Subcommittee on Federal Spending Practices and Open Government,1980 Community Service Howard Radest,1993-09-30 Radest reviews the history and present practice of community service in the United States While appreciative of the genuine contributions of community service programs to the development of schools and society the author believes that hidden behind good intentions and willing energies there is a strain of ambivalence that cannot be ignored such as when a citizen is sentenced by the court to perform a number of hours of community service He analyzes philosophically and psychologically this ambivalence employing his experience in the field his observations of school and community based programs around the country as well as his point of view as an educator and social critic Sharing Our Success George Taylor Fulford,2007 Reducing the persistent achievement gap between Aboriginal students and their peers is recognized as a national priority This report springs from a study of schools that despite extraordinary challenges are producing tangible progress for Aboriginal learners The research conducted in 2006 was designed to identify practices that appear to contribute to their success Domestic Volunteer Service Amendments of 1978 United States.
