to defend a philosophical anthropology based on Eros Love and Politics Persistent Human Desires as a Foundation for Liberation presents a critical theory that synthesizes MacIntyre's Revolutionary Aristotelianism Frankfurt School Critical Theory and Social Reproduction Theory It will be of great interest to political theorists and philosophers
