Community Neoliberal Governance Routledge Sociology:

Neoliberal Governance and Health Jessica Polzer, 2016-09-01 Provoking urgent questions about the politics of health in the twenty first century this collection interrogates how neoliberal approaches to governance frame health and risk in ways that promote individual responsibility and the implications of such framings for the well being of the collective The essays examine a range of important issues including childhood obesity genetic testing HPV vaccination Aboriginal health pandemic preparedness environmental health disability policy aging contingent work and women s access to social services With specific attention to the Canadian context contributors reveal how neoliberal practices and policies shape the health experiences of individuals disadvantaged groups and communities by cultivating self discipline while further exposing to harm the lives and bodies of those already marginalized in consumer society Building on the theoretical conceptualizations of power and government of French philosopher Michel Foucault the case studies extend our understanding of the effects of neoliberal practices and policies in relation to social class gender racialized identity colonization and ability and provide insight into how health related discourse creates new requirements for citizenship and forms of social stratification A timely intervention in the field of health studies Neoliberal Governance and Health establishes the need for critical interdisciplinary scholarship to counter the individualizing and marginalizing tendencies of health related policy practice and research

The Socio-spatial Design of Community and Governance Sam Jacoby, Jingru (Cyan) Cheng, 2021-01-18 This book proposes a new interdisciplinary understanding of urban design in China based on a study of the transformative effects of socio spatial design and planning on communities and their governance This is framed by an examination of the social projects spaces and realities that have shaped three contexts critical to the understanding of urban design problems in China the histories of collective forms and collective spaces such as that of the urban danwei work unit which inform current community building and planning socio spatial changes in urban and rural development and disparate practices of spatialised governmentality These contexts and an attendant transformation from planning to design and from government to governance define the current urban design challenges found in the dominant urban xiaoqu small district and shequ community development model Examining the histories transformations and practices that have shaped socio spatial epistemologies and experiences in China including a specific sense of community and place that is rather based on a concrete collective than abstract public space and underpinned by socialised governance this book brings together a diverse range of observations thoughts analyses and projects by urban researchers and practitioners Thereby discussing emerging interdisciplinary urban design practices in China this book offers a valuable resource for all academics practitioners and stakeholders with an interest in socio spatial design and development

Remaking Culture and Music Spaces Ian Woodward, Jo Haynes, Pauwke Berkers, Aileen Dillane, Karolina Golemo, 2022-11-18 This collection analyses the remaking of culture and music spaces during the ongoing COVID 19 pandemic Its central focus is how cultural producers negotiated radically disrupted and uncertain conditions by creating designing and curating new objects and events and through making alternative combinations of practices and spaces By examining contexts and practices of remaking culture and music it goes beyond being a chronicle of how the pandemic disrupted cultural life and livelihoods The book also raises crucial questions about the forms and dynamics of post pandemic spaces of culture and music Main themes include the affective and embodied dimensions that shape the experience organisation and representation of cultural and musical activity the restructuring of industries and practices of work and cultural production the transformation of spaces of cultural expression and community and the uncertainty and resilience of future culture and music This collection will be instrumental for researchers practitioners and students studying the spatial material and affective dimensions of cultural production in the fields of cultural sociology cultural and creative industries research festival and event studies and music studies Its interdisciplinary nature makes it beneficial reading for anyone interested in what has happened to culture and music during the global pandemic and beyond Ageing, Austerity, and Neoliberalism Amy Jones, 2023-12-22 This book explores how neoliberalism and austerity have affected older people living within a deindustrialised town utilising a Foucauldian approach and an ethnographic methodology It seeks to bridge the gap between high sociological theory and a research focus upon older people The link between the micro real people within a real place and macro abstract processes is examined and a mid range theory of change is innovatively developed to highlight how older people are having to negotiate national transformations at the everyday level Key themes within this book include the recreation of human subjectivity antiwelfarism the stigmatisation and exclusion of the poor the fragmentation of the working class and nostalgia Innovative terms such as stigma adaptation and abnormal abnormality are included to help deepen our knowledge and understanding of the social sciences to highlight the injustices caused by current global processes and to ultimately inform change This book will be of interest to scholars and students across the social sciences particularly those studying inequalities in the modern world neoliberalism and the economy social theory ageing and older people and community studies and postgraduates who are seeking to undertake applied research It would also be valuable for policymakers and service providers

Community Development and Schools Mildred E. Warner, Jason Reece, Xue Zhang, 2024-07-29 This book lays out the promise and potential of schools as community building institutions It explores the challenges faced in incorporating schools into broader community development policy and also recognizes the changing demographics of schools and their need to integrate with economic development policy in order to promote broader community development The book includes chapters on tax abatements and economic development policy impacts on schools new approaches to school building renovation the potential and reach of shared services between communities and schools and the impact of school based health centers It also offers a theory to integrate schools into community development Key elements include shared power between communities and schools greater transparency in economic development policy collaboration across the broad range of community actors and engagement of diverse voices These elements build a greater sense of belonging across generations and class and racial divides Creative democracy can broaden both school and community development agendas and build a culture of health This book will help community development and school leaders recognize and pursue the promise of schools as critical community development actors The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial CC BY NC 4.0 license

Public Sociology As Educational Practice Eurig Scandrett, 2022-03 Leading academics reflect on concepts and aspects of public sociology education in this perceptive collection of case studies linked by critical dialogue between contributors They consider public practices and special knowledges in the field and go beyond academia's boundaries to explore the purposes and targets of sociological knowledge

European Social Integration and the Roma Cerasela Voiculescu, 2016-10-04 In the field of political sociology and European studies there has long been a discussion on transnational neoliberal development and ethnic groups self governance Notwithstanding there has been limited exploration in relation to modes of knowledge production associated with neoliberal governance of the Other e.g. ethnic and indigenous groups which capture its idiosyncratic modes of political expression and empowerment Drawing on Michel Foucault's political philosophy this book discusses European social integration as transnational neoliberal governmentality and challenges its epistemologically constituted subaltern subject Neoliberalism is questioned in relation to its programs of securitisation of poverty and authoritarian models of self governance associated with instrumentality of the market In this context the book's rich political historical ethnography develops a new framework for the study of social power Furthermore inspired by Jacques Rancière's radical philosophy European Social Integration and the Roma proposes a new mode of knowledge production about populations excessively subjected to neoliberal governmentality heralding the epistemological decolonisation of the neoliberal subject Presenting an insightful new prospect in critical sociology as well as the conceptualization of power and the application of theories of governmentality this book will appeal to scholars interested in the areas of political sociology and anthropology international relations social and political theory philosophy and post development studies

Sociology and Social Work Jo Cunningham, Steve Cunningham, 2014-03-24 Sociological perspectives and their application to social work are an inherent part of the QAA benchmark statements in the social work degree In addition graduates must understand how sociological perspectives can be used to dissect societal and structural influences on human behaviour at individual group and community levels This fully revised second edition includes a new chapter on social class and welfare and is mapped to the new Professional Capabilities Framework for Social Work

Refashioning Race Alka V. Menon, 2023-05-16 Cosmetic surgery was once associated with a one size fits all approach modifying patients to conform to a single standard of beauty As this surgery has become more accessible worldwide changing beauty trends have led to a proliferation of beauty standards for members of different racial groups Alka V Menon enters the world of cosmetic surgeons journeying from a sprawling convention center in Kyoto to boutique clinics in the multicultural countries of the United States and Malaysia She shows how surgeons generate and apply knowledge using racial categories and how this process is affected by transnational clinical and economic exchanges Surgeons not only measure and organize but also elaborate upon racial differences in a globalized field of medicine Focusing on the role of cosmetic surgeons as gatekeepers and producers of desired appearances Refashioning Race argues that cosmetic surgeons literally reshape race both on patients bodies and at the broader level of culture

Neoliberal Religion Mathew Guest, 2022-07-14 This book explores neoliberalism as an account of contemporary society and considers what this means for our understanding of religion Neoliberalism is a perspective grounded in free market economics and distinguished by a celebration of competition and consumer choice It has had a profound influence in societies across the world and has extended its reach into all areas of human experience And yet neoliberalism is not just about enterprise and opportunity It also comes with authoritarian leadership gross inequality and the manipulation of information How should we make sense of these changes and what do they mean for the status of religion in the 21st century Has religion been transformed into a market commodity or consumer product Does the embrace of business methods make religious movements more culturally relevant or can they be used to reinforce inequalities of gender or ethnicity How might neoliberal contexts demand we think differently about matters of religious identity and power This book provides an accessible discussion about religion in the 21st century Mathew Guest asks what distinguishes neoliberal religion and explores the sociological and ethical questions that arise from considering its wider significance

Neoliberal Indigenous Policy Elizabeth Strakosch, 2016-02-05 This book examines recent changes to Indigenous policy in English speaking settler states and locates them within the broader shift from social to neo liberal framings of citizen state relations via a case study of Australian federal policy between 2000 and 2007

The 21st Century Ladz Richard Gater, 2025-07-07 The ebook edition of this title is Open Access and freely available to read online Richard Gater studies the school to work transition and formation of masculinity of a group of marginalised working class young men from the South Wales Valleys

Policy, Discourse and Rhetoric Marie Lall, 2012-09-11 This is not yet another book on New Labour and neoliberalism but the only book which uses policy case study evidence to show the rhetorical nature of the commitment New Labour appeared to have been making to education Unlike other books on that era this one aims to review New Labour s time in government through specific policy texts This book reviews some of the major policy shifts in the education sector analysing selected case study policies in order to articulate dominant discourses in recent policy making which have helped establish a particular hegemony The book s originality lies in its policy analysis and case study base whereby key policy texts across different sectors are dissected using the policy cycle framework allowing for an in depth analysis of the policy discourse as well as a discussion on how the neoliberal agenda was reflected and or promoted Education is often only perceived as limited to policies relating to schools and higher education However the book seeks to demonstrate that education as a sector is a much broader field and therefore the areas covered include key policies in citizenship and youth work widening participation in higher education the place of inclusive education in the curriculum the undergraduate medical curriculum and the effect of the Cox review on creativity In effect the broad selection of sectors demonstrates that New Labour s education policies were not only detrimental in traditional education settings but also affected areas such as medicine and the media which are of importance to those who no longer are affected by what happens in institutions of learning and teaching The book is consequently relevant for a much wider audience beyond the education community Handbook on Global Social Justice

Gary Craig,2018-07-27 In the fifty years since Rawls seminal work A Theory of Justice the concept has been debated with those on the political right and left advocating very different understandings This unique global collection written by a group of international experts offers wide ranging analyses of the meaning of social justice that challenge the ability of the market to provide social justice for all The Handbook also looks at how the theory of social justice informs practice within a range of occupations or welfare divisions Handbook on Border Criminology Mary Bosworth,Katja Franko,Maggy Lee,Rimple Mehta,2024-12-09 This topical Handbook investigates the nature and impact of intersections between border control and criminal justice Using comparative and decolonial perspectives it demonstrates the corrosive effect of harsh border practices not just on those subject to them but to many of the key principles of liberal democracy Praxeological Political Analysis

Michael Jonas,Beate Littig,2016-11-03 With the interest in practice theory and praxeology on the rise praxeology can be considered an emerging new methodological as well as theoretical paradigm which successfully overcomes epistemological dichotomies of conventional approaches The articles in this volume serve as starting points for rendering contemporary practice theory approaches useful for the analysis of political events and processes without reducing the political aspect a priori to the formal policy sphere In this context Praxeological Political Analysis demonstrates that praxeological research is now increasingly addressing issues which are considered virulent in for instance the consumer sustainability or political spheres Following on from this key focus on political analysis this title also seeks to expand the current status of primarily political science adaptations of practice theory approaches to the analysis of predominantly narrowly defined political practices Written with an explicit focus on diverse political aspects and dimensions in the performative enactment of social practices this title will appeal to post graduate students and scholars interested in sociology of politics social and public policy relationships motherhood and international development Orgad and Gill draw on Foucault's notion of technologies of self to demonstrate how confidence culture demands of women near constant introspection and vigilance in the service of self improvement They argue that while confidence messaging may feel good it does not address structural and systemic oppression Rather confidence culture suggests that women along with people of color the disabled and other marginalized groups are responsible for their own conditions Rejecting confidence culture's remaking of feminism along individualistic and neoliberal lines Orgad and Gill explore alternative articulations of feminism that go beyond the confidence imperative
